THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S PAGE

The end of Fiscal Year 2013-2014 coincides with the end of the first year of my tenure as Executive Director of Public Defender Services. I remain grateful to the Honorable Earl Ray Tomblin, Governor of the State of West Virginia, for the opportunity to serve the interests of the citizens of the State of West Virginia, especially those citizens who are facing the loss of their liberty but who cannot afford to retain the services of legal counsel.

The agency's accomplishments in the past fiscal year include:

1. The processing of 34,054 vouchers for the payment of court-approved fees for the legal services of appointed counsel in the total amount of $25,541,762;

2. The management of grants to 17 public defender corporations employing 133 full time public defenders throughout the state;

3. The hosting of an annual conference which was attended by 155 attorneys;

4. The publication of newsletters providing criminal defense attorneys with summaries of the opinions of the state's highest court and with other legal information;

5. The activation, at no cost to the state, of an appellate advocacy division with 4 appellate attorneys who address issues of constitutional significance arising out of an eligible client's proceedings; and

6. The utilization of an online voucher system enabling the agency to reduce the processing time for the payment of vouchers and to generate reports detailing anomalies, if any, in an attorney's billing.

The agency has set as its goals for the FY2015 the operation of a public defender corporation in the Fourth Judicial Circuit; the review of the state's system for delivery of legal services by the Indigent Defense Commission; and the promulgation of legislative rules that provide clear guidelines for the submission of vouchers.

Moreover, the agency is determined in FY2015 to reconnect with the over 800 panel attorneys in the state who serve as counsel for indigent criminal defendants or other persons facing prosecution by the state. The agency wants to be viewed as a support system for these attorneys and not just the bureaucratic hurdle that must be cleared in order to receive payment of their legal fees.

But, again, with respect to FY2014, ending June 30, 2014, Public Defender Services issues the following report of its activities.

Respectfully,

Dana F. Eddy
Executive Director

PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
Historical Overview

1. The State of West Virginia's Constitutional Obligation.

Over fifty years ago, the Supreme Court of the United States recognized that:

> [R]eason and reflection require us to recognize that in our adversary system of criminal justice, any person haled into court, who is too poor to hire a lawyer, cannot be assured a fair trial unless counsel is provided for him. This seems to us to be an obvious truth. Governments, both state and federal, quite properly spend vast sums of money to establish machinery to try defendants accused of crime. Lawyers to prosecute are everywhere deemed essential to protect the public's interest in an orderly society. … The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours. From the very beginning, our state and national constitutions and laws have laid great emphasis on procedural and substantive safeguards designed to assure fair trials before impartial tribunals in which every defendant stands equal before the law. This noble idea cannot be realized if the poor man charged with crime has to face his accusers without a lawyer to assist him.

Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335, 344, 83 S.Ct. 792 (1963). With this decision, the Supreme Court of the United States extended the Sixth Amendment guarantee of the assistance of counsel in criminal prosecutions to the states through the Fourteenth Amendment. Essentially, states had to provide counsel for persons who were too poor to pay for legal services when these persons were confronted with criminal charges or the loss of other important rights by reason of state action.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia reaffirmed this constitutional mandate as follows:

> "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has. ..." Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12, 76 S.Ct. 585, 100 L.Ed. 891 (1956). … The state must, as a matter of equal protection, provide indigents with the basic tools for an adequate defense or appeal, when those tools are available for a price to others.

State v. England, 363 S.E.2d 725, 727 (W. Va. 1987). Accordingly, a defense must be provided to indigent defendants and the defense must include not only the services of the attorney, but the provision of other services and material, including the transcripts of proceedings. Id.

