The Executive Director's Page

Public Defender Services' administrative responsibilities include, by statute, processing for payment the vouchers setting forth the court-appointed counsel's claims for fees and reimbursement of expenses; providing and administering grants to public defender corporations operating in eighteen (18) judicial circuits; operating an appellate advocacy division; and providing support to criminal defense lawyers through a criminal law research center. In all these areas, the agency strives for excellence. However, each day in the world of indigent defense brings new challenges or exposes existing flaws.

The agency's most daunting problem is overcoming the perception that panel attorneys are overbilling. This perception is the hurdle most often encountered in the effort to increase the rates of compensation. A common refrain from lawmakers or administrators is that, "attorneys have given themselves a raise". One statistic is sufficient to attest to an endemic problem in the billing: Since January 1, 2013, attorneys have billed over twenty-four hours in a day 183 times. This number will increase as additional vouchers with services in FY2015 are received.

The agency is auditing the vouchers of attorneys who are identified as billing in excess of twenty-four hours and have conferred with eleven counsel directly. The effort will continue. The hope is that by the end of FY2016, the level of billing will not be so obviously open to criticism, and a raise in the rates of compensation, assuming funding is available, will be more readily discussed.

In FY2015, Public Defender Services achieved a goal of processing vouchers for payment within thirty days of receipt. Unfortunately, the funding for the vouchers has not kept pace and attorneys may not be beneficiaries, yet, of this increased efficiency. In FY2015, the agency processed 36,266 vouchers.

In FY2015, Public Defender Services structured the funding for a public defender corporation in the Fourth Judicial Circuit of West Virginia and assisted in the formulation of a board of directors for the corporation. The anticipation is that the public defender corporation will take appointments, commencing in January 2016.

In FY2015, Public Defender Services provided continuing legal education credits to 264 attorneys throughout the state; provided newsletters summarizing all opinions of the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia; and provided summaries of legislation affecting criminal laws.

In closing, a delicate balance has to be reached by the agency. Public Defender Services is charged with "administer[ing], coordinat[ing,] and evaluat[ing] programs by which the state provides legal representation to indigent persons". This means supporting attorneys in the effort, but it also means addressing issues with attorneys and challenging attorneys on questionable practices. So, at times, the agency will be perceived as an antagonist rather than a protagonist.

While unfortunate, this is also unavoidable. In FY2016, the agency will continue to strive to achieve this balance and to enhance the experience of defending individuals whose liberty interests are at stake and who do not have the means to hire legal counsel.

Respectfully,

Dana F. Eddy

* Average cost per hour for Public Defender Corporations is calculated by removing Administrative Time (i.e., all non-client related work, such as office administration and paid leave). This provides a better indicator of the amount it costs for direct legal services to compare to Appointed Counsel. If you include Administrative Time, the average cost per hour for Public Defender Corporations is $69.91.

PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
Historical Overview

1. The State of West Virginia's Constitutional Obligation.

Over fifty years ago, the Supreme Court of the United States recognized that:

> [R]eason and reflection require us to recognize that in our adversary system of criminal justice, any person haled into court, who is too poor to hire a lawyer, cannot be assured a fair trial unless counsel is provided for him. This seems to us to be an obvious truth. Governments, both state and federal, quite properly spend vast sums of money to establish machinery to try defendants accused of crime. Lawyers to prosecute are everywhere deemed essential to protect the public's interest in an orderly society. … The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours. From the very beginning, our state and national constitutions and laws have laid great emphasis on procedural and substantive safeguards designed to assure fair trials before impartial tribunals in which every defendant stands equal before the law. This noble idea cannot be realized if the poor man charged with crime has to face his accusers without a lawyer to assist him.

Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335, 344, 83 S.Ct. 792 (1963). With this decision, the Supreme Court of the United States extended the Sixth Amendment guarantee of the assistance of counsel in criminal prosecutions to the states through the Fourteenth Amendment. Essentially, states had to provide counsel for persons who were too poor to pay for legal services when these persons were confronted with criminal charges or the loss of other important rights by reason of state action.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia reaffirmed this constitutional mandate as follows:

> "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has. ..." Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12, 76 S.Ct. 585, 100 L.Ed. 891 (1956). … The state must, as a matter of equal protection, provide indigents with the basic tools for an adequate defense or appeal, when those tools are available for a price to others.

For more information, and any accessibility concerns, please contact Dana Eddy at dana.f.eddy@wv.gov.

State v. England, 363 S.E.2d 725, 727 (W. Va. 1987). Accordingly, a defense must be provided to indigent defendants and the defense must include not only the services of the attorney, but the provision of other services and material, including the transcripts of proceedings. Id.

2. The Legislative Findings.

In 1981, the following was codified at W. Va. Code §29-21-1:

> The Legislature finds and declares that in certain proceedings the state is required to provide high quality legal assistance to indigent persons who would be otherwise unable to afford adequate legal counsel; that providing legal representation to those who face an economic barrier to adequate legal counsel will serve the ends of justice in accordance with rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the Constitution of the United States of America and the constitution of the state of West Virginia; that the availability of quality legal assistance reaffirms the faith of our citizens in our government of laws; that the present system which utilizes appointed counsel is not operating satisfactorily in some areas of this state and the Legislature is presently unable to determine what system or systems will provide the most efficient means for providing legal representation; that there is a need to explore alternative methods of delivering legal assistance, including the use of salaried public defenders complemented by private panel attorneys; that innovative programs and pilot projects as well as a continuation of the present appointed counsel system are necessary in separate areas of the state to provide information and experience upon which to base future legislative action.

The West Virginia Public Legal Services Council was then created "for the purpose of facilitating required legal representation of indigent persons". W. Va. Code §29-21-3 (1981; superseded in 1989).

In 1989, the agency was renamed as Public Defender Services and was charged as follows:

> The agency shall have as its principal purpose the development and improvement of programs by which the state provides legal representation to indigent persons.

W. Va. Code §29-21-4. This remains the agency's charge.

PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
An Organizational Overview

VISION: "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has."

Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12 (1956)

MISSION STATEMENT: To fulfill the State of West Virginia's constitutional obligation to provide quality legal assistance to persons who otherwise could not afford legal counsel in proceedings in which the person's liberty interests are at stake.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE:

Public Defender Services is within the Department of Administration for the State of West Virginia. The chief administrative officer is the Executive Director, who is appointed by the governor.

The agency has three divisions.

The Accounting and Auditing Division is charged with the following responsibilities:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an accounting and auditing division to require and monitor the compliance with this article by public defender corporations and other persons or entities receiving funding or compensation from the agency. The accounting and auditing division shall review all plans and proposals for grants and contracts and shall make a recommendation of approval or disapproval to the executive director. The accounting and auditing division shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, reports concerning the evaluation, inspection or monitoring of public defender corporations and other grantees, contractors, persons or entities receiving financial assistance under this article and shall further carry out the agency's responsibilities for records and reports as set forth in section eighteen of this article. The accounting and auditing division shall require each public defender corporation to submit financial statements monthly and to report monthly on the billable and nonbillable time of its professional employees, including time used in administration of the respective offices, so as to compare the time to similar time expended in nonpublic law offices for similar activities. The accounting and auditing division shall provide to the executive director assistance in the fiscal administration of all of the agency's divisions. This assistance shall include, but not be limited to, budget preparation and statistical analysis.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(d).

ARCHIVED: This PDF has been archived because it contains historical information and data that may not be currently applicable.
For more information, and any accessibility concerns, please contact Dana Eddy at dana.f.eddy@wv.gov.

The Accounting and Auditing Division also contains the voucher processing staff that processes for payment the vouchers which are submitted by private attorneys who accept appointments in eligible proceedings, which are defined as follows:

> Criminal charges which may result in incarceration; juvenile proceedings; proceedings to revoke parole or probation if the revocation may result in incarceration; contempt of court; child abuse and neglect proceedings which may result in a termination of parental rights; mental hygiene commitment proceedings; extradition proceedings; proceedings which are ancillary to an eligible proceeding, including, but not limited to, proceedings to enhance sentences brought pursuant to sections eighteen and nineteen, article eleven, chapter sixty-one of this code, forfeiture proceedings brought pursuant to article seven, chapter sixty-a of this code, and proceedings brought to obtain extraordinary remedies; and appeals from or post-conviction challenges to the final judgment in an eligible proceeding. Legal representation provided pursuant to the provisions of this article is limited to the court system of the state of West Virginia, but does not include representation in municipal courts unless the accused is at risk of incarceration ….

