THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S PAGE

On July 1, 2013, I became the Executive Director for the West Virginia Public Defender Services. I am most grateful to the Honorable Earl Ray Tomblin, Governor of the State of West Virginia, for the appointment to this position.

This report covers the Fiscal Year 2013, so, obviously, I cannot take credit for the successes of the agency during this period of time. Instead, Russell S. Cook deserves the gratitude of the State of West Virginia for his public service as the Acting Executive Director for the past fiscal year. Indeed, Mr. Cook's dedication to the principles of indigent defense is fittingly demonstrated by the fact that he has returned to the Sixth Judicial Circuit's Public Defender Corporation as a full time attorney.

For this reason, this annual report shall be dedicated to Russell S. Cook to demonstrate the appreciation that exists for his efforts on behalf of West Virginia Public Defender Services in Fiscal Year 2013.

My tenure has been brief, but I have developed a vision for West Virginia Public Services. This vision is to rededicate the agency to the task of improving the systems for delivery of legal assistance to indigent persons who are involved in proceedings that affect their liberty interests. In the forthcoming fiscal year, the agency will have as its goals:

1. Mandating the use of the agency's on-line voucher processing system by attorneys in private practice who accept court appointments to defend indigent persons in eligible proceedings;

2. Reconstituting the Indigent Defense Commission for the purpose of evaluating the current methods, and exploring alternative methods, for the delivery of legal services to indigent persons in eligible proceedings;

3. Promulgating legislative rules to embody the programs and procedures for the processing of vouchers for payment of the services by court appointed private attorneys; and

4. Developing performance measures for the public defender corporations throughout the state to ensure that the highest quality of legal assistance to indigent persons is being provided.

But, again, with respect to the Fiscal Year 2013, ending June 30, 2013, West Virginia Public Defender Services is pleased to issue the following report of its activities and the status of its various programs.

Respectfully,

Dana F. Eddy
Executive Director

WEST VIRGINIA PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
Historical Overview

1. The State of West Virginia's Constitutional Obligation.

Over fifty years ago, the United States Supreme Court recognized that:

> [R]eason and reflection require us to recognize that in our adversary system of criminal justice, any person haled into court, who is too poor to hire a lawyer, cannot be assured a fair trial unless counsel is provided for him. This seems to us to be an obvious truth. Governments, both state and federal, quite properly spend vast sums of money to establish machinery to try defendants accused of crime. Lawyers to prosecute are everywhere deemed essential to protect the public's interest in an orderly society. … The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours. From the very beginning, our state and national constitutions and laws have laid great emphasis on procedural and substantive safeguards designed to assure fair trials before impartial tribunals in which every defendant stands equal before the law. This noble idea cannot be realized if the poor man charged with crime has to face his accusers without a lawyer to assist him.

Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335, 344, 83 S.Ct. 792 (1963). With this decision, the United States Supreme Court extended the Sixth Amendment guarantee of the assistance of counsel in criminal prosecutions to the states through the Fourteenth Amendment. Essentially, states had to provide counsel for persons who were too poor to pay for legal services when these persons were confronted with criminal charges or the loss of other important rights by reason of state action.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia reaffirmed the state's constitutional mandate as follows:

> "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has. ..." Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12, 76 S.Ct. 585, 100 L.Ed. 891 (1956). … The state must, as a matter of equal protection, provide indigents with the basic tools for an adequate defense or appeal, when those tools are available for a price to others.

State v. England, 363 S.E.2d 725, 727 (W. Va. 1987). Accordingly, a defense must be provided to indigent defendants and the defense must include not only the services of the attorney, but the provision of other services and material, including the transcripts of proceedings. Id.

2. The Legislative Findings.

In 1981, the following was codified at W. Va. Code §29-21-1:

> The Legislature finds and declares that in certain proceedings the state is required to provide high quality legal assistance to indigent persons who would be otherwise unable to afford adequate legal counsel; that providing legal representation to those who face an economic barrier to adequate legal counsel will serve the ends of justice in accordance with rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the Constitution of the United States of America and the constitution of the state of West Virginia; that the availability of quality legal assistance reaffirms the faith of our citizens in our government of laws; that the present system which utilizes appointed counsel is not operating satisfactorily in some areas of this state and the Legislature is presently unable to determine what system or systems will provide the most efficient means for providing legal representation; that there is a need to explore alternative methods of delivering legal assistance, including the use of salaried public defenders complemented by private panel attorneys; that innovative programs and pilot projects as well as a continuation of the present appointed counsel system are necessary in separate areas of the state to provide information and experience upon which to base future legislative action.