2. The Legislative Findings.

In 1981, the following was codified at W. Va. Code §29-21-1:

> The Legislature finds and declares that in certain proceedings the state is required to provide high quality legal assistance to indigent persons who would be otherwise unable to afford adequate legal counsel; that providing legal representation to those who face an economic barrier to adequate legal counsel will serve the ends of justice in accordance with rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the Constitution of the United States of America and the constitution of the state of West Virginia; that the availability of quality legal assistance reaffirms the faith of our citizens in our government of laws; that the present system which utilizes appointed counsel is not operating satisfactorily in some areas of this state and the Legislature is presently unable to determine what system or systems will provide the most efficient means for providing legal representation; that there is a need to explore alternative methods of delivering legal assistance, including the use of salaried public defenders complemented by private panel attorneys; that innovative programs and pilot projects as well as a continuation of the present appointed counsel system are necessary in separate areas of the state to provide information and experience upon which to base future legislative action.

The West Virginia Public Legal Services Council was then created "for the purpose of facilitating required legal representation of indigent persons." W. Va. Code §29-21-3 (1981; superseded in 1989).

In 1989, the agency was renamed as Public Defender Services and was charged as follows:

> The agency shall have as its principal purpose the development and improvement of programs by which the state provides legal representation to indigent persons.

W. Va. Code §29-21-4. This remains the agency's charge.

PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
An Organizational Overview

VISION: "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has."

Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12 (1956)

MISSION STATEMENT: To fulfill the State of West Virginia's constitutional obligation to provide quality legal assistance to persons who otherwise could not afford legal counsel in proceedings in which the person's liberty interests are at stake.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE:

Public Defender Services is within the Department of Administration for the State of West Virginia. The chief administrative officer is the Executive Director, who is appointed by the governor.

The agency has three divisions.

The Accounting and Auditing Division is charged with the following responsibilities:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an accounting and auditing division to require and monitor the compliance with this article by public defender corporations and other persons or entities receiving funding or compensation from the agency. The accounting and auditing division shall review all plans and proposals for grants and contracts and shall make a recommendation of approval or disapproval to the executive director. The accounting and auditing division shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, reports concerning the evaluation, inspection or monitoring of public defender corporations and other grantees, contractors, persons or entities receiving financial assistance under this article and shall further carry out the agency's responsibilities for records and reports as set forth in section eighteen of this article. The accounting and auditing division shall require each public defender corporation to submit financial statements monthly and to report monthly on the billable and nonbillable time of its professional employees, including time used in administration of the respective offices, so as to compare the time to similar time expended in nonpublic law offices for similar activities. The accounting and auditing division shall provide to the executive director assistance in the fiscal administration of all of the agency's divisions. This assistance shall include, but not be limited to, budget preparation and statistical analysis.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(d).

ARCHIVED: This PDF has been archived because it contains historical information and data that may not be currently applicable.
For more information, and any accessibility concerns, please contact Dana Eddy at dana.f.eddy@wv.gov.

The Accounting and Auditing Division also contains the voucher processing staff that processes for payment the vouchers which are submitted by private attorneys who accept appointments in eligible proceedings, which are defined as follows:

> Criminal charges which may result in incarceration; juvenile proceedings; proceedings to revoke parole or probation if the revocation may result in incarceration; contempt of court; child abuse and neglect proceedings which may result in a termination of parental rights; mental hygiene commitment proceedings; extradition proceedings; proceedings which are ancillary to an eligible proceeding, including, but not limited to, proceedings to enhance sentences brought pursuant to sections eighteen and nineteen, article eleven, chapter sixty-one of this code, forfeiture proceedings brought pursuant to article seven, chapter sixty-a of this code, and proceedings brought to obtain extraordinary remedies; and appeals from or post-conviction challenges to the final judgment in an eligible proceeding. Legal representation provided pursuant to the provisions of this article is limited to the court system of the state of West Virginia, but does not include representation in municipal courts unless the accused is at risk of incarceration ….