W. Va. Code §29-21-2(2).

The Criminal Law Research Center is another division of the agency and has the following statutory charge:

> (1) Undertake research, studies and analyses and act as a central repository, clearinghouse and disseminator of research materials;
> (2) Prepare and distribute a criminal law manual and other materials and establish and implement standard and specialized training programs for attorneys practicing criminal law;
> (3) Provide and coordinate continuing legal education programs and services for attorneys practicing criminal law; and
> (4) Prepare, supplement and disseminate indices and digests of decisions of the West Virginia supreme court of appeals and other courts, statutes and other legal authorities relating to criminal law.

W. Va. Code §29-21-7.

Finally, the agency's third division, the Appellate Advocacy Division is established as follows:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an appellate advocacy division for the purpose of prosecuting litigation on behalf of eligible clients in the Supreme Court of Appeals. The executive director or his or her > designee shall be the director of the appellate advocacy division. The appellate advocacy division shall represent eligible clients upon appointment by the circuit courts or by the Supreme Court of Appeals. The division may, however, refuse the appointments due to a conflict of interest or if the executive director has determined the existing caseload cannot be increased without jeopardizing the appellate division's ability to provide effective representation. In order to effectively and efficiently use the resources of the appellate division, the executive director may restrict the provision of appellate representation to certain types of cases. The executive director may select and employ staff attorneys to perform the duties prescribed by this subsection. The appellate division shall maintain records of representation of eligible clients for record purposes only.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(e).

In addition to the agency's divisions, the statutory framework for the agency includes two additional entities.

Indigent Defense Commission.

The first is the Indigent Defense Commission. Specifically,

> (a) There is hereby established the Indigent Defense Commission to provide assistance to Public Defender Services with regard to the general policies and procedures of the agency, including, but not limited to, the opening, closing or merging of public defender offices throughout the state and the establishment of performance measures for the qualitative review of indigent defense.
> (b) In order to demonstrate a collaborative approach to solving criminal justice problems, the commission shall consist of the Executive Director of Public Defender Services, who shall serve as chair, and the following members appointed by the Governor:
> (1) One former or retired circuit judge;
> (2) Three lawyers, one from each congressional district, who have significant experience in the defense of criminal cases or have demonstrated a strong commitment to quality representation of indigent defendants;

For more information, and any accessibility concerns, please contact Dana Eddy at dana.f.eddy@wv.gov.

(3) One current chief public defender; […],

(4) One nonlawyer with a demonstrated commitment to providing legal services to the indigent;

(5) One person who is a member of an organization that advocates on behalf of people with mental illness and developmental disabilities; and

(6) One attorney with significant experience in the defense of juvenile delinquency and abuse and neglect cases.

(c) The commission shall meet at the times and places specified by the call of the chair: Provided, That the commission shall meet no less than four times each year. Members shall serve without compensation but may receive reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses for each day or portion thereof engaged in this discharge of official duties in a manner consistent with the guidelines of the Travel Management Office of the Department of Administration.

(f) The commission has the following powers and duties:

(1) To develop standards regarding the qualifications and training for public defenders, assistant public defenders and staff;

(2) To explore opportunities related to the training of appointed panel attorneys;

(3) To evaluate, on an annual basis, the compensation and caseloads of public defenders and appointed panel attorneys;

(4) To develop standards for providing and compensating expert witnesses, investigators and other persons who provide services related to legal representation under this article;

(5) To study, monitor and evaluate existing standards for determining eligibility for legal representation under section sixteen of this article;

(6) To study the feasibility and need of creating additional public defender corporations, the activation of public defender corporations and the formation of multicircuit > or regional public defender corporations in accordance with the provisions of section eight of this article;

> (7) To study the potential for the dissolution of public defender corporations;
> (8) To study, monitor, evaluate and make recommendations regarding the training, experience and background necessary for a public defender or panel attorney to competently represent indigent defendants in capital cases; and
> (9) To monitor and make recommendations regarding the following activities of the board of directors of each public defender corporation receiving funding pursuant to this article:
> (A) The appointment of the public defender and any assistant public defenders pursuant to subdivision (1), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article;
> (B) The fixing of professional and clerical salaries pursuant to subdivision (2), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article; and
> (C) The removal of any public defender, assistant public defender or other employee for misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance pursuant to subdivision (3), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article.

W. Va. Code §29-21-3b.

Public Defender Corporations.

The second entity is the public defender corporation, which, if active within a judicial circuit, is "to provide legal representation … in accordance with the provisions" of the governing statute. W. Va. Code §29-21-8(a)(2).

For each public defender corporation, a board of directors is appointed. The chairperson of the board is appointed by the governor. One to two members for each county in the judicial circuit are appointed by the county commission. One to two additional members are appointed by each county bar association within the judicial circuit. The board selects a "chief" public defender who is then responsible for the delivery of legal services by the corporation. Unless

AUDITING AND ACCOUNTING DIVISION: PUBLIC DEFENDER CORPORATIONS

For FY2015, there were seventeen public defender corporations serving eighteen judicial circuits (see subsequent table below). Although Public Defender Services establishes strategic objectives for the delivery of legal services to indigents in eligible proceedings, public defender corporations are not subordinate divisions of this agency, but are autonomous quasi-governmental entities. The Internal Revenue Code classifies these organizations as non-profit (see 26USC501) and as a public charity (see 26USC509). In essence, employees of the public defender corporations are neither employees of Public Defender Services nor employees of the State of West Virginia, but are employees of a specific non-profit organization governed by a board of directors appointed by the Governor, local bar associations, and county commissions.

Summary of Activated Public Defender Corporations
See W.Va. Code § 29-21-8

Circuit	Fiscal Year	Office Locations
1st	1990	Wheeling & Weirton
2nd	Before 1991	Moundsville
4th	2015	Parkersburg
5th	1996	Ripley & Spencer
6th & 24th	1995	Huntington & Wayne
7th	1991	Logan
8th	1990	Welch
9th	1991	Princeton
10th	Before 1991	Beckley
11th	2000	Lewisburg & Marlinton
12th	1990	Fayetteville
13th	1990	Charleston
15th	1994	Clarksburg
18th	2001	Kingwood
23rd	Before 1991	Martinsburg & Charles Town
25th	2000	Madison & Hamlin
28th	Before 1991	Summersville
30th	1990	Williamson

For FY2015, Public Defender Services made grants in the amount of $17,753,260[1] to and on behalf of the Public Defender Corporations. In return for these grants, the Public Defender Corporations reported 253,930.2 attorney hours and 33,170 closed cases. This represents approximately $69.91 per hour and $535.22 per closed case. However, reducing the attorney time by the 64,124 hours reported as administrative time (189,806.20), the cost per hour increases to $93.53 with no effect to the overall cost per case.

[1] Excludes $400,000 grant to 4th Circuit for startup expenses. This figure will be included in the FY16 cost-per-case calculation.

APPELLATE ADVOCACY DIVISION

"The right of an accused in a criminal trial to due process is in essence, the right to a fair opportunity to defend against the State's accusations." Chambers v. Mississippi, 410 U.S. 284, 294, 93 S. Ct. 1038, 1045 (1973). The Appellate Advocacy Division strives to protect this right and to ensure that West Virginia conducts its criminal trials in accordance with the rule of law rather than compromising justice in light of the citizen-defendants' perceived opprobrium.

The Appellate Advocacy Division's primary task is to pursue appeals on behalf of indigent criminal defendants throughout the state who stand convicted of serious crimes resulting in lengthy prison sentences. The four lawyers and two staff comprising the division zealously advocate for their clients in the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia, and in appropriate cases, three of the division's lawyers can file petitions for certiorari to the Supreme Court of the United States. The Appellate Division prefers complex cases or cases presenting issues of first impression so that in addition to protecting each individual client's rights, the law in general can advance in a positive direction.

The Appellate Advocacy Division believes that trial and appellate lawyers can develop a united front in the defense of the indigent citizens of our state. In an effort to implement this team approach, the division assists attorneys throughout the State by answering attorney assistance calls and participating in continuing legal education programs offered by the Criminal Law Research Center. The Appellate lawyers participated in every CLE program the Criminal Law Research Center held this year, including the Annual Conference.

