THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S PAGE

When I was first appointed, the agency had a proprietary system that collected, compiled, and reported information regarding the billing by private counsel for court-appointed services. As a result, the compilation of robust annual reports was routine.

As technology advanced, the agency was informed its system would no longer be supported. The underlying software programs were obsolete and not upgradeable and the expertise in the Office of Technology regarding such programs was dissipating.

The decision was made to eliminate this interface between the agency's online system for preparing and submitting vouchers and the State's financial system. Restated, the online system would directly interface with the State's financial system. The decision was also made to prepare reports directly from the online system. While conceptually the decisions were sound, the implementation proved problematic.

Eventually, the online system was able to interface directly with the State's financial system without issue. However, the generation of annual reports took a very lengthy period to ensure completeness and accuracy. While reports could be generated by the online developer when requested, the compilation of data into complete reports by agency personnel required continuing refinement and upgrades.

I am grateful for the work of personnel in the agency and the developer of the online system, Tyler Technologies, Inc., for the extensive effort made to enable the generation of annual reports. The following information covers the years for which no annual reports have been issued. Beginning with fiscal year 2026, the agency will again publish annually its compiled data regarding billing by court-appointed counsel and the comparison to the work of the public defender corporations.

Technology is wonderful, but it is often not "off the shelf." But, gratefully, Public Defender Services is now equipped to be transparent and informative about the expenditure of public funds in furtherance of the constitutional mandate to make certain that every citizen has representation when facing the loss of liberty by reason of state action.

Respectfully,
Dana F. Eddy
Executive Director
Public Defender Services

PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
Historical Overview

1. The State of West Virginia's Constitutional Obligation.

Over fifty years ago, the Supreme Court of the United States recognized that:

> [R]eason and reflection require us to recognize that in our adversary system of criminal justice, any person haled into court, who is too poor to hire a lawyer, cannot be assured a fair trial unless counsel is provided for him. This seems to us to be an obvious truth. Governments, both state and federal, quite properly spend vast sums of money to establish machinery to try defendants accused of crime. Lawyers to prosecute are everywhere deemed essential to protect the public's interest in an orderly society. … The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours. From the very beginning, our state and national constitutions and laws have laid great emphasis on procedural and substantive safeguards designed to assure fair trials before impartial tribunals in which every defendant stands equal before the law. This noble idea cannot be realized if the poor man charged with crime has to face his accusers without a lawyer to assist him.

Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335, 344, 83 S.Ct. 792 (1963). With this decision, the Supreme Court of the United States, through the Fourteenth Amendment, extended the Sixth Amendment guarantee of the assistance of counsel in criminal prosecutions to the states. Essentially, states had to provide counsel for persons who were too poor to pay for legal services when these persons were confronted with criminal charges or the loss of other important rights by reason of state action.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia reaffirmed this constitutional mandate as follows:

> "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has. ..." Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12, 76 S.Ct. 585, 100 L.Ed. 891 (1956). … The state must, as a matter of equal protection, provide indigents with the basic tools for an adequate defense or appeal, when those tools are available for a price to others.

State v. England, 363 S.E.2d 725, 727 (W. Va. 1987). Accordingly, a defense must be provided to indigent defendants and the defense must include not only the services of the attorney, but the provision of other services and material, including the transcripts of proceedings. Id.

2. The Legislative Findings.

In 1981, the following was codified at W. Va. Code §29-21-1:

> The Legislature finds and declares that in certain proceedings the state is required to provide high quality legal assistance to indigent persons who would be otherwise unable to afford adequate legal counsel; that providing legal representation to those who face an economic barrier to adequate legal counsel will serve the ends of justice in accordance with rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the Constitution of the United States of America and the constitution of the state of West Virginia; that the availability of quality legal assistance reaffirms the faith of our citizens in our government of laws; that the present system which utilizes appointed counsel is not operating satisfactorily in some areas of this state and the Legislature is presently unable to determine what system or systems will provide the most efficient means for providing legal representation; that there is a need to explore alternative methods of delivering legal assistance, including the use of salaried public defenders complemented by private panel attorneys; that innovative programs and pilot projects as well as a continuation of the present appointed counsel system are necessary in separate areas of the state to provide information and experience upon which to base future legislative action.

The West Virginia Public Legal Services Council was then created "for the purpose of facilitating required legal representation of indigent persons". W. Va. Code §29-21-3 (1981; superseded in 1989).

In 1989, the agency was renamed as Public Defender Services and was charged as follows:

> The agency shall have as its principal purpose the development and improvement of programs by which the state provides legal representation to indigent persons.

W. Va. Code §29-21-4. This remains the agency's charge.

PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
Organizational Structure

Public Defender Services is within the Department of Administration for the State of West Virginia. The chief administrative officer is the Executive Director, who is appointed by the governor.

