Introduction

Pursuant to the requirements of West Virginia Code §5-1-20, Public Defender Services, an agency of the Executive Branch, submits this report for fiscal year 1996-1997 to his Excellency, Governor Cecil Underwood and to the West Virginia Legislature. This report describes the agency's activities during fiscal year 1996-1997.

Public Defender Services, originally Public Legal Services Council, was established July 1, 1981, by WV Code §29-21-1, et seq., and given the responsibility for administering the provision of legal representation to indigent persons as required by the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution and by Article III, Section 14 of the West Virginia Constitution. The Executive Director, appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the West Virginia Senate, is responsible for the administration of the appointed counsel system; the Public Defender Corporation system; the Public Defender Services appellate division; and the Criminal Law Research Center within Public Defender Services.

Appointed Counsel System

The appointed counsel system operates in all 55 counties of West Virginia. Approximately 800 appointed counsel and service providers are reimbursed annually by Public Defender Services for fees and expenses incurred in the representation of indigents in criminal matters.

In December, 1987, Millard Jewell, a Mingo County attorney whose case load was composed of 30 percent appointed cases, filed suit in the West Virginia Supreme Court. The Court appointed a Special Master and evidentiary hearings were held at three locations in the state. In July, 1989, the Court found certain aspects of the indigent defense system unconstitutional. The Court required the Legislature to increase appointed counsel rates from $20/$25 per hour to $45/$65 per hour, and to raise the fee cap to $3,000. During the 1990 Regular Session of the Legislature, these mandates were enacted into WV Code §29-21-13a and became effective July 1, 1990. This action more than doubled the costs of the appointed counsel system.

Using appropriated, re-appropriated, and supplemental funds for fiscal year 1996-1997, Public Defender Services processed over $10,052,871 in payments for 18,414 claims by appointed counsel and other providers. Because all funds were exhausted, these figures represent only 8 months of invoice processing. Unpaid claims were estimated to total $4.5 to $5 million dollars. The average hourly appointed counsel cost was $53.10 and the average appointed counsel cost per claim was $545.93. Full appointed counsel statistical information on these figures and others are found in Appendix A.

The Public Defender Corporation System

The Public Defender Corporation system is an efficient, cost-effective alternative to the appointed counsel system. Defenders are specialists in criminal law who do not need to research issues as often as private counsel who only occasionally do criminal work. Each office operates as a non-profit legal corporation with its own board of directors. Each Corporation receives all its funding from Public Defender Services.

Prior to fiscal year 1990-1991, Public Defender Corporation offices operated in the 2nd, 10th, 23rd/31st (combined), and 28th Judicial Circuits. During fiscal year 1989-1990, the 1st, 8th, 12th, 13th, and 30th Circuits opened Public Defender offices. In fiscal year 1990-1991, the 7th and 9th Circuit offices opened. In fiscal year 1993-1994, the 15th Circuit office opened. In fiscal year 1994-1995, the 6th and 24th Circuit offices opened. And, in fiscal year 1995-1996, the 5th Circuit offices opened. The 1st Circuit offices are located in Wheeling and Weirton; the 2nd Circuit, in Moundsville; the 5th Circuit, in Ripley and Spencer; the 6th Circuit, in Huntington; the 7th Circuit, in Logan; the 8th Circuit, in Welch; the 9th Circuit, in Princeton; the 10th Circuit, in Beckley; the 12th Circuit, in Fayetteville; the 13th Circuit, in Charleston; the 15th Circuit, in Clarksburg; the 23rd Circuit, in Martinsburg and Charles Town; the 24th Circuit, in Wayne; the 28th Circuit, in Summersville; and the 30th Circuit, in Williamson. When fully staffed, the system employs 102 attorneys and 57 staff employees. Figure PD-1 shows the circuits and counties that currently hold Public Defender Corporations

During fiscal year 1996-1997, the Corporations provided representation in 38,299 judicial proceedings; pursuant to their contracts, Public Defender Corporations received $7,581,417 in grants from Public Defender Services. The average hourly cost was $44.33 and the average cost per case was $197.95. Full Public Defender statistical, grant, and board composition information can be found in Appendix B.

The Criminal Law Research Center

The Criminal Law Research Center of Public Defender Services is statutorily charged with the responsibility, inter alia, of publishing legal materials useful to West Virginia's criminal law practitioners. The Center's first publication was the Criminal Law Digest (formerly the Criminal Law Index). Six hundred eighty copies of Volume I of the Digest, 550 copies of Volume II, 500 copies of Volume III, 380 copies of Volume IV, 300 copies of Volume V, 300 copies of volume VI, and 140 copies of the supplement to Volume VI have been sold to West Virginia's relatively small defense bar. The Digest has been purchased by private practitioners, prosecuting attorneys, Circuit Judges, Magistrates, the Supreme Court, law enforcement agencies, the Department of Corrections, inmates of the state's correctional institutions, as well as many state/national universities and law schools. Over 525 copies of a set of forms incorporating basic motions have been sold.

In FY 1981-1982, the Research Center received a grant from the Governor's Committee on Crime, Delinquency and Corrections. The grant was used to hire three West Virginia University Law School students whose research during the summer of 1982 formed the basis for the first Digest. The proceeds from the sale of the Digest were sufficient to hire three law students for the summer of 1983. Their work is being used as the basis for a comprehensive set of form jury instructions for use in criminal cases. The first edition of those instructions sold over 250 copies. The second edition has sold over 250 copies, the third edition has sold over 200 copies, and the fourth edition has sold over 150 copies.

Fulfilling its statutory responsibility to conduct legal training programs, PDS' first criminal Trial Advocacy Workshop was held in August, 1985. This workshop brought intensive, small group, video-critiqued advocacy skills training within the reach of West Virginia's indigent defense bar. The workshop offered attorneys an opportunity to significantly improve their skills and was attended by 38 practitioners. Most of the workshop's cost was paid from the sale of publications.

The Center has sponsored the following one-day CLE programs: June, 1986 - Plea Negotiations and Sentencing, Parkersburg; October, 1986 - Juvenile Delinquency Proceedings, Oak Hill; April, 1987 - Child Sexual Abuse Law Seminar, Wheeling; March, 1988 - DNA Testing, Charleston; and, August, 1988 - Seminar on Effective Communication in the Courtroom, Morgantown. Due to recent reductions in staff, no more seminars are planned but video tapes of the seminars already held are still available. In addition, the United States Supreme Court Digest (formerly the United States Supreme Court Index) has been discontinued due to staff reductions. This Digest had sold more than 150 volumes when discontinued.

The Central Office

The central office is composed of only eight persons, including the Executive Director. Four persons, date stamp in-coming mail, answer telephones, review vouchers, record voucher data and file vouchers. One person, the Accountant, keeps track of all dollars spent for both Public Defender Corporations and private appointed counsel, as well as reviews each voucher prior to payment. The Accountant is also responsible for production of federal IRS Form 1099 reports for the approximately 800 service providers paid by voucher.

One paralegal assists with the production and sale of all Research Center publications and serves as a "help desk" for case management software in Public Defender offices.

The Executive Director and Administrative Officer maintain all internal office functions; interact with all Public Defender Corporation Board members and staff; collect