Attorney assistance calls are a new service the division offers to fulltime public defenders and panel attorneys appointed to represent indigent defendants. Trial attorneys can call with a legal question and speak to one of the appellate attorneys who will research the issue and provide feedback, discuss strategy, provide sample motions or any other resource that could be helpful to the trial attorney. The division can also brainstorm and host moot court for attorneys either in person or via phone conference. In the first full year of the assistance call program, the division assisted more than 40 panel attorneys and fulltime public defenders calling with legal questions.

The Appellate Advocacy Division is dedicated to vigorous representation of every client during both the trial and appellate phase. The division's ultimate goal is to help to ensure that every indigent citizen charged with a crime enjoys all the constitutional rights and protections guaranteed under the constitutions of both the United States and West Virginia.

INDIGENT DEFENSE COMMISSION

The Indigent Defense Commission was reconstituted in 2014. The members are the Honorable John L. Cummings, Senior Status Judge from Milton; Valena E. Beatty, WVU College of Law Professor and Chair of the WV Innocence Project, from Morgantown; Lonnie C. Simmons, a criminal defense attorney and the Chair of the Public Defender Corporation for the 13th Judicial Circuit, from Charleston; George Castelle, former Chief Public Defender for the 13th Judicial Circuit, from Charleston; Lawrence P. Shao, Ph.D., former Professor of Finance at Marshall University, from Huntington; Karen B. Yost, President and Chief Executive Officer of Prestera Center for Mental Health Services, Inc., from Huntington; and Vanessa Ann Welch, an attorney with significant experience in the defense of Juvenile delinquency and abuse and neglect cases, from Morgantown. The Executive Director of Public Defender Services serves as Chair of the Commission.

The Commission met three times this year before the drafting of this Annual Report. On January 29, it held its organizational meeting at the PDS offices in Charleston. The members discussed the online voucher system; the statutory directives to develop standards for providing and compensating expert witnesses, investigators and others, and to study the feasibility of creating multi-circuit or regional public defender corporations; and the findings; and recommendations of two performance reviews issued by the Legislative Auditor's office in January 1999 and June 2004. Also discussed was the concept of gathering information on the qualitative aspects of public defense and the reasons cases are assigned to panel attorneys rather than to public defender corporations. Members then discussed the possibilities of developing a continuing legal education seminar on how to navigate the mental health system, and preparing a video to be made available through the state bar, which panel attorneys could review before accepting appointments of mental health cases.

The Commission met again on April 24. At that meeting, the Chair reported that he and members of the PDS staff had met with Barbara Core and Matt Arrowood, Division of Circuit Clerk Services of the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia, on April 2 in Marion County, to discuss the Supreme Court's E-Filing Pilot Project. This project will allow PDS to have electronic access to Circuit Court documents, which will facilitate further analysis of vouchers submitted for payment. The Commission also discussed the hourly rates paid to panel attorneys, and the consideration of proposing a decrease of hourly rates for travel to effectuate an increase for legal services.

Public Defender Corporation for the First Judicial Circuit

Under the direction of our nine-member Board of Directors, the Public Defender Corporation for the First Judicial Circuit is a client focused non-profit organization operating in the Northern Panhandle of West Virginia. In order to meet the demands of the four judges and ten magistrates located in our tri-county circuit, we employ a diverse collection of nine full time attorneys representing approximately 177 years of combined legal experience. Our attorneys are supported through five non-lawyer staff associates with 65 years of dedicated service. Our attorneys and staff are split between two offices located in Wheeling and Weirton.

Our primary mission is the direct representation of indigent citizens accused by the government of crimes against the state. We do this well—everyone knows what we bring! Our secondary mission focuses on preserving the Rule of Law.

Gideon correctly states that attorneys are not luxuries but necessities. FY14 witnessed increases in total cases by the Corporation over FY13 from 55.99% to 59.48%. For example, felonies increased from 59.71% to 64.35%; Misdemeanors increased from 87.36% to 89.07%; and juveniles increased from 61.66% to 68.93%. Also relevant, our cost per case remains $495.77 lower than the panel attorney. These raw numbers provide the best evidence of our cost effectiveness.[1] In addition to the above, the Corporation, by Circuit Court appointment, also represents citizens in municipal court, parole/probation revocations, juvenile matters, abuse and neglect proceedings, as well as other miscellaneous matters involving jeopardized freedom.

To be clear, cost-saving measures are not the true measure of our effectiveness. That honor belongs to the performance of our employees. Our Corporation takes pride in the competent delivery of legal services to our clients. Collectively, our board, attorneys, and support staff are the Corporation. We are a learning organization—combining experience, talent, and advocacy—collectively aimed towards assisting the indigent accused through the legal and regulatory minefield. Equally important, we are vested in the community we serve. Our employees are military veterans, members of local boards, former elected officials, community volunteers, and are active in community events.

Our dedication to the rule of law shapes our end state—that being our well-earned reputation as an obstacle on the road to tyranny. We are the quiet guardians of liberty.

Shayne M. Welling,
Chief Public Defender
Sulum Teneo Quis Nos Addo

Public Defender Corporation for the Second Judicial Circuit

A proverb claims, “Change is neither good nor bad, it is simply constant”. However, the Second Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation has experienced change in Fiscal Year 2015 while maintaining its high quality legal representation of the indigent. Although Chief Public Defender David L. Zehnder is retiring, he continues to serve as Chief Public Defender as a consultant, and supervises the Corporation and Managing Attorney Brett M. Ferro, who started work on January 5, 2015.

The Second Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation reduced its cost per case from $565.78 in FY2013 to $456.78 in FY2014, which increased the savings achieved from $23.87 per case in FY2013 to $222.49 per case in FY2014.

As of June 30, 2015, the office employed Mr. Zehnder, Mr. Ferro, three assistant public defenders, and two clerical staff. Public Defender Services has funded a third clerical position for FY2016. Two additional lay board members have been nominated and are awaiting confirmation from the Commissions of Tyler and Wetzel Counties. If both nominees are confirmed, the Board will consist of the Chairwoman, a Marshall County attorney, and lay members from all three Counties.

In January 2015, Circuit Judge David W. Hummel, Jr., became Chief Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit and assumed criminal jurisdiction in Marshall County, the most populous County in the Circuit. A large backlog of cases was swiftly cleared in January and February by the Court with the assistance and efforts of all of the attorneys, and several felony trials were conducted. All three assistant public defenders achieved felony acquittals in Marshall County Circuit Court during that time. John Anderson had three felony jury trial acquittals, Jeremiah Gardner had one felony jury trial acquittal in Wetzel County and one in Marshall County, and John Gainer had a client acquitted of a felony and convicted of the lesser-included offense of misdemeanor battery. He also kept another jury deliberating about the meaning of reasonable doubt until ten o’clock on a Friday night.

Our office has continued to provide effective representation of its clients in a cost-effective way. We continue to represent a majority of the Circuit's Drug Court and Mental Health Court participants. We remain ready, willing, and able to serve when called to duty.

Brett M. Ferro,
Managing Attorney

Public Defender Corporation for the Fourth Judicial Circuit

On January 4, 2016, West Virginia's eighteenth public defender office will officially open its doors for business, serving indigent criminal clients in Wood and Wirt counties. Ultimately, this office will employ a total of nine attorneys, including the Chief Public Defender Michele Rusen and five to six legal assistants.

Throughout 2015, plans and preparations for the office were underway. This marks the first time a new public defender corporation has opened in West Virginia in many years. Working closely with our board of directors, office space was located, renovations were planned and designed, and furniture and computers were purchased. Staff was hired. The challenges of opening a new office were daunting at times, but the end result is an office of which we are quite proud.

As we prepared to open our office, we focused on our future goals: providing our clients with skilled legal representation while hopefully guiding them to resolve issues that may have led to their involvement in the criminal justice system whenever possible. To that end, we spent many hours meeting and conferring with court officials ranging from probation officers, magistrates and judges and meeting with a variety of social service providers. We compiled information on as many available services and programs as possible so that our clients could be steered to appropriate providers. We also now participate in Juvenile Drug Court and plan to remain an active participant in that valuable program.

It is fast becoming apparent that the state cannot continue to incarcerate as many people as historically has occurred. Politicians at all levels are coming to this realization including county commissions who no longer want to pay enormous jail bills as well as state officials who are contemplating state revenue shortfalls. Accordingly, we are committed to thinking outside the box as we work with our future clients to ensure that they receive the best possible legal services and legal advice we can provide.