The West Virginia Public Legal Services Council was then created "for the purpose of facilitating required legal representation of indigent persons." W. Va. Code §29-21-3 (1981; superseded in 1989).

In 1989, the agency was renamed as the West Virginia Public Defender Services and was charged as follows:

> The agency shall have as its principal purpose the development and improvement of programs by which the state provides legal representation to indigent persons.

W. Va. Code §29-21-4. This remains the agency's charge.

WEST VIRGINIA PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
An Organizational Overview

VISION: "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has."

Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12 (1956)

MISSION STATEMENT: To fulfill the State of West Virginia's constitutional obligation to provide quality legal assistance to persons who otherwise could not afford legal counsel in proceedings in which the person's liberty interests are at stake.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE:

West Virginia Public Defender Services is within the Department of Administration for the State of West Virginia. The chief administrative officer is the Executive Director, who is appointed by the governor.

The agency has four divisions.

The Voucher Processing Division is charged with the processing for payment of the vouchers which are submitted by private attorneys who accept appointments in eligible proceedings, which are defined as follows:

> Criminal charges which may result in incarceration; juvenile proceedings; proceedings to revoke parole or probation if the revocation may result in incarceration; contempt of court; child abuse and neglect proceedings which may result in a termination of parental rights; mental hygiene commitment proceedings; extradition proceedings; proceedings which are ancillary to an eligible proceeding, including, but not limited to, proceedings to enhance sentences brought pursuant to sections eighteen and nineteen, article eleven, chapter sixty-one of this code, forfeiture proceedings brought pursuant to article seven, chapter sixty-a of this code, and proceedings brought to obtain extraordinary remedies; and appeals from or post-conviction challenges to the final judgment in an eligible proceeding. Legal representation provided pursuant to the provisions of this article is limited to the court system of the state of West Virginia, but does not include representation in municipal courts unless the accused is at risk of incarceration ….

W. Va. Code §29-21-2(2).

The Criminal Law Research Center is another division of the agency which has the following statutory charge:

> (1) Undertake research, studies and analyses and act as a central repository, clearinghouse and disseminator of research materials;

ARCHIVED: This PDF has been archived because it contains historical information and data that may not be currently applicable.
For more information, and any accessibility concerns, please contact Dana Eddy at dana.f.eddy@wv.gov.

> (2) Prepare and distribute a criminal law manual and other materials and establish and implement standard and specialized training programs for attorneys practicing criminal law;
> (3) Provide and coordinate continuing legal education programs and services for attorneys practicing criminal law; and
> (4) Prepare, supplement and disseminate indices and digests of decisions of the West Virginia supreme court of appeals and other courts, statutes and other legal authorities relating to criminal law.

W. Va. Code §29-21-7.

The purpose of the Accounting and Auditing Division is set forth in the following statutory provision:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an accounting and auditing division to require and monitor the compliance with this article by public defender corporations and other persons or entities receiving funding or compensation from the agency. The accounting and auditing division shall review all plans and proposals for grants and contracts and shall make a recommendation of approval or disapproval to the executive director. The accounting and auditing division shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, reports concerning the evaluation, inspection or monitoring of public defender corporations and other grantees, contractors, persons or entities receiving financial assistance under this article and shall further carry out the agency's responsibilities for records and reports as set forth in section eighteen of this article. The accounting and auditing division shall require each public defender corporation to submit financial statements monthly and to report monthly on the billable and nonbillable time of its professional employees, including time used in administration of the respective offices, so as to compare the time to similar time expended in nonpublic law offices for similar activities. The accounting and auditing division shall provide to the executive director assistance in the fiscal administration of all of the agency's divisions. This assistance shall include, but not be limited to, budget preparation and statistical analysis.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(d).

Finally, the agency’s fourth division, the Appellate Advocacy Division is established as follows:

ARCHIVED: This PDF has been archived because it contains historical information and data that may not be currently applicable.
For more information, and any accessibility concerns, please contact Dana Eddy at dana.f.eddy@wv.gov.

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an appellate advocacy division for the purpose of prosecuting litigation on behalf of eligible clients in the Supreme Court of Appeals. The executive director or his or her designee shall be the director of the appellate advocacy division. The appellate advocacy division shall represent eligible clients upon appointment by the circuit courts or by the Supreme Court of Appeals. The division may, however, refuse the appointments due to a conflict of interest or if the executive director has determined the existing caseload cannot be increased without jeopardizing the appellate division's ability to provide effective representation. In order to effectively and efficiently use the resources of the appellate division, the executive director may restrict the provision of appellate representation to certain types of cases. The executive director may select and employ staff attorneys to perform the duties prescribed by this subsection. The appellate division shall maintain records of representation of eligible clients for record purposes only.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(e).