W. Va. Code §29-21-2(2).

The Criminal Law Research Center is another division of the agency which has the following statutory charge:

> (1) Undertake research, studies and analyses and act as a central repository, clearinghouse and disseminator of research materials;
> (2) Prepare and distribute a criminal law manual and other materials and establish and implement standard and specialized training programs for attorneys practicing criminal law;
> (3) Provide and coordinate continuing legal education programs and services for attorneys practicing criminal law; and
> (4) Prepare, supplement and disseminate indices and digests of decisions of the West Virginia supreme court of appeals and other courts, statutes and other legal authorities relating to criminal law.

W. Va. Code §29-21-7.

Finally, the agency's third division, the Appellate Advocacy Division is established as follows:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an appellate advocacy division for the purpose of prosecuting litigation on behalf of eligible clients in the Supreme Court of Appeals. The executive director or his or her designee shall be the director of the appellate advocacy division. The appellate advocacy division shall represent eligible clients > upon appointment by the circuit courts or by the Supreme Court of Appeals. The division may, however, refuse the appointments due to a conflict of interest or if the executive director has determined the existing caseload cannot be increased without jeopardizing the appellate division's ability to provide effective representation. In order to effectively and efficiently use the resources of the appellate division, the executive director may restrict the provision of appellate representation to certain types of cases. The executive director may select and employ staff attorneys to perform the duties prescribed by this subsection. The appellate division shall maintain records of representation of eligible clients for record purposes only.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(e).

In addition to the agency's divisions, the statutory framework for the agency includes two additional entities.

Indigent Defense Commission.

The first is the Indigent Defense Commission. Specifically,

> (a) There is hereby established the Indigent Defense Commission to provide assistance to Public Defender Services with regard to the general policies and procedures of the agency, including, but not limited to, the opening, closing or merging of public defender offices throughout the state and the establishment of performance measures for the qualitative review of indigent defense.
> (b) In order to demonstrate a collaborative approach to solving criminal justice problems, the commission shall consist of the Executive Director of Public Defender Services, who shall serve as chair, and the following members appointed by the Governor:
> (1) One former or retired circuit judge;
> (2) Three lawyers, one from each congressional district, who have significant experience in the defense of criminal cases or have demonstrated a strong commitment to quality representation of indigent defendants;
> (3) One current chief public defender; and
> (4) One nonlawyer with a demonstrated commitment to providing legal services to the indigent;

(5) One person who is a member of an organization that advocates on behalf of people with mental illness and developmental disabilities; and

(6) One attorney with significant experience in the defense of juvenile delinquency and abuse and neglect cases.

(c) The commission shall meet at the times and places specified by the call of the chair: Provided, That the commission shall meet no less than four times each year. Members shall serve without compensation but may receive reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses for each day or portion thereof engaged in this discharge of official duties in a manner consistent with the guidelines of the Travel Management Office of the Department of Administration.

(f) The commission has the following powers and duties:

(1) To develop standards regarding the qualifications and training for public defenders, assistant public defenders and staff;

(2) To explore opportunities related to the training of appointed panel attorneys;

(3) To evaluate, on an annual basis, the compensation and caseloads of public defenders and appointed panel attorneys;

(4) To develop standards for providing and compensating expert witnesses, investigators and other persons who provide services related to legal representation under this article;

(5) To study, monitor and evaluate existing standards for determining eligibility for legal representation under section sixteen of this article;

(6) To study the feasibility and need of creating additional public defender corporations, the activation of public defender corporations and the formation of multicircuit or regional public defender corporations in accordance with the provisions of section eight of this article;

(7) To study the potential for the dissolution of public defender corporations;

(8) To study, monitor, evaluate and make recommendations regarding the training, experience and background necessary for a public defender or panel attorney to competently represent indigent defendants in capital cases; and

(9) To monitor and make recommendations regarding the following activities of the board of directors of each public defender corporation receiving funding pursuant to this article:

(A) The appointment of the public defender and any assistant public defenders pursuant to subdivision (1), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article;

(B) The fixing of professional and clerical salaries pursuant to subdivision (2), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article; and

(C) The removal of any public defender, assistant public defender or other employee for misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance pursuant to subdivision (3), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article.