Public Defender Corporation for the Fifth Judicial Circuit

Organizational Information

Organization's History:

The Public Defender Corporation held its first board meeting on the 31st day of July 1996 and includes the 5th Judicial Circuit of Calhoun, Roane, Jackson, and Mason counties in West Virginia. However, during the process the Mason County Bar brought a lawsuit against the corporation and was granted an injunction for operation in Mason County. At the time, the injunction was not challenged and the corporation along with Public Defender Services made the mutual decision not to litigate the injunction as Public Defender Services and the corporation being in their infancies and it was agreed it was more important to firmly establish the corporation and Public Defender Services generally. To this day, the injunction has not been challenged. The corporation has revisited the topic in meetings and with communication with the local Mason County Bar and Judge Nibert of Mason County, West Virginia through its Chief Public Defender and has decided not to challenge the injunction as of this date.

Organizational Goals and Objectives:

Our goal is to provide high quality legal assistance to indigent persons who would be otherwise unable to afford adequate legal counsel; to provide legal representation to those who face an economic barrier to adequate legal counsel that will serve the ends of justice in accordance with rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the constitution of the United States of America and the constitution of the state of West Virginia; to make available quality legal assistance that reaffirms the faith of our citizens in our government of laws.

The objective is to protect the ordinary citizen from wrongful conviction and to protect the basic and fundamental rights of all citizens by navigating those individuals charged with crimes through an evolving and complex legal system. A conviction based on sound law and tested facts with competent counsel is rarely overturned by the courts whereby society as a whole is protected by protecting individual rights.

Programs and Services:

Pursuant to W. Va. Code §29-21-8(a)(2) the purpose of a public defender corporation is to provide legal representation in the respective circuits in accordance with the provisions of that article. To that end, we provide appointed counsel in felony, misdemeanor, abuse & neglect, juvenile delinquency, juvenile status offenses, family court contempt when jail is contemplated, and mental hygiene proceedings.

Organizational Structure (board, staff, volunteers):

The Board of Directors is organized pursuant to W. Va. Code §29-21-15 consisting of a chairperson appointed by the Governor, and two members from each county in which the corporation operates for a total of seven members. (A lawyer and non-lawyer each from Jackson, Roane, and Calhoun counties with a chairperson from Roane County.) There are currently three office staff members, including our office manager. In addition, there are seven lawyers, including our chief public defender.

The board oversees the corporation pursuant to W. Va. Code §29-21-15. The chief public defender reports to the board of directors, each of the assistant public defenders and staff members report to the chief public defender.The chief public defender is ethically responsible for the conduct of the assistant public defenders and the staff pursuant to Rules 5.1 and 5.3 of the West Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct (2013) for lawyers.

Community Involvement:

Currently, the Chief Public Defender is an adjunct criminal law instructor at West Virginia University at Parkersburg, Jackson County campus on one night per week. The chief is also on the Community Corrections Board for Wood County and Jackson counties.

One of the assistant public defenders is a board member of DayMark, Inc., a non-profit youth service agency.

An administrative assistant is active in the 4H program in Roane County, WV and is also a member of the Spencer Volunteer Fire Department. Another administrative assistant is actively involved in coordinating beauty pageants and other activities of that nature to help young women receive college tuition assistance including grants and scholarships.

New & Noteworthy for 2015

Earlier this summer we had a felony trial in Roane County that resulted in an acquittal. However, there have been multiple cases where through plea bargaining or further investigation by police charges have been reduced or dismissed. We have worked diligently to protect each client’s rights as they navigate the criminal justice system, often steering them toward sobriety. We have had several clients participate in the Drug Court Program. These folks have made and continue to make remarkable strides from addiction to sobriety. We have had graduates who have moved beyond a life of addiction to a life of sobriety. They now hold full time jobs and maintain close family relationships that had been previously abandoned.

Public Defender Corporation for the Sixth & Twenty-fourth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the 6th and 24th Judicial Circuits was founded on June 1, 1994 and serves Cabell and Wayne Counties. One notable aspect of our case load is the large number of felonies versus misdemeanors. Cabell County has had over 500 indicted people annually in the last three calendar years and this is the primary reason for this surge. In FY2015, the Huntington office closed 3,581 cases and the Wayne office closed 1,017 cases, totaling 4,598 cases. There are eleven attorneys in Huntington and three in Wayne. The addition of an investigator has helped both offices although he primarily works in Huntington.

Our office has been active in helping establish and maintain Adult Drug Courts in both counties, Truancy Courts in both counties, Day Report Centers in both counties, a Veterans Treatment Court in Wayne County, a Juvenile Drug Court in Wayne County and a Pre-Trial Board in Cabell County. The Pre-Trial Review Board saved Cabell County an estimated $179,931 in jail costs in FY 2015 on misdemeanor cases.

Our office is an example of the high volume, low cost legal representation envisioned under the Public Defender Corporation program:

- Third lowest cost per case among Public Defender Corporations at $377.75
- Highest number of felonies among Public Defender Corporations (1,507)
- Third highest share of representing felonies (76.14%) in the state
- Second highest number of misdemeanors (2,512)
- Second highest share of representing misdemeanors (93.35%) in the state
- Second highest number of cases among Public Defender offices
- FY14 cost per hour $86.11.
- FY15 cost per hour $76.27
- FY15 cost per case $394.94

In addition to our office serving as an example of cost-effective operations, appointed counsel in our circuits also have some of the best statistics in the state:

- Cabell county had the lowest cost per case for court appointed counsel at $502.43
- Wayne county had the fourth lowest cost per case for court appointed counsel at $590.24
- The combined cost per case for appointed counsel in our circuit was the lowest in the state at $543.89
- Court appointed counsel represented 2,509 cases including 492 felony cases, 570 abuse and neglect cases, and 874 mental hygiene cases.

Public Defender Corporation for the Seventh Judicial Circuit

The Public Defenders Corporation for the Seventh Judicial Circuit has been serving Logan County since late November, 1989. This fiscal year we successfully acquired many dismissals, pre-trial diversions, probation, home confinement, drug court for both adults and juveniles, and many options outside of prison and jail. We have come to recognize that addiction has changed the practice of criminal law in West Virginia over the last two decades. We must work aggressively towards meeting the needs of our clients who often struggle to stay drug free while on bond before any significant hearing even occurs. Our very experienced criminal defense team has taken up the torch of aggressive pre-conviction and post-conviction sentencing alternatives which save lives and decrease risk to clients while still saving the county and state money.

We believe that we have had very few cases result in long term prison commitments primarily because we effectively and aggressively utilize the alternative sentencing, community based programs in our county, inpatient treatment facilities, and sober living homes both in an outside our county. We have built essential connections with drug addiction service providers to help our clients maintain their freedom and to have productive lives.

We pride ourselves on having one of the most experienced criminal defense teams in the state.

Dwayne Adkins has been the Chief Public Defender for nearly a decade now and has practiced law for twenty years. He has a broad background with experience as a criminal trial lawyer, and civil trial lawyer (both as a plaintiff's lawyer and a defense lawyer). He was also an assistant prosecuting attorney in the past. He is an active member of Southern Regional Day Report Board and Drug Court Teams for Logan County. Dwayne is a graduate of both Marshall and WVU.

Gerald Merceruio has over twenty-five years' experience as a criminal trial lawyer. His long-standing loyalty to the public defender system places him among a short list of public defenders who have essentially been on board since the early 1990's. Gerald received his undergraduate and law degree from WVU.

Don McDaniel is an experienced criminal trial lawyer and civil trial lawyer, having practiced in Texas as well as West Virginia. Don is an Ivy League Graduate with an undergraduate degree from Yale and law degree from Vanderbilt. He is known for his caring optimism and Christian charity.

Ashley Cochran, a former intern, recently joined our office. Her practice focuses on Juvenile and Abuse & Neglect cases. Ashley returns to our office with the valuable experience of having clerked for Judge O'Briant, as well as a stint under well-known Abuse and Neglect guru Jane Moran. She also practiced as a guardian ad litem in family court. Ashley is a graduate of Appalachian School of Law in Grundy Virginia.

Long standing support staff member Carol Booth is the administrative right hand of our office. She is focuses on the financial aspects of the office, as well as working to get clients into drug rehabilitation programs. She worked for multiple lawyers prior to coming to work for our office but has far exceeded the traditional secretarial role long ago.

Pamela Esposito came to us as an experienced secretary having worked in a plaintiff's law firm. She has continued to work hard to increase her commitment and skills since coming to work for us. She is known among clients and the community as having a sunny disposition and always being willing to help.