In addition to the agency's divisions, the statutory framework for the agency includes two additional entities.

Indigent Defense Commission.

The first is the Indigent Defense Commission. Specifically,

> (a) There is hereby established the Indigent Defense Commission to provide assistance to Public Defender Services with regard to the general policies and procedures of the agency, including, but not limited to, the opening, closing or merging of public defender offices throughout the state and the establishment of performance measures for the qualitative review of indigent defense.
> (b) In order to demonstrate a collaborative approach to solving criminal justice problems, the commission shall consist of the Executive Director of Public Defender Services, who shall serve as chair, and the following members appointed by the Governor:
> (1) One former or retired circuit judge;
> (2) Three lawyers, one from each congressional district, who have significant experience in the defense of criminal cases or have demonstrated a strong commitment to quality representation of indigent defendants;
> (3) One current chief public defender; and
> (4) One nonlawyer with a demonstrated commitment to providing legal services to the indigent;

ARCHIVED: This PDF has been archived because it contains historical information and data that may not be currently applicable.
For more information, and any accessibility concerns, please contact Dana Eddy at dana.f.eddy@wv.gov.

(5) One person who is a member of an organization that advocates on behalf of people with mental illness and developmental disabilities; and

(6) One attorney with significant experience in the defense of juvenile delinquency and abuse and neglect cases.

(c) The commission shall meet at the times and places specified by the call of the chair: Provided, That the commission shall meet no less than four times each year. Members shall serve without compensation but may receive reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses for each day or portion thereof engaged in this discharge of official duties in a manner consistent with the guidelines of the Travel Management Office of the Department of Administration.

… (f) The commission has the following powers and duties:

(1) To develop standards regarding the qualifications and training for public defenders, assistant public defenders and staff;

(2) To explore opportunities related to the training of appointed panel attorneys;

(3) To evaluate, on an annual basis, the compensation and caseloads of public defenders and appointed panel attorneys;

(4) To develop standards for providing and compensating expert witnesses, investigators and other persons who provide services related to legal representation under this article;

(5) To study, monitor and evaluate existing standards for determining eligibility for legal representation under section sixteen of this article;

(6) To study the feasibility and need of creating additional public defender corporations, the activation of public defender corporations and the formation of multicircuit or regional public defender corporations in accordance with the provisions of section eight of this article;

(7) To study the potential for the dissolution of public defender corporations;

(8) To study, monitor, evaluate and make recommendations regarding the training, experience and background necessary for a public defender or panel attorney to competently represent indigent defendants in capital cases; and

(9) To monitor and make recommendations regarding the following activities of the board of directors of each public defender corporation receiving funding pursuant to this article:

(A) The appointment of the public defender and any assistant public defenders pursuant to subdivision (1), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article;

(B) The fixing of professional and clerical salaries pursuant to subdivision (2), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article; and

(C) The removal of any public defender, assistant public defender

> or other employee for misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance pursuant to subdivision (3), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article.

W. Va. Code §29-21-3b.

Public Defender Corporations.

The second entity is the public defender corporation, which, if active within a judicial circuit, is "to provide legal representation … in accordance with the provisions" of the governing statute. W. Va. Code §29-21-8(a)(2).

For each public defender corporation, a board of directors is appointed. The chairperson of the board is appointed by the governor. One to two members for each county in the judicial circuit are appointed by the county commission. One to two additional members are appointed by each county bar association within the judicial circuit. The board selects a "chief" public defender who is then responsible for the delivery of legal services by the corporation. Unless inconsistent with the governing statute, the provisions of the state's nonprofit corporate laws govern the public defender corporations.

APPELLATE DIVISION:

During 2013 the Appellate Division continued its efforts to expand operations to become a truly state-wide appellate office, taking on a record number of appeals and bringing unique arguments to the W.Va. Supreme Court.

New arguments in appeals are designed to address long-standing criminal law issues, such as whether plea agreements should be required to be in writing, and whether the criminal system adequately addresses the psychiatric illnesses of some criminal defendants during circuit court trials.

The Appellate Division was able to convince the Supreme Court to recommit a murder case for trial level hearings to determine whether new evidence should be brought into a previously decided case, and this is expected to be argued in 2014. In addition, arguments have been made for new law, and the expansion of existing law to not only conform with societal changes, but to expand the rights of West Virginians accused of crimes. Cases currently before the Court will address interpretation of child abuse and neglect statutes, and will continue challenges to the State's mental health law as it conflicts with the criminal justice system.