W. Va. Code §29-21-3b.

Public Defender Corporations.

The second entity is the public defender corporation, which, if active within a judicial circuit, is "to provide legal representation … in accordance with the provisions" of the governing statute. W. Va. Code §29-21-8(a)(2).

For each public defender corporation, a board of directors is appointed. The chairperson of the board is appointed by the governor. One to two members for each county in the judicial circuit are appointed by the county commission. One to two additional members are appointed by each county bar association within the judicial circuit. The board selects a "chief" public defender who is then responsible for the delivery of legal services by the corporation. Unless inconsistent with the governing statute, the provisions of the state's nonprofit corporate laws govern the public defender corporations.

AUDITING AND ACCOUNTING DIVISION: PUBLIC DEFENDER CORPORATIONS

For Fiscal Year 2014, there were seventeen public defender corporations serving eighteen judicial circuits (see subsequent table below). Although Public Defender Services establishes strategic objectives for the delivery of legal services to indigents in eligible proceedings, public defender corporations are not subordinate divisions of this agency, but are autonomous quasi-governmental entities. The Internal Revenue Code classifies these organizations as non-profit (see 26USC501) and as a public charity (see 26USC509). In essence, employees of the public defender corporations are neither employees of Public Defender Services nor employees of the State of West Virginia, but are employees of a specific non-profit organization governed by a board of directors appointed by the Governor, local bar associations, and county commissions.

Summary of Activated Public Defender Corporations
See W.Va. Code § 29-21-8

Circuit	Fiscal Year	Office Locations
1st	1990	Wheeling & Weirton
2nd	Before 1991	Moundsville
5th	1996	Ripley & Spencer
6th & 24th	1995	Huntington & Wayne
7th	1991	Logan
8th	1990	Welch
9th	1991	Princeton
10th	Before 1991	Beckley
11th	2000	Lewisburg & Marlinton
12th	1990	Fayetteville
13th	1990	Charleston
15th	1994	Clarksburg
18th	2001	Kingwood
23rd	Before 1991	Martinsburg & Charles Town
25th	2000	Madison & Hamlin
28th	Before 1991	Summersville
30th	1990	Williamson

For Fiscal Year 2014, Public Defender Services made grants in the amount of $17,030,817 to and on behalf of the Public Defender Corporations. In return for these grants, the Public Defender Corporations reported 259,737.9 attorney hours and 33,354 closed cases. This represents approximately $65.57 per hour and $510.61 per closed case. However, reducing the attorney time by the 70,132.8 hours reported as administrative time, the cost per hour increases to $83.53 with no effect to the overall cost per case.

CRIMINAL LAW RESEARCH CENTER

In the FY2014, the Criminal Law Research Center provided the following legal seminars to public defenders, at no cost, and to private attorneys at a substantially lower cost than commercial providers:

- Winning the Eyewitness Identification case
  (sponsored by the Public Defender Corporation for the 6th/24th Judicial Circuits)

At the annual conference, the inaugural John A. "Jack" Rogers Award for Outstanding Leadership in Public Service was awarded to its namesake, John A. "Jack" Rogers. The inaugural Award for Outstanding Scholarship in Criminal Law was awarded to Ira Mickenberg.

The Criminal Law Research Center also published in FY2014 the Legislative Watch which tracked legislation introduced during the 2014 Legislative Session relating to criminal law or criminal defense. Eight (8) issues were published, including a final "windup" in which all relevant legislation that was enacted into law was discussed. Ronni Sheets, a Managing Deputy Public Defender with the Public Defender Corporation for the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit and the Chair of the Subcommittee on Legislative Oversight which is within the State Bar's Criminal Law Committee, was a major contributor to the publications and was the author of the final "windup" issue.