Brandi Clark is also a recent addition to our office. She joins us as an administrative assistant, having worked for other lawyer include Robert "Bob" Noone. She is enthusiastic to help others, and eager to learn new skills specific to our office and operations.

In addition to our legal representation, we also work hand-in-hand with other criminal defense lawyers. We recently began a local continuing legal education program in combination with the Logan County Bar Association. We recently cosponsored a training session taught by duo Robert "Bob" & Beth Noone on the specialized needs of children in court cases. We have another training scheduled for this fall with Dr. Timothy Saar of Saar Psychological Group.

We also assist local attorneys by covering emergency hearings when certain circumstances prevent a panel attorney from appearing for his or client. This typically occurs for detention hearings and for other hearings in which there is little notice and the panel attorney is unavailable due to an appearance at a hearing in another circuit. When possible, we also serve as a local resource to other criminal defense lawyers by giving them access to our pre-trial motions and pre-existing legal research.

We also try to provide assistance as a local resource for criminal trial lawyers by giving them access to our pre-trial motions and pre-existing legal research.

Public Defender Corporation for the Eighth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Eighth Judicial Circuit was established in 1990. The rise of unemployment, in once thriving McDowell County was the result of the failing coal industry. The loss of income for the citizens of McDowell County created an overwhelming need of legal representation for those who became indigent. Along with the migration of qualified attorneys away from McDowell County and an increasing case load for court appointed attorneys, a majority of the active members of the bar and the chief judge agreed to activate the Public Defender Corporation for the 8th Judicial Circuit.

Our county experienced further loss with the devastating floods of 2001 and 2002. As a result of the floods more jobs exited creating a greater indigent population. During the second flood of 2002 the PDC was flooded with water up to 3 feet. Nevertheless the employees continued to serve the public without fail, while shoveling mud and fighting mold for a month before the office could be relocated.

Our office handles the following types of cases: felony, misdemeanor, abuse and neglect, juvenile delinquency, truancy, appeals of felonies and misdemeanors, mental hygiene hearings, guardian ad litem, and extraditions. Our staff is comprised of three attorneys, including a chief, an Office Manager, and our Secretary.

Public Defender Corporation for the Ninth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Ninth Judicial Circuit is located in Princeton. We began operations on June 1, 1991 with three attorneys and two support staff. Currently, seven attorneys and five support staff handle court proceedings in front of three circuit court judges, five magistrates, and in municipal courts. We also regularly participate in Supreme Court proceedings.

Our office and the Mercer County court system have strived to adapt to the needs of indigent defendants as they have arisen. Due to the increased drug challenges in our society, our corporation became involved in serving on Adult Drug Court and Juvenile Drug Court.

Adult Drug Court increases the likelihood of successful rehabilitation through early, continuous, and intense treatment. Our clients in Adult Drug Court must comply with mandatory periodic drug testing, community supervision, appropriate sanctions and incentives, and other rehabilitation services, all of which a judicial officer supervises. By participating in Adult Drug Court clients reduce the chances of recidivism because they are less likely to begin using drugs again.

We work with our juvenile offenders in Juvenile Drug Court to redirect juvenile offenders with alcohol or substance abuse behavior from the traditional juvenile court process, to an intensive, individualized treatment process. The mutual goal of our office and Juvenile Drug Court is to reduce future court involvement for these youth.

Mercer County has historically had one of the highest numbers of open child abuse and neglect caseloads in the state. During these proceedings, we help to ensure that parents' constitutional rights to parent their children remain protected. We also interact with the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources (DHHR) to assure parents obtain services through the DHHR providers to learn proper parenting techniques.

We also participate on the Southern Regional Community Criminal Justice Board with representatives from the Court system and the community. The purpose of the board is to oversee the day-to-day operations of the Day Report Center. Previously, our corporation was involved with court personnel and community leaders in obtaining a Justice Reinvestment Grant, which has now led to the opening of the Four Seasons Recovery Center. They hope to have at least sixty residents. Their goal is to rehabilitate drug offenders and reintroduce them into society as productive citizens.

Staff attorneys, Adam B. Wolfe and Joshua J. Lawson are currently teaching an advanced mock trial class at Concord University. Adam also teaches a legal writing class.

Staff attorney, Gerald R. Linkous, won a West Virginia Supreme Court appeal, Robinson v. City of Bluefield, 234 W.Va 209 764 S. E. 2d 740 (W.Va 2014), which ruled a municipal court lacks the authority to order a dog to be put down. The Wall Street Journal published an article regarding this case.

Our attorneys and support staff are involved in arranging for substance abuse rehabilitation services for clients who do not qualify for Drug Court services. We make referrals, prepare orders to transport, and evaluate clients to assist them in overcoming addictions.

In the past year, our attorneys have been successful in obtaining dismissals in several felony cases, and have had charges reduced through the impressive use of pre-trial motions and compelling arguments at the preliminary hearing stage. Our attorneys have also been successful in reunifying families in various abuse and neglect cases.

Our involvement in Truancy Court has enabled us to reveal the unmet needs of children in our county. While working with the Truancy Court system, we have assisted children in receiving necessary educational, psychological, and medical services.

Public Defender Corporation for the Tenth Judicial Circuit

Our office has been located at 228 N. Fayette Street in Beckley, WV for more than eighteen years. It currently employs a chief public defender, seven staff attorneys, and a full time support staff of five individuals plus a bookkeeper/office manager. Our office opened in 1989, making it one of the oldest Public Defender Corporations in the State.

Jane Calvert currently acts as Chairperson for our Board of Directors. In addition to Ms. Calvert, Board members include John Wooton, Leigh Lefler, Harriet Jones, and Pam Bates. Each Board member has served in their capacity for a minimum of four years.

The lawyers currently employed have been working at the office an average of about 8 years and have on average more than 20 years of legal experience each. During FY15 our office closed a total of 2,490 cases which included 588 felonies and 1261 misdemeanors. This amounted to an average cost per case of approximately $408.77. This is one of the lowest cost per case ratio in the state. In FY14, our office also represented approximately 54% of all cases in the circuit for which counsel is appointed, this was ninth highest rate in the state for that period of time. Much of the lower cost per case can be attributed to the experienced legal and support staff, the high ratio of cases per attorney (310.5 cases per counsel), as well as a continuing effort to reduce cost incidental to operating the office.

Cases are assigned evenly on a rotation basis so that each attorney handles matters in magistrate court, circuit court, and before other miscellaneous tribunals (parole hearings, mental hygiene, etc...).

Lawyer schedules are kept electronically on Time Matters as well as on desk calendars. All lawyers have access to Time Matters to keep their time and to check their calendar. Attorneys can access their files through the E-File Program as well as through the hard copy maintained in their office. Closed files can also be accessed through the E-File program. Cases over the last thirteen years have been scanned, reducing the need for storage of those documents. Backups of all records are maintained on and off premises insuring their survival.

Our basic principle is to provide the best possible legal defense to each client. The legal staff meets frequently to review and discuss cases giving a committee approach to most cases. Standard pretrial motions are filed in all cases and attorneys individually review their cases to see what particular motions should be filed to properly advocate for their clients. Our office is capable of running paperless since all documents received or produced are scanned digitally. Our office maintains a form bank for motions and research on most legal issues and is supplemented with the current use of West Law.

Over the past year, we meet weekly with the prosecuting attorney and local day report representative to review defendants who are incarcerated in jail to see if their release might be obtained through recognizance or other means of conditional bond. On average, three individuals per week are released after these meetings, saving counties approximately $1,000 per week.

As with other offices, the recent initiation of Truancy Court has strained staff. Looking ahead, Juvenile Drug Court begins in August 2015, with Adult Drug Court commencing shortly thereafter. These programs will place additional burdens on our office and on an already financially strained system. However, we will continue to persevere and uphold our statutory obligation to the state and professional obligation to our clients.

Our office would seek to share any resources and information with other public defenders and lawyers representing criminal defendants to improve representation of those charged with crimes and those represented on matters where there is a legal mandate requiring representation by appointed counsel.

Public Defender Corporation for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation, 11th Judicial Circuit is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation formed pursuant to West Virginia Code Chapter 29, Article 21 to the State's obligation to provide cost-effective legal representation to indigents facing eligible criminal and quasi-criminal charges within the 11th Judicial Circuit. The Corporation is guided by a board of directors chaired by David Smith, the Mayor of Ronceverte, WV, with the Chief Defender, Joshua Edwards, serving as the day-to-day administrator.