For administrative purposes, the agency is divided into three Divisions: the Administrative Division, the Policy Division, and the Office of Legal Representation. Within the three divisions are statutory mandated responsibilities.

By statute, an Accounting and Auditing Division is charged with the following responsibilities:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an accounting and auditing division to require and monitor the compliance with this article by public defender corporations and other persons or entities receiving funding or compensation from the agency. The accounting and auditing division shall review all plans and proposals for grants and contracts and shall make a recommendation of approval or disapproval to the executive director. The accounting and auditing division shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, reports concerning the evaluation, inspection or monitoring of public defender corporations and other grantees, contractors, persons or entities receiving financial assistance under this article and shall further carry out the agency's responsibilities for records and reports as set forth in section eighteen of this article. The accounting and auditing division shall require each public defender corporation to submit financial statements monthly and to report monthly on the billable and nonbillable time of its professional employees, including time used in administration of the respective offices, so as to compare the time to similar time expended in nonpublic law offices for similar activities. The accounting and auditing division shall provide to the executive director assistance in the fiscal administration of all of the agency's divisions. This assistance shall include, but not be limited to, budget preparation and statistical analysis.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(d). The agency's organizational chart will not reflect this division. The agency does not have a budget enabling it to retain an independent staff of accounts and auditors. Instead, the functions of the division are performed by the OVS Auditor, and the Public Defender Corporation Resource Center within the Policy Division. Overall compliance with financial policies and budgetary constraints is ensured by the Chief Financial Officer.

By statute, the Criminal Law Research Center has the following charge:

> (1) Undertake research, studies and analyses and act as a central repository, clearinghouse and disseminator of research materials;
> (2) Prepare and distribute a criminal law manual and other materials and establish and implement standard and specialized training programs for attorneys practicing criminal law;
> (3) Provide and coordinate continuing legal education programs and services for attorneys practicing criminal law; and
> (4) Prepare, supplement and disseminate indices and digests of decisions of the West Virginia supreme court of appeals and other courts, statutes and other legal authorities relating to criminal law.

W. Va. Code §29-21-7. The agency has a Criminal Law Research Center that is operated by a coordinator and is within the Policy Division. But, again, the agency does not have the budget for an independent staff of attorneys who could perform the legal work that is then managed by the Coordinator. Instead, the agency requires every attorney employed by the agency to contribute to the Criminal Law Research Center in addition to their other duties and responsibilities.

By statute, the Appellate Advocacy Division is established as follows:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an appellate advocacy division for the purpose of prosecuting litigation on behalf of eligible clients in the Supreme Court of Appeals. The executive director or his or her designee shall be the director of the appellate advocacy division. The appellate advocacy division shall represent eligible clients upon appointment by the circuit courts or by the Supreme Court of Appeals. The division may, however, refuse the appointments due to a conflict of interest or if the executive director has determined the existing caseload cannot be increased without jeopardizing the appellate division's ability to provide effective representation. In order to effectively and efficiently use the resources of the appellate division, the executive director may restrict the provision of appellate representation to certain types of cases. The executive director may select and employ staff attorneys to perform the duties prescribed by this subsection. The appellate division shall maintain records of representation of eligible clients for record purposes only.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(e). This division is included within the Office of Legal Representation.

Beginning in 2019, the statute established another legal division as follows:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate a division within the agency for the purpose of prosecuting writs of habeas corpus on behalf of eligible clients in the circuit courts of the state and before the Supreme Court of > Appeals. The executive director or his or her designee shall be the director of the division. The division shall represent eligible clients upon appointment by a circuit court or the Supreme Court of Appeals. A court may appoint the division to represent an eligible person unless the appointment would create a conflict of interest or the executive director has notified the court in writing that the division's existing caseload cannot be increased for a specified period of time without jeopardizing its ability to provide effective representation. In appointing the division, a court should determine whether the appointment of the division is the most effective use of the office considering the grounds and legal issues raised by the petitioner. The executive director may select and employ staff attorneys, paraprofessionals, and investigators to perform the duties prescribed by this subsection. The division shall maintain records of representation of eligible clients for record-keeping purposes only.

This "Habeas Corpus Division" is included within the Office of Legal Representation.