The Criminal Law Research Center also published four (4) newsletters that addressed general issues affecting the criminal defense practice, discussed specific issues affecting the operations of Public Defender Services, and provided summaries of relevant decisions of the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia and the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Criminal Law Research Center continues to maintain a library of material that is available to practitioners throughout the state. The material is listed on the agency's website at www.pds.wv.org.

APPELLATE ADVOCACY DIVISION

The appellate advocacy division has historically been comprised of one appellate counsel. During FY2014, Public Defender Services reviewed the structure of its appellate advocacy division in light of the statutory mandate that the "agency shall establish and the executive director or his designee shall operate an appellate advocacy division for the purpose of prosecuting litigation on behalf of eligible clients in the Supreme Court of Appeals." W. Va. Code §29-21-6(e). Public Defender Services determined that the resolution of important constitutional issues on behalf of eligible clients throughout the state could be better achieved by centralization of appellate counsel in the agency.

Accordingly, the agency determined that, effective July 1, 2014, the appellate counsel in the public defender corporations who were funded from the agency's appropriations would be housed within the agency and would become state employees. This relocation of the appellate counsel is to be done without any additional cost to the State of West Virginia.

The agency has adopted the following as the mission for this division upon its commencement of operations in FY2015:

> Public Defender Services, through its appellate advocacy division, shall take appointments to prosecute appeals in the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia or the Supreme Court of the United States on behalf of eligible clients when the appeals present compelling procedural or constitutional issues having broad application to criminal defendants generally and requiring, therefore, extensive scholarship and zealous advocacy.

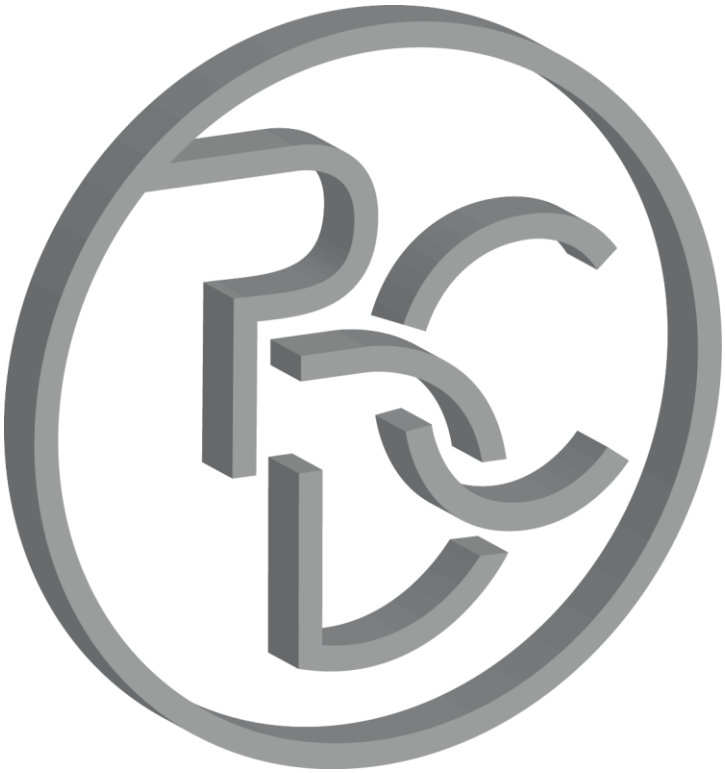

Upon the activation of this appellate advocacy division, the agency shall correspond with the circuit courts within the State of West Virginia to outline the manner in which appointments of matters to the appellate advocacy division will be made.

INDIGENT DEFENSE COMMISSION REPORT

The Indigent Defense Commission did not meet in FY2014. The terms of the members of the Commission had expired. The Executive Director is committed to the reinvigoration of the Commission. The anticipation is that in FY2015 the Commission will be reconstituted and the Commission will review the state's delivery of legal services to its indigent citizens in criminal proceedings in accordance with its statutory mandate. See W. Va. Code §29-21-3b.