The Public Defender Corporation for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit operates in two locations: (1) the Greenbrier County office in Lewisburg and (2) the satellite office located in Marlinton, Pocahontas County. Our office was formed in 1999 under the direction of its first Chief Defender, Richard Lorensen.

Our primary purpose is to provide cost-effective, competent legal representation to indigents defendants. However, we also serve an important role the community as leaders in alternative programs such as community corrections, drug court programs, truancy diversion and pretrial supervision. Our attorneys have been an important part of these efforts. Chief Defender Joshua Edwards and Deputy Chief Defender Dewitt Daniell both serve on the advisory committee for Greenbrier County's Day Report Program, which received the Honorable Martin J. Gaughan Award for Excellence in Community Corrections. In addition to their formal role on the advisory committee, both serve as informal advisors on policy matters and legal questions as they arise. Both are also members of the advisory committee in Pocahontas County serving in a similar capacity. We provide attorneys for the weekly drug court treatment teams in both counties. Mr. Edwards serves on the Planning Committee for the Juvenile Drug Court and previously served on the Juvenile Drug Court weekly treatment team. He is also part of the planning team to bring a Juvenile Day Report Center to Greenbrier County. Both counties also have Truancy Diversion Programs and our attorneys are responsible for representing the vast majority of the juveniles in those programs.

Outside of the court system, our attorneys have volunteered to assist with the Supreme Court of Appeals LAWS (Legal Advancement for West Virginia Students) Program, lectured middle school students on the consequences of bullying, attended career day programs to discuss a legal career with students, and given additional presentations in schools on the criminal justice system.

The Corporation is entirely funded by the State of West Virginia through a grant from Public Defender Services. The Corporation owns both of their locations and therefore has necessary maintenance and repair expenses as well as snow removal, cleaning and the other assorted expense associated with two physical facilities.

Historically, our office has been a cost-effective provider of legal services. Our cost-per-case in FY 2014 was $425.86 compared to private appointed counsel in the Judicial Circuit at $1,342.75.

Public Defender Corporation for the Twelfth Judicial Circuit

This year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of our office. While we are very proud of the work and legacy we have built, our hearts are heavy, as our office has suffered a great loss. On June 16, 2015, our friend, mentor, protector, leader, and Chairman, Frederick Alexander Jesser, III, unexpectedly passed. We want to use this space to honor him and his legacy.

When West Virginia Code §21-29-8 was passed, Frederick Alexander Jesser, III (known by our office as Fred), was named as one of the Fayette County Bar Association's representatives on the founding board of directors. He served as a very active member, and was instrumental in making the initial hires, securing office space, and creating an atmosphere where the indigent defendants in our county could receive high quality representation. As years passed, Fred's role with our office expended and at the time of his death, he had been the Chairman of our board of directors for a number of years. Fred filled the role of acting Chair for many years prior to being formally appointed to that post, first by then Governor Manchin and then again by Governor Tomblin.

At the time of Fred's death on June 16, 2015, he had planned to attend the annual Public Defender Services Conference the next week. It was his practice to attend each annual conference to allow him the opportunity to spend time with the professional staff of our office, and to attend the trainings so that he could better understand the challenges we face on a daily basis. Fred also liked to share at least one meal each conference with an attorney from another Public Defender Office. At the last board meeting held before his passing, Fred offered direction to our office on filling a vacancy created by Assistant Public Defender Elizabeth Campbell leaving our office to take a job with our local Prosecutor. He expressed pride in this office as to how our hard work was documented in the annual report and reassured us that the budget conference held with Public Defender Services would be successful and no cause for stress. Fred was always available to our office to sign checks, offer advice, run interference with Judges and Magistrates and, for a period of time when between Chief Defenders, even ruled on Financial Affidavits.

Although we grieve for our friend, as a part of being a successful leader he supported the skills necessary for us to continue without him. This office will survive, none of us are irreplaceable, and there is always work to accomplish.

Therefore, our staff, Terri Lawhorn, E. Scott Stanton, Esq., Nancy S. Fraley, Esq., James Adkins, Esq., and Stacey Barnhouse, together with our surviving board members; Howard Scott and James Keenan, Esq., take and cherish this opportunity to individually and collectively express our sincere thanks to Frederick Alexander Jesser, III, Esq., for all that he gave to our office. We will miss you our friend.

Fred was born on February 20, 1945, in Washington, D.C. and was the son of the late Frederick A. Jesser, Jr. and Elizabeth Sutherland Jesser. He was a 1962 graduate of Charleston High School and attended Morris Harvey College, Concord College, Marshall University, Virginia Commonwealth University, and Richmond Professional Institute. He earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia in 1967. He graduated from the West Virginia University College of Law in 1972, where he was a member of the West Virginia Law Review. Upon graduation from Law School and being admitted to the Bar, Fred came to Fayette County where he became associated with the firm of Love, Abbot and Hill, later to become Jesser and Harrington and eventually Jesser and Associates, where he remained throughout the balance of his successful professional life. Fred developed a thriving real estate and banking practice and became a fixture (with his faithful assistant Barbara Jennings) in the Fayette County record room where he established a personal desk.

He was a former member of the Goochland, Virginia Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Fayetteville Rotary Club. He was an active member and former President of the Oak Hill Rotary club. During his professional career, he served as President of the Fayette County Bar Association and was a member of the Board of Governors of the West Virginia State Bar. He was a member of the Board of Directors of Fayette County National Bank, where he served as General Counsel and was Chairman of the Board of FCNB BANCORP, INC. He was a member of the White Oak Country Club in Oak Hill, West Virginia and Edgewood Country Club in Charleston.

Fred will be missed by our office, all the employees at the Fayette County Courthouse, the employees of Fayette County National Bank, his office staff Barbara Jennings and Lisa Mattox, and his host of friends. His passing is also grieved by his sister, Betsy White of Charleston, West Virginia; his sons, Frederick Alexander Jesser, IV and wife Angela, of Williamstown, West Virginia and Banks Sutherland Jesser, and wife Courtney, of Sinks Grove, West Virginia and his grandchildren, Gavin Dunbar McCraw, Lila Roxalana, Monroe Beatrice and Frederick Alexander Jesser, V (who Fred lovingly called Quincy).

Public Defender Corporation for the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit (Kanawha County Public Defender Office) prides itself in providing client-centered representation to indigent individuals. Opened as a full-scale office in 1989 with the mission to provide legal services to individuals facing criminal charges in Kanawha County, the Office has thrived and affected positive change in our court system by employing a staff that vigorously represents our clients and strives to protect their rights.

The Office currently employs twenty-two full-time lawyers, one part-time senior counsel, and fifteen support staff to represent individuals in felony, misdemeanor, municipal court, juvenile, appellate, parole revocation, extradition, mental hygiene, and specialty court cases. Our lawyers appear before seven circuit court judges, ten magistrates, municipal court judges, mental hygiene commissioners, and the Justices of the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia. Our office also represents individuals in drug court (both adult and juvenile courts) and the Court's domestic violence pilot program.

Our dedicated legal staff has had many victories over the years, successfully lodging challenges to the court system, securing acquittals at trial and dismissals in a wide range of cases, helping clients overcome addiction problems and start on a productive path, and securing favorable sentences. Our support staff, comprised of equally dedicated individuals, helps provide effective representation to our clients. Together, we were able to close 7,238 cases this fiscal year.

A member of the office since 1996, Chief Defender Diana Panucci serves on the Kanawha County Community Corrections Advisory Board, is a board member for the Mid-Atlantic Juvenile Defender Center, participates in Domestic Pilot Program stakeholder meetings, is a member of the West Virginia State Bar Criminal Law Committee, participated in several legislative task force meetings, and lectures on a variety of criminal law topics. Ms. Panucci has also volunteered for the the West Virginia State Bar's Lawyer Referral Service, judged a WVU College of Law Lugar Mock Trial Association competition, participated in the Read Aloud Program and various local school-related activities, and served as a board member and secretary for the Friends of the Clay Center. Ms. Panucci graduated from WVU College of Law in 1996 as a Public Interest Fellow, member of the National Lugar Mock Trial Team, and an Order of Barristers graduate.