The Appellate Division has continued to look at ways to save the taxpayers money by continuing its efforts to develop a truly paperless office.

CRIMINAL LAW RESEARCH CENTER:

In the reporting period, the Criminal Law Research Center provided the following legal seminars to public defenders, at no cost, and to panel attorneys, at a substantially lower rate than other commercial sponsors:

Checkpoint Stops, Automobile Searches and the Problem of "Consent"

October 9, 2012	Summit Conference Center Charleston, West Virginia
December 19, 2012	Oglebay Resort Conference Wheeling, West Virginia

80 attorneys attended the conferences. 3.6 Credits of legal education were awarded to the attorneys in attendance.

A Practical Guide to Brady Motions: Getting What you Want, Getting What you Need, Using Youngblood v. West Virginia

April 5, 2013	Big Sandy SuperStore Arena Conference Center Huntington, WV
May 3, 2013	Lakeview Resort Morgantown, WV

59 attorneys attended the conferences. 4.5 Credits of legal education were awarded to the attorneys in attendance.

West Virginia Public Defender Services' Annual Conference

June 6&7, 2013	Glade Springs Resort Daniels, WV

The Criminal Law Research Center organized the agency's annual conference, to which public defenders and any counsel involved in criminal defense were invited.

The topics included Effective Motion Practice in DUI Litigation; Cell Phone & Audio, Photo and Video Forensics; Sexual Assault Litigation – Dealing with the Adult Complainant; Sexual Assault Litigation – Addressing Child Witnesses; Ethics Update; United States Supreme Court Update – What you Need to Know; West Virginia Supreme Court Update; and Legislative Efforts to Deal with Prison Overcrowding.

> During the conference, certain individuals were recognized for their commitment to the agency's mission. Virginia Weed was recognized as a Public Defender of the Year. Ms. Weed was retiring from the Sixth Judicial Circuit's Public Defender Office after 18 years of service. Jerry Henderson was also recognized as a Public Defender of the Year, recognizing his achievements during his tenure with the Sixth Judicial Circuit's Public Defender Office. Trudy Chrisman was awarded recognition as Support Staff of the Year. Ms. Chrisman was retiring from service with the Twenty-Third Judicial Circuit's Public Defender Office since 1997. Crystal Jones was also recognized as Support Staff of the Year in recognition of her service with the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit's Public Defender Office.
> 163 attorneys were in attendance. 11.2 Credits of legal education were awarded to those in attendance.

Also, the Criminal Law Research Center sponsored the New Attorney Training session at the Summit Conference Center in Charleston, West Virginia, on the dates of February 28, 2013 and March 1, 2013. The session is specifically directed to attorneys who are just entering the field of indigent defense. Training was provided for ten (10) attorneys.

Finally, the Criminal Law Research Center co-sponsored with the West Virginia Coalition Against Domestic Violence a conference on significant issues with respect to domestic violence. The conference was held on the dates of November 8 and 9, 2013. The Center primarily assisted with the scheduling of the sessions, the notification of the sessions, and the approval of the session for CLE credit.

During the reporting period, newsletters were disseminated to attorneys throughout the state who provide defense services to the indigent. The newsletters provided basic information to attorneys about events affecting their practice and also provided an index of recent state Supreme Court opinions. The circulation of the newsletter exceeds one thousand practitioners.

The Criminal Law Research continues to maintain a library of material that is available to practitioners. The material is listed on the agency's website at www.pds.wv.org.

ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING DIVISION:

For Fiscal Year 2013, there were seventeen public defender corporations serving eighteen judicial circuits (see subsequent table below). Although Public Defender Services establishes strategic objectives for the delivery of legal services to indigents in eligible proceedings, public defender corporations are not subordinate divisions of this agency, but are autonomous quasi-governmental entities. The Internal Revenue Code classifies these organizations as non-profit (see 26USC501) and as a public charity (see 26USC509). In essence, employees of the public defender corporations are neither employees of Public Defender Services nor employees of the State of West Virginia, but are employees of a specific non-profit organization.