Public Defender Corporation for the First Judicial Circuit

Under the direction of our nine-member Board of Directors, the First Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation is a client focused non-profit organization operating in the Northern Panhandle of West Virginia. In order to meet the demands of the four judges and ten magistrates located in our tri-county circuit, we employ a diverse collection of nine full time attorneys representing approximately 168 years of combined legal experience. Our attorneys are supported through five non-lawyer staff associates with 62 years of dedicated service. Our attorneys and staff are split among two offices located in Wheeling and Weirton.

Our primary mission is the direct representation of indigent citizens accused by the government of crimes against the state. We do this well—everyone knows what we bring! Our secondary mission focuses on preserving the Rule of Law.

Gideon correctly states that attorneys are not luxuries but necessities. Since the beginning of FY 2014, the Corporation has opened over 3367 cases. Fiscal Year 2013 demonstrates the objective contribution of our Corporation to the efficient provision of legal services. Appointed to 87% of misdemeanors and 60% of felonies, our corporation yielded a cost per case averaging approximately $514.14. Compared with the private panel appointments—averaging $1,090.04 per case—these raw numbers provide the best evidence of our cost effectiveness.1 In addition to the above, the Corporation, by Circuit Court appointment, also represents citizens in municipal court, parole/probation revocations, juvenile matters, abuse and neglect proceedings, as well as other miscellaneous matters involving jeopardized freedom.

To be clear, cost-saving measures are not the true measure of our effectiveness. That honor belongs to our performance. By way of example, our last seven trials by jury have yielded four acquittals. Our Corporation takes pride in the competent delivery of legal services to our clients. Collectively, our board, attorneys and support staff are the Corporation. We are a learning organization—combining experience, talent, and advocacy—collectively aimed towards assisting the indigent accused through the legal and regulatory minefield. Equally important, we are vested in the community we serve. Our employees are military veterans, members of local boards, former elected officials, community volunteers, and active in community events.

Our dedication to the rule of law shapes our end state—that is, our well-earned reputation as an obstacle on the road to tyranny. We are the quiet guardians of liberty.

Shayne M. Welling, Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Second Judicial Circuit

Based upon information found in the 1984 Annual Report of the West Virginia Public Legal Services Council (forerunner to PDS) our office was one of the very first Public Defender Corporations in the State. It was closely followed by, or was perhaps opened at about the same time, as the corporations in the Twenty-Third Circuit (Berkeley County/Martinsburg) and the Twenty-Eighth Circuit (Summers County/Summersville). Shortly thereafter an office was opened in Kanawha County to provide representation in juvenile cases only.

Over the years many attorneys have left this office and went on to successful private practices. Others have left to become county and/or federal prosecutors. As the Chief Public Defender, I have served on the Northern Panhandle Community Criminal Justice Board. Our office fully utilizes the services provided by the Lee Day Report Center in Moundsville as well as the Pre-Trial Release evaluations provided by Dave Taylor who works with the Center. According to the most recent report of the Drug Court Program there were twenty-two individuals currently involved or pending admission, sixteen of which are represented by our office.

Public Defender Corporation for the Fifth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Fifth Judicial Circuit held its first board meeting on July 31st, 1996. Our office covers Calhoun, Roane, and Jackson counties. Our office consists of three support staff and seven lawyers, including our Chief Public Defender, Kevin Postalwait.

Our goal is to provide high quality legal assistance to indigent persons who would be otherwise unable to afford adequate legal counsel; to provide legal representation to those who face an economic barrier to adequate legal counsel that will serve the ends of justice in accordance with rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the constitution of the United States of America and the constitution of the state of West Virginia; and to make available quality legal assistance that reaffirms the faith of our citizens in our government of laws.