Several of our lawyers also enhance the practice of law with their legal and community services. Their legal activities include serving on the West Virginia State Bar Criminal Law Committee, the Indigent Defense Commission, the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals Community Supervision Committee, the Justice Reinvestment in West Virginia Work Group, the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals Prison Overcrowding Compliance Commission, the Charleston Community Coalition, the planning and advisory committees of Kanawha County Drug Court, teaching at the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals new magistrate training, giving legal presentations on several law topics, publishing articles on a variety of legal topics, participating in legislative task forces, co-teaching organizational skills for public defenders at a Gideon's Promise training, serving as a board member for West Virginia's ACLU, and serving as a fellow board member for the Mid-Atlantic Juvenile Defender Center.

Community activities include serving as a judge for We The People, serving as a board member for the Charleston Ballet Company, serving as a board member and chorister with the West Virginia Symphony Orchestra, coaching little league baseball, serving as organist for the WVU College of Law Hooding Ceremony, spearheading a campaign for food donations for the local animal shelter, and volunteering at a soup kitchen.

The Office's legal staff boasts impressive law school careers as well, with current lawyers having graduated from law schools at West Virginia University, Georgetown, Northwestern, Tulane, University of Kentucky, Syracuse, Brooklyn School of Law, and Appalachian School of Law, with several lawyers having participated in moot court, law review, mock trial teams, clinic programs, and having been recipients of public interest fellowships and awards.

Public Defender Corporation for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit

Our office opened in 1994 with the goal of providing indigent defendants with access to counsel specializing in criminal matters. In our first year of operation, three attorneys took on approximately 99 cases.

More than twenty years later, our office is recognized as the standard for criminal defense in Harrison County. Defendants and respondents are protected by a corps of experienced, dedicated attorneys who handle approximately 1,500 cases a year, ranging from simple misdemeanor offenses to high profile felony cases. In addition to the misdemeanor and felony matters, our eight full-time attorneys handle Abuse and Neglect, Family Court Contempt, Mental Hygiene, Extradition, Probation and Parole Revocation, and Juvenile Status and Delinquency proceedings. Several attorneys are also certified to accept Guardian Ad Litem appointments to represent children in Abuse and Neglect cases.

A majority of the offenses committed within the county are substance abuse related. For this reason, our office has forged relationships with area substance abuse professionals and facilities in an effort to reduce recidivism and secure better outcomes for clients. A number of these clients are also returning combat veterans. With that in mind, we partnered with the local VA Hospital in an effort to provide additional treatment and alternative sentencing options for those clients. In addition, we also work closely with Highland Hospital's newly opened location, which provides much-needed substance abuse, psychiatric, and forensic services to our clients in a local setting.

In addition to our goal to provide expert legal representation, we also feel it is important to provide to the community as well, whether it be by procuring needed services for clients or by participating in programs within the community. We participated in the development of both the Juvenile and Adult Drug Courts in our circuit. We now serve on the Board and Treatment Team of both Courts, and the majority of Adult Drug Court participants are referrals from our office.

Our Chief Defender, Perry Jones, is an active member of the Circuit's Court Advisory Board and the Community Corrections Board. Several staff members are also involved in various organizations and groups, including an Assistant Defender who served on the State's Intergovernmental Task Force on Juvenile Justice, and another Assistant Defender who serves on the Indigent Defense Commission.

The Corporation's size and proximity to the WVU College of Law allow us the unique opportunity to partner with the Law School to host Summer Interns and Fall Externs. This opportunity provides valuable hands-on experience to those aspiring to become criminal defense attorneys. In fact, during the past year the Corporation has hired three former Summer Interns to fill vacant positions within the Corporation.

We hope that our office can make a positive impact in the lives of our clients, as well as in the community it serves.

Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit of Preston County opened in the year 2000, and is located at 202 Tunnelton Street, Suite 303 in Kingwood, West Virginia.

Our office consists of a Chief Public Defender, two associate staff attorneys, and two support personnel. We provide representation in felonies, misdemeanors, juvenile matters, abuse and neglect, and mental hygiene proceedings. All three attorneys share equally in every category of cases assigned to our office by our circuit judge, Judge Lawrance S. Miller, Jr. Our staff is our greatest asset in serving to meet the needs of our indigent population through our representation in their cases and consequently our brief involvement in their lives and that of their families.

Our office has had changes in personnel this year. Our Chief Defender Randy Goodrich, who established this office after having started the Public Defender Corporation in Harrison County, retired effective this January. Also, our Office Manager, Susan Bolyard, who was instrumental in setting up the original office, also retired at the end of this year. We will miss them, and we wish them well.

Our current office staff is:

- Sally C. Collins, Chief Public Defender as of January 2015. She has served as a staff attorney in our office since 2005. Prior to this, she was an Assistant Prosecutor, operated a private law practice, and was a secondary school mathematics teacher.
- Claire L. Niehaus, Assistant Public Defender since 2002. Her prior experience includes clerking for the Logan County Circuit Court and serving as a staff attorney for the Logan County Public Defender Office.
- Lisa R. Hyre, Assistant Public Defender as of January 2015. She served as an attorney for Morgantown Legal Aide and operated a private legal practice here in Preston County. She is also a licensed social worker.
- C. Russella Hare, Secretary since 2004. She has a wealth of experience working in the legal field. Her prior experience includes serving as a secretary in a private law practice and in the Prosecuting Attorney's Office. She has worked as a Magistrate Court Assistant and Deputy Circuit Clerk.
- Judy L. Starcher, Office Manager since June 2015. Judy has had previous experience in the County Clerk's Office as well as several years as Office Manager for private industries. Judy is also an Honorably Discharged Veteran having served in the U.S.Navy.

Our attorneys and staff are members of various organizations and participate in community events in Preston and Monongalia Counties. Our attorneys have served on the Board of Directors for the Community Corrections since its beginning. Lisa Hyre currently serves on its

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-third Judicial Circuit

The Mission of the Eastern Panhandle Public Defender Office (EPPDO) is to provide competent, thoroughly professional legal representation to the indigent criminally accused in all Courts in the Twenty-third (23rd) Judicial Circuit of West Virginia in an efficient, cost-effective manner when appointed to do so by competent judicial authority.

Our clientele primarily consists of defendants in criminal matters at the felony and misdemeanor levels in Circuit and Magistrate Court, but the obligation to provide professional, competent legal representation extends to and includes appointments to represent offending respondents in parental rights termination matters ("abuse and neglect" cases), Family Law Court contempt proceedings, juvenile offender matters and mental hygiene involuntary commitment proceedings, as well as appellate matters at various levels when assigned to do so by a Court, to include prosecuting appeals in the WV Supreme Court of Appeals.

The EPPDO office responsibilities include all the courts in all three county jurisdictions in the Eastern Panhandle (Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan), as well as seven individual municipal courts in various towns throughout the Panhandle, particularly Martinsburg's Municipal Court. Our two separate offices are located in Martinsburg, which covers all matters in Berkeley and Morgan counties, and a satellite office in Charles Town, which handles all matters in Jefferson County. In calendar year 2013, the office handled over 4330 individual, discrete cases and we are currently on pace to exceed that total by several hundred additional cases in 2014, due to a combination of population growth, as well as the easing of financial eligibility guidelines that dictate and control the availability of court-appointed counsel.

Established nearly thirty years ago and operating continuously since, we are the second largest Public Defender Corporation in West Virginia, with a staff of 33 individuals: 20 licensed attorneys and 13 clerical support staff members and investigators. The team at the EPPDO is a committed, dedicated crew, truly devoted to ensuring that our clients of all types are treated justly: we fiercely protect the rights of poor, often powerless and uneducated people accused of being criminals, or are somehow enmeshed in other legal difficulties touching upon fundamental rights, thus ensuring that the criminal justice system is administered fairly, remains open, accessible and even-handed -- and is perceived as such by the general public and citizenry that we serve. We ensure that the everyday-person accused of wrongdoing by a powerful government and police apparatus is not overwhelmed and unduly intimidated and that his or her voice and "side of the story" is told by a tenacious, professional advocate committed to his or her cause. As Chief Public Defender, and a veteran of nearly twenty years in the trenches at the EPPDO, I am supremely confident that we are well-regarded and respected by all the judges and opposing counsel in our bailiwick. We are the proverbial "overworked and underpaid" public servants: despite staggering caseloads —well above and greatly surpassing ABA guideline levels - and extremely low compensation relative to our peers in the local prosecutors' offices, we enjoy very low turnover among the staff and have accrued a level of experience and expertise unrivaled in the State: a devoted team of career Public Defenders serving the State and her people and Courts.