Summary of Activated Public Defender Corporations
See W.Va. Code § 29-21-8

Circuit	Fiscal Year	Office Locations
1st	1990	Wheeling & Weirton
2nd	Before 1991	Moundsville
5th	1996	Ripley & Spencer
6th & 24th	1995	Huntington & Wayne
7th	1991	Logan
8th	1990	Welch
9th	1991	Princeton
10th	Before 1991	Beckley
11th	2000	Lewisburg & Marlinton
12th	1990	Fayetteville
13th	1990	Charleston
15th	1994	Clarksburg
18th	2001	Kingwood
23rd	Before 1991	Martinsburg & Charles Town
25th	2000	Madison & Hamlin
28th	Before 1991	Summersville
30th	1990	Williamson

For Fiscal Year 2013, Public Defender Services made grants in the amount of $15,376,320 to and on behalf of the Public Defender Corporations. It should be noted that this represents a significant reduction in previous grants with a one-time return of at least $3,000,000 to the State of West Virginia as a result of several factors (e.g., not filling authorized positions, use of precautionary funds, and reductions in expenditures). In return for these grants, the Public Defender Corporations reported 253,926 attorney hours and 32,740 closed cases. This represents approximately $60.55 per hour and $469.65 per closed case. However, reducing the attorney time by the 69,847.9 hours reported as administrative time, the cost per hour increases to $83.53 with no effect to the overall cost per case. This metric is a significant deviation from prior annual reports where administrative time has been included as part of the total hours used to calculate cost per hour for public defenders.

For more information, and any accessibility concerns, please contact Dana Eddy at dana.f.eddy@wv.gov.

Due to technological issues associated with the support of the case tracking software, some information was unavailable in the preparation of an annual report. In previous years, Public Defender Services reported statistical information concerning open cases and cases represented. After considerable discussion, it was determined that three separate methods (open, represented, and closed) to illustrate financial performance of the public defender system are unnecessary and sometimes redundant. Thus, the solution was to present only closed cases. Moreover, the details on the number of charges have also been removed. These changes actually help standardize reporting of the two delivery systems: Appointed Counsel and Public Defender Corporations.

Finally, it should be noted that the agency is currently evaluating how to better present the quantitative information (i.e., costs, hours, number of cases) along with qualitative information (e.g., standards of representation). Although these may not be fully implemented for the subsequent annual report concerning Fiscal Year 2014, it is anticipated that additional analysis will be presented.

INDIGENT DEFENSE COMMISSION REPORT

The Indigent Defense Commission issued its Report to the Legislature on January 15, 2009. Since that time, the Commission has met regularly to monitor the implementation of the various recommendations set forth in the report.

The terms of the current members of the Commission have expired. The agency is committed to obtaining new members for the Commission and to charge the Commission with a fresh examination of the state's delivery of legal services to indigent persons. This effort is ongoing.

WEST VIRGINIA PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
STATISTICAL REPORT
PUBLIC DEFENDER CORPORATIONS FY 2012-2013

Total Number of Cases Closed	32,740
Total Amount Disbursed to Corporations*	$15,376,320.00
Average Total Cost Per Cases Closed	$469.65

SUMMARY OF HOURS	With Admin.	Without Admin.
Total In Court Hours Worked	50,400.2	50,400.2
Total Out of Court Hours Worked	132,412.2	132,412.2
Total Drug Court Hours Worked	1,265.7	1,265.7
Total Administrative Hours Worked	69,847.9	not considered
Total Number of Hours Worked during FY2013	253,926.0	184,078.1
Average Total Cost Per Hour	$60.55	$83.53
Percent of Total In Court Hours	19.8%	27.4%
Percent of Total Out of Court Hours	52.1%	71.9%
Percent of Drug Court Hours Worked	Less than 1%	Less than 1%
Percent of Total Administrative Hours	27.5%	not considered

Note: Total amount disbursed includes payments made on behalf of Corporations to audit providers; Office of Technology; State Auditor's Office; and Legal Research Services.*

Note: The Summary of Hours illustrates the difference in considering the total administration time reported by Public Defenders. These Administrative Hours include Holiday, Sick and Annual Leave hours paid to Corporation Attorneys. Moreover, it includes performance reviews as well as management of the facilities and personnel. It also includes time that can be time consuming to allocate to a single case such as representing numerous clients on the same day in municipal court and peer reviewing files to ensure adequate legal representation by counsel.*

Moreover, this comparison illustrates that although the cost per hour without administrative time is $83.53 (compared to $60.55 with administrative time), the cost per case is stable at $469.65. This appears to indicate a level of performance that is not currently captured with the metrics in place for FY 2013. As indicated previously, a comprehensive review is underway.

As this agency is reviewing metrics to better illustrate how funds are distributed among appointed counsel, service providers. And and public defender corporations, the key indicators above provide a better basis of comparison between the appointed counsel and the public defender corporations. Moreover, it is our intention to develop a more comprehensive method of analysis that is more reliable and has greater validity.