Our objective is to protect the ordinary citizen from wrongful conviction and to protect the basic and fundamental rights of all citizens by navigating those individuals charged with crimes through an evolving and complex legal system. We provide appointed counsel in felony, misdemeanor, abuse & neglect, juvenile delinquency, juvenile status offenses, family court contempt when jail is contemplated, and mental hygiene proceedings.

Community Involvement

Currently, Kevin is an adjunct criminal law instructor at West Virginia University at Parkersburg, Jackson County campus, one night per week. He is also on the Community Corrections Board for Wood and Jackson counties. In addition, a drug court is being implemented in Roane County in the very near future and Kevin or another designated assistant attorney will be on the treatment team for the Roane County Drug Court program.

One of our assistant public defenders is actively involved in the Ravenswood community garden program, and also attends meetings for the various boards that oversee the funding for community programs in the Ravenswood area.

Additionally, one of our administrative assistants is active in the 4H program in Roane County, and is also a very active member of the Spencer Volunteer Fire Department. Another administrative assistant is actively involved in coordinating beauty pageants and other activities to help young women receive college tuition assistance including grants and scholarships.

Public Defender Corporation for the Sixth and Twenty-Fourth Judicial Circuits

The Public Defender Corporation for the Sixth and Twenty-Fourth Judicial Circuits was founded on July 1, 1994. Historically, we have had one of the largest caseloads in the state. In Fiscal Year 2014 the Huntington office closed 3,962 cases and the Wayne office closed 922 cases. There are eleven attorneys in Huntington and three in Wayne. Our office has been active in helping establish and maintain Juvenile Drug Courts in both counties, Adult Drug Courts in both counties, Truancy Courts in both counties, Day Report Centers in both counties, a Veterans Treatment Court in Wayne County, and a Pre-Trial Release Board in Cabell County.

Our Chief Defender, Bob Wilkinson, serves on the Community Corrections subcommittee of the Governor's Committee on Crime, Delinquency and Corrections and the Supreme Court's Court Improvement Program Board. Our attorneys have given training presentations for the annual cross training events on Abuse and Neglect and Juvenile law sponsored by the Supreme Court for the past five years. They have also done training for new Probation Officers.

Last year, our office and Public Defender Services cosponsored continuing education programs by Ira Mickenberg in Huntington, Beckley, Charleston and Wheeling.

Over the years we have had several attorneys named Public Defender of the Year they were: Bob Wilkinson (97); Kimberly Campbell [now Carico] (99); Kit Thornton (2000); Ashley Lockwood (04); Paul Jordan (06); Larry Lewis (11); Virginia Weed and Jerry Henderson (13). Public Defender Support Staff of the Year recipients include: Lisa Osburn now Amorim; Vickii Hughes (05); and Amy Hatfield [now Souther] (08). David Lockwood, a member of our Board of Directors since its inception 20 years ago, was honored for his Contributions to the Public Defender System in 2005.

Public Defender Corporation for the Seventh Judicial Circuits

The Public Defender Corporation for the Seventh Judicial Circuit serves Logan County and was formed on or about November 28, 1989. Over this twenty five (25) year commitment to serving our community, we have consistently increased the level of services provided to Logan County.

We have most recently played key roles in the development of the crucial services provided to the poor suffering severe drug addiction. As Managing Public Defender I was on the original team that formed and planned the Adult Drug Court and Juvenile Drug Courts that are functioning and routinely graduating people. These men and women with spouses and children would otherwise be in prison or dead of a drug overdose but for these programs. I am also a member of the Board of Directors for the Day Report Center that offers crucial services for people on probation or other Court or Parole Supervision. Our staff remains committed to the success of these rehabilitation programs. Our referrals and effective alternative sentencing proposals work to promote these programs and add to their many success stories.

