WEST VIRGINIA PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY

Fiscal Year 1994-'95

Pursuant to the requirements of West Virginia Code 5-1-20, Public Defender Services, an agency of the Executive Branch, submits this report for Fiscal Year 1994-'95 to his Excellency, Governor Gaston Caperton and to the West Virginia Legislature. This report describes the agency's activities during Fiscal Year 1994-'95.

Public Defender Services, originally Public Legal Services Council, was established July 1, 1981, by W. Va. Code 29-21-1, et seq., and given the responsibility for administering the provision of legal representation to indigent persons as required by the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution and by Article III, Section 14 of the W. Va. Constitution. The Executive Director, appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the West Virginia Senate, is responsible for the administration of the appointed counsel system; the Public Defender system; the Public Defender Services appellate office; and the Criminal Law Research Center within Public Defender Services.

In December, 1987, Millard Jewell, a Mingo County attorney whose case load was composed of 30 percent appointed cases, filed suit in the West Virginia Supreme Court. The Court appointed a Special Master and evidentiary hearings were held at three locations in the state. In July, 1989, the Court found certain aspects of the indigent defense system unconstitutional. Effective July 1, 1990, the Court required the Legislature to increase appointed counsel rates from $20/$25 per hour to $45/65 per hour, and to raise the fee cap to $3,000. During the 1990 Regular Session of the Legislature, these mandates were enacted into W. Va. Code 29-21-13a and became effective July 1, 1990. This action more than doubled the costs of the appointed counsel system.

Prior to Fiscal Year 1990-'91, Public Defender offices operated in the 2nd, 10th, 23rd/31st (combined), and 28th Judicial Circuits. During Fiscal Year 1989-'90, the 1st, 8th, 12th, 13th, and 30th Circuits opened Public Defender offices. In Fiscal Year 1990-'91, the 7th and 9th Circuit offices opened. In fiscal year 1993-'94, the 15th Circuit office opened; and in fiscal year 1994-'95 offices were opened in the 6th and 24th Circuits. The 1st Circuit offices are located in Wheeling and Weirton; the 2nd Circuit, in Moundsville; the 6th Circuit, in Huntington; 7th Circuit, in Logan; the 8th Circuit, in Welch; the 9th Circuit, in Princeton; the 10th Circuit, in Beckley; the 12th Circuit, in Fayetteville; the 13th Circuit, in Charleston; the 15th Circuit, in Clarksburg; the 23rd Circuit, in Martinsburg; the 24th Circuit, in Wayne; the 28th Circuit, in Summersville; and the 30th Circuit, in Williamson. When fully staffed, the system employs 78 attorneys and 42 support staff.

The Public Defender system is an efficient, cost-effective alternative to the appointed counsel system. Defenders are specialists in criminal law who do not need to research issues as often as do private counsel who only occasionally do criminal work. Appointed counsel are still used when conflicts arise or when temporary case overloads occur.

The Criminal Law Research Center of Public Defender Services is statutorily charged with the responsibility, inter alia, of publishing legal materials useful to West Virginia's criminal law practitioners. The Center's first publication was the Criminal Law Digest (formerly the Criminal Law Index). Over 550 copies of Volume I of the Digest, 424 copies of Volume II of the Digest, 330 copies of Volume III, 282 copies of Volume IV, and 135 copies of Volume V, and 134 copies of the supplements to Volume V have been sold to West Virginia's relatively small defense bar. The Digest has been purchased by Private Practitioners, prosecuting attorneys, Circuit Judges, Magistrates, the Supreme Court, law enforcement agencies, the Department of Corrections, inmates of the state's correctional institutions, as well as many national universities and law schools. Over 480 copies of a set of forms incorporating basic motions have been sold.

In FY 1981-'82, the Research Center received a grant from the Governor's Committee on Crime, Delinquency and Corrections. The grant was used to hire three West Virginia University Law School students whose research during the summer of 1982 formed the basis for the first Digest. The proceeds from the sale of the Digest were sufficient to hire three law students for the summer of 1983. Their work is being used as the basis for a comprehensive set of form jury instructions for use in criminal cases. The First Edition of those instructions sold over 214 copies. The second edition has sold over 145 copies in paperback form and 64 copies on computer disk. A third edition has sold over 61 copies in paperback form and 39 on disk. A fourth edition is planned for early 1996.

Fulfilling its statutory responsibility to conduct legal training programs, PDS' first criminal Trial Advocacy Workshop was held in August, 1985. This workshop brought intensive, small group, video-critiqued advocacy skills training within the reach of West Virginia's indigent defense bar. The workshop offered attorneys an opportunity to significantly improve their skills to the direct benefit of their clients. The workshop was attended by 38 practitioners. Most of the workshop's cost was paid from the sale of publications.

The Center has sponsored the following one-day CLE programs: June, 1986 - Plea Negotiations and Sentencing, Parkersburg; October, 1986 - Juvenile Delinquency Proceedings, Oak Hill; April, 1987 - Child Sexual Abuse Law Seminar, Wheeling; March, 1988 - DNA Testing, Charleston; and, August, 1988 - Seminar on Effective Communication in the Courtroom, Morgantown. Due to recent reductions in staff, no more seminars are planned but video tapes of the seminars already held are available. In addition, the United States Supreme Court Digest (formerly the United States Supreme Court Index) has been discontinued due to staff reductions. This Digest had sold more than 150 volumes when discontinued.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

Appointed Counsel

Using both appropriated and reappropriated funds for FY 1994-'95, PDS processed over $10,549,559.63 in payments for 21,401 claims by appointed counsel and other providers. Because funds were exhausted, these figures represent approximately ten months of work. Unpaid claims not recognized were estimated to be $3 to $3.5 million dollars. The average hourly cost was $53.43 and the average cost per claim was $492.95.

Public Defenders

During FY 1994-'95, Public Defenders provided representation in over 23,948 judicial proceedings. The average hourly cost was $44.03 and the average cost per case was $200.89. Further information on Board composition, staff assignments, expenses and case loads are found within.
