

The Federal Bonding Program

IT'S SIMPLE

The fidelity bonds issued by the FBP guarantee the job honesty of job seekers to employers who want to hire them. Employers receive the bonds free-of-charge as an incentive to hire these applicants. The FBP was designed to reimburse the employer for any loss due to employee theft of money or property up to $5,000 during the first six months of a selected individual's term of employment.

Accessing the program is easy:

- NO application for job seekers to complete
- NO forms for employers to submit or sign
- NO additional paperwork after the bond expires
- NO deductible if employee dishonesty occurs
- NO age requirements for the bonded individuals (other than legal working age in State)

Fidelity bonds can be applied to:

- ANY job
- ANY state
- ANY employee dishonesty committed on or away from the work site
- ANY full or part time employee paid wages with Federal taxes automatically deducted, including individuals hired by temp agencies. However, self-employed people are not eligible for FBP bonds.

GET A BOND

Our national network of State Bonding Coordinators work hand-in-hand with local, state, regional, and national employers; workforce agencies; job seekers; and grantees to issue bonds. If you are seeking bonding services and/or a job you should call the following toll-free number, 1.877.US2.JOBS (1.877.872.5627) for:

1. the location of the workforce office/one-stop center closest to you,
2. the phone number of the State Bonding Coordinator in your state. If no coordinator is assigned in a particular state, the nearest career center/one stop center for employment may assist.

 Employment offer must be presented to an individual prior to bond being issued.*

No other U.S. program provides Fidelity Bonding services.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employers and Job Seekers

WHAT IS IT?

The U.S. Department of Labor established the Federal Bonding Program (FBP) in 1966 to provide Fidelity Bonds that guarantee honesty for “at-risk,” hard-to-place job seekers. The bonds cover the first six months of employment. There is no cost to the job applicant or the employer.

Thousands of employers across the country have integrated the Federal Bonding Program into their hiring practices — industries that support our country’s economy — hospitality, retail, construction, transportation, auto repair, manufacturing, healthcare, banking, tourism and more. The Federal Bonding program has placed over 50,000 at-risk job seekers into employment through bonds. This unique hiring incentive tool targets individuals whose backgrounds can pose significant barriers to securing or retaining employment including:

- Previously incarcerated men, women and youth
- Individuals in recovery from substance abuse
- TANF recipients
- Individuals with poor credit records
- Economically disadvantaged youth and adults with little or no work histories
- Individuals dishonorably discharged from the military

WHO WE SERVE

Employers

The mission of the U.S. Department of Labor’s (USDOL) Federal Bonding Program (FBP) is to give you the peace of mind that you can safely provide all individuals job opportunities with limited risk.

Reducing barriers for people who have been in contact with the criminal justice system and getting their lives back on track builds strong, healthy communities.

Job Seekers

Each year, thousands of previously incarcerated men, women, and young adults return home to restart their lives unfortunately to reticule, discrimination, and hostility. No wonder annually, America’s 600,000 returning citizens are experiencing an up-hill battle that most times leads to recidivism. Many of those instances involve repeat, non-violent offenses due to lack of access to education, health/ mental care, treatment, housing, training, and employment.

The Federal Bonding Program can help you if you are facing barriers to employment by providing fidelity bonding for the first six months on the job applicants.