Tom Delaney,
Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-fifth Judicial Circuit

Our office opened in June 2000 to serve the needs of indigent defendants in Boone and Lincoln counties. Our six attorneys and four support staff operate out of two offices, one at 320 Main Street in Madison and the other at 406 Walnut Street in Hamlin.

Our Madison office is home to four attorneys and three support staff. Robert “Bob” White, our Chief Public Defender, has over thirty-three years of experience in the practice of criminal law, including over eight years as a prosecutor. He has jury acquittals in murder and sexual assault cases, and the only jury acquittal in a delivery of a controlled substance case in the history of Boone County. Our other three attorneys are Howard Nolen, who has been with our office over ten years, Dave Ford, who has been with the office over two years, and Tim Gibson, who has been with the office for over a year. Sonya Dolan, our firm administrator, has been with our office for over thirteen years. Our secretaries, Jeanna Baldwin and Katherine Lane, round out the rest of the Madison team. Jeanne joined our office in 2012, and Katherine has been with us since 2010.

The Hamlin office houses two attorneys, David Lockwood and H.C. Woods, and one support staff, Delena Toler. David has been with the office over thirteen years, and H. C. has been with the office over fifteen years. Delena joined our team in 2013.

Our office had successful jury trials during this past year. Bob White and Tim Gibson obtained an acquittal in a burglary trial, and David Ford successfully defended a grand larceny trial when the State dismissed a felony during jury selection. Bob also got an acquittal of a first-degree sexual assault case when the State agreed to dismiss with prejudice during jury selection.

Our service also includes activities outside the office. Bob serves as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of a 501(c)(3) Corporation that operates a community center in his neighborhood. David Lockwood serves alongside Bob on the Drug Court Treatment Teams in Boone and Lincoln Counties.

Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-eighth Judicial Circuit

The 28th Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation in Summersville was first established in 1983, making it the first public defender corporation in the state.

D. Mark Snyder was the sole practitioner and public defender until Cynthia Stanton was hired in October 1987. For the first seven years, Ms. Stanton was the sole public defender. In 1994, a decision was made to hire an assistant public defender and in the last twenty years, six attorneys have held the positions. Ms. Sarah Campbell was hired and began working in October 2013. Our office is home to two attorneys and two administrative assistants. Robin Wellman worked for the corporation for twenty-two years and retired in August 2015 to become a full time nanny to her grandson. Ms. Cattwright began working on August 3, 2015. Kathy O'Dell has worked for eighteen years. Ms. Stanton is the oldest serving public defender in the state.

The 28th Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation has maintained an annual caseload of approximately 500-600 cases per year since Ms. Stanton has taken over. This office has been responsible for indigent representation in all areas of criminal defense eligible proceedings. Our two attorneys handle 73% of all criminal applicants that are appointed in the county. We handle all Mental Hygiene hearings during work hours and at night unless we have a conflict. We handle all court appointments unless there is a codefendant or similar conflict. Ms. Stanton handles family court. Drug Court has not been established yet but is mandated to be set up.

We have always had each attorney prepared and ready to conduct any kind of criminal proceeding. Since there is still a satellite magistrate office in Richwood (26 miles away) we are also required to attend court there an average of one day a week or three times a month or more. Every attorney that has left the office is typically prepared to handle all types of criminal proceedings. The ability to accomplish this is based upon necessity as our one Judge Circuit expects our office to be available for all proceedings during the weekdays, weeknights, and weekends. In fact, several of our attorneys have served as assistant prosecutors, and of the five former assistant public defenders, two currently serve as the Chief Prosecuting Attorney in their circuit, ours included. We purchased our building in 1996 for $50,000 and paid it off in 2003.

Because we have not had to pay for rent, we have been able to use that money to better represent indigent clients.

At this point, we believe that we have a sound system in place to address indigent clients in our circuit. Ms. Stanton is also the President of the Community Corrections Board that oversees the Day Report Center. She traveled to Charleston in June to obtain grant monies for the continuance of the successful program, which established itself as a separate entity last year.

Cindy Stanton,
Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit

LEADERSHIP UNDER FIRE

The Public Defender Corporation for the 30th Judicial Circuit is the largest, busiest, and most experienced law firm in Mingo County. We are proud to be leaders in our legal community.

During the past two years, 2013-15, that leadership was put to the test. In an almost unimaginable scandal, our former Circuit Judge, County Prosecutor, Chief Magistrate and Williamson's mayor would all be convicted of federal crimes for abusing their offices. Months before the federal investigation was made public, our office stood alone, filing motion after motion challenging the officials' corrupt practices. Challenging the only judge in a one-judge circuit was not popular, but it was right.

Following the officials' convictions, others looked to our office to help stabilize and rebuild. In fact, two of our attorneys were recommended by the Governor's Judicial Vacancy Advisory Commission to replace the deposed Judge. Although these have been tough years, fraught with the difficulties inherent in practicing first in front of a rotating cast of retired judges and then a new judge two of us had run against, we are happy to see much improvement in Mingo County, and very proud of the role we played.

Our office opened for business on January 15, 1990. Since that time, we have grown from a one attorney, one secretary office to a four-attorney office with a clerical staff of three. Our office handles approximately 500 cases a year, including felony, misdemeanor, juvenile and mental hygiene matters. Over the years, our attorney staff has supervised 30+ law student interns from 10 different law schools, many of whom have chosen to practice law in West Virginia.

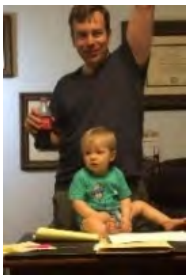

Our chief defender, Teresa McCune, attended Marshall University and Antioch School of Law. She handles most of our juvenile matters and murder cases. Teresa is active in state and local bar and community service. She chairs the State Bar Commission on Children and the Law, serves on the WV Supreme Court of Appeals Region Three Fatality Review Task force and the MCLE Commission. Teresa is a member of the WV State Bar CLE and Criminal Law Committees. She has been named a WV Bar Foundation Fellow, and has received the Governor's Service Award. Teresa founded and directs "On Track for College", an award-winning college bound coaching program that helps students preparing for higher education. She is also a member of Williamson Woman's Club and the Mingo/Pike branch of AAUW. Locally, Teresa is also the Chair of Christian Help of Mingo County, a charitable organization that provides direct aid to the needy. At the 2015 King Coal Festival Teresa was awarded the Humanitarian Award for her community service.

Dave Foley, a former WV Public Defender of the Year, is a graduate of the WVU College of Law, and attended James Madison University where he was on the varsity debate team. Dave handles misdemeanors and felonies, and is our "go to guy" for extradition cases. Dave is an Executive Board Member for the Coalfield Association of Southern Baptists, sings in his church choir, teaches Sunday school and bowls competitively. He is happily married to Debbie.

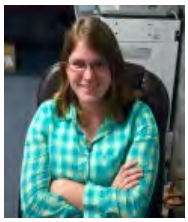

Paul Montgomery, a U.S. Navy veteran, attended the University of Oklahoma and Appalachian School of Law. He handles misdemeanor and felony cases, is our point man for mental hygiene cases, and also handles some delinquency matters. Paul is married to Megan, and is the father of two toddlers, Syrus Jonah and Royce Asher (aka Bobby Cars). Paul is a member of Delta Theta Phi Law fraternity. His hobby is stargazing.

Will Duty, our law clerk, is a graduate of Williamson High School, the University of Kentucky, and Appalachian School of Law. Will is the oldest of five children and is actively involved in his siblings' lives and the lives of their children. He is a licensed pilot and stays in shape by running.

Tiera Asbury, our office manager, is a graduate of Mingo County Vocational School. Tiera volunteers at Beech Creek Park. She is married to Chad and is the mother of 8-year-old Callie.

Jessica Randolph, secretary, is a graduate of Williamson High School and has an associate degree from Olympic College. She a member of Tug Valley Road Runners Club and is the mother of 5 year old Eli.

Briana Stokes, paralegal/secretary, is a graduate of St. Albans High School and University of Pikeville. She also has a Paralegal Certification from Eastern Kentucky University.

Jane Moran, the Chair of our Board of Directors is an iconic figure amongst lawyers delivering services involving children's rights and serving on committee positions and chairmanships. Jane has received numerous awards for her work and is often called upon as a trainer in juvenile and child abuse law.