Additionally, the agency operates the Appointed Counsel Services Division which contains the voucher processing staff that processes for payment the vouchers which are submitted by private attorneys who accept appointments in eligible proceedings, which are defined as follows:

> Criminal charges which may result in incarceration; juvenile proceedings; proceedings to revoke parole or probation if the revocation may result in incarceration; contempt of court; child abuse and neglect proceedings which may result in a termination of parental rights; mental hygiene commitment proceedings; extradition proceedings; proceedings which are ancillary to an eligible proceeding, including, but not limited to, proceedings to enhance sentences brought pursuant to sections eighteen and nineteen, article eleven, chapter sixty-one of this code, forfeiture proceedings brought pursuant to article seven, chapter sixty-a of this code, and proceedings brought to obtain extraordinary remedies; and appeals from or post-conviction challenges to the final judgment in an eligible proceeding. Legal representation provided pursuant to the provisions of this article is limited to the court system of the state of West Virginia, but does not include representation in municipal courts unless the accused is at risk of incarceration ….

W. Va. Code §29-21-2(2). A "help desk" is also part of the division and is designed to assist attorneys with the preparation of vouchers.

The agency also operates the Public Defender Corporation Resource Center within the Policy Division, which is dedicated to providing services to the administrators of, and attorneys within, the eighteen public defender corporations operating throughout the state. The Center is a recognition that not every public defender corporation can support or fund certain positions critical to the representation of a client. Also, the Center is a recognition that the corporations, while separate entities, must maintain uniform systems centralized within the agency to maximize the funding made available through legislative appropriation. Accordingly, the Center houses two administrative assistants who perform tasks as assigned by the Chief Process Officer.

In addition to the agency's divisions, the statutory framework for the agency includes two additional entities.

Indigent Defense Commission.

The first is the Indigent Defense Commission. Specifically,

> (a) There is hereby established the Indigent Defense Commission to provide assistance to Public Defender Services with regard to the general policies and procedures of the agency, including, but not limited to, the opening, closing or merging of public defender offices throughout the state and the establishment of performance measures for the qualitative review of indigent defense.
> (b) In order to demonstrate a collaborative approach to solving criminal justice problems, the commission shall consist of the Executive Director of Public Defender Services, who shall serve as chair, and the following members appointed by the Governor:
> (1) One former or retired circuit judge;
> (2) Three lawyers, at least one of which is from each congressional district, who have significant experience in the defense of criminal cases or have demonstrated a strong commitment to quality representation of indigent defendants;
> (3) One current chief public defender; […],
> (4) One nonlawyer with a demonstrated commitment to providing legal services to the indigent;
> (5) One person who is a member of an organization that advocates on behalf of people with mental illness and developmental disabilities; and

(6) One attorney with significant experience in the defense of juvenile delinquency and abuse and neglect cases.

(c) The commission shall meet at the times and places specified by the call of the chair: Provided, That the commission shall meet no less than four times each year. Members shall serve without compensation but may receive reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses for each day or portion thereof engaged in this discharge of official duties in a manner consistent with the guidelines of the Travel Management Office of the Department of Administration.

(f) The commission has the following powers and duties:

(1) To develop standards regarding the qualifications and training for public defenders, assistant public defenders and staff;

(2) To explore opportunities related to the training of appointed panel attorneys;

(3) To evaluate, on an annual basis, the compensation and caseloads of public defenders and appointed panel attorneys;

(4) To develop standards for providing and compensating expert witnesses, investigators and other persons who provide services related to legal representation under this article;

(5) To study, monitor and evaluate existing standards for determining eligibility for legal representation under section sixteen of this article;

(6) To study the feasibility and need of creating additional public defender corporations, the activation of public defender corporations and the formation of multicircuit or regional public defender corporations in accordance with the provisions of section eight of this article;

(7) To study the potential for the dissolution of public defender corporations;

(8) To study, monitor, evaluate and make recommendations regarding the training, experience and background necessary for a public defender or panel attorney to competently represent indigent defendants in capital cases; and

(9) To monitor and make recommendations regarding the following activities of the board of directors of each public defender corporation receiving funding pursuant to this article:

(A) The appointment of the public defender and any assistant public defenders pursuant to subdivision (1), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article;

(B) The fixing of professional and clerical salaries pursuant to subdivision (2), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article; and

(C) The removal of any public defender, assistant public defender or other employee for misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance pursuant to subdivision (3), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article.

W. Va. Code §29-21-3b.

Public Defender Corporations.

The second entity involved in indigent defense is the public defender corporation, which, if active within a judicial circuit, is "to provide legal representation … in accordance with the provisions" of the governing statute. W. Va. Code §29-21-8(a)(2).

For each public defender corporation, a board of directors is appointed. The chairperson of the board is appointed by the governor. One to two members for each county in the judicial circuit are appointed by the county commission. One to two additional members are appointed by each county bar association within the judicial circuit. The board selects a "chief" public defender who is then responsible for the delivery of legal services by the corporation. Unless inconsistent with the governing statute, the provisions of the state's nonprofit corporate laws govern the public defender corporations.