In this past fiscal year, we successfully acquired Pre-Trial Diversions for several clients. This affords them the opportunity to avoid having a Felony Criminal Record after illustrating a drug and crime-free lifestyle by use of these programs. We have gotten many cases dismissed both prior to and after indictment due to efficient motions practice and an effective investigation process. Additionally, we have had very few cases to result in long term prison commitments primarily because we effectively utilize the alternative sentencing programs in our county and inpatient treatment facilities both in and outside our County.

We pride ourselves on working hand-in-hand with the Panel Attorneys. We provide assistance as a local resource for attorneys for legal research and pre-trial motions practice and wish to increase this role in the legal community. We also pride ourselves on working hand in hand with the Panel Attorneys, by, among other things, covering emergency hearings in certain necessary circumstances.

Going forward we are working on increasing services for alternative sentencing and working to become more technologically efficient as we move towards the paper free era of Criminal Law. Further, we are currently working with the local bar to get local CLE and other training for all attorneys involved in criminal defense in our area.

Public Defender Corporation for the Eighth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Eighth Judicial Circuit was established in 1990. The rise of unemployment, in once thriving McDowell County was the result of the failing coal industry. The loss of income for the citizens of McDowell County created an overwhelming need of legal representation for those who became indigent. Along with the migration of qualified attorneys away from McDowell County and an increasing case load for court appointed attorneys, a majority of the active members of the bar and the chief judge agreed to activate the Public Defender Corporation for the 8th Judicial Circuit.

Our county experienced further loss with the devastating floods of 2001 and 2002. As a result of the floods more jobs exited creating a greater indigent population. During the second flood of 2002 the PDC was flooded with water up to 3 feet. Nevertheless the employees continued to serve the public without fail, while shoveling mud and fighting mold for a month before the office could be relocated.

Our office handles the following types of cases: felony, misdemeanor, abuse and neglect, juvenile delinquency, truancy, appeals of felonies and misdemeanors, mental hygiene hearings, guardian ad litem, extraditions. Our staff is comprised of three attorneys, including a chief, an Office Manager, and our Secretary.

Floyd Anderson, Chief Public Defender, is a native of McDowell County. He earned a Degree in Psychology for West Virginia University in 1988, received his law degree from Southern University Law Center in 1992, and became a member of the WV State Bar in 1994. Floyd joined the office in 1995 and became Chief in 1998.

Prior to joining our office in 2003, attorney Robert “Pete” E. Blair served as Family Law Master, held political offices such as County Commissioner, and was a member of the McDowell County Board of Education. Pete has practiced law for over fifty (50!) years, and handles misdemeanor cases in all three magistrate courts. On multiple days of the week he is responsible for at least 15 or more clients in court as well as the time it takes for preparation to handle these said cases. He also handles felony preliminary hearings.

Our newest attorney, Joshua Miller, received his law degree from West Virginia University College of Law in May 2013, where he graduated in the top twenty-five percent (25%) of his class. Despite more lucrative offers, Josh decided to serve his county and joined the office in September 2013. Josh handles certain felony cases, misdemeanor cases, juvenile delinquency, abuse and neglect, truancy charges, mental hygiene hearings, and extraditions. He has already filed an appeal in an abuse and neglect case.

Kimberly Cox, our Office Manager, has been with our office for twenty years. She originally joined the office as a secretary in 1994, and then became the office manager in 1997. Kim manages the attendance and leave records for our employees, verifies our funding is adequate and is used properly, and insures all bills, taxes, and other required documents are paid and/or filed in a timely manner. Kim also assists with secretarial duties.

Our secretary, Robin Oakley, began working at our office in 2008. Prior to joining us, she had worked as a magistrate assistant, a deputy circuit clerk, and a legal secretary. She handles all of the secretarial work, including (but certainly not limited to) contacting the client,

Public Defender Corporation for the Ninth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Ninth Judicial Circuit is located in Princeton, and began operations on June 1, 1991 with three attorneys and two support staff. Currently seven attorneys and five support staff handle court proceedings in front of three circuit court judges and five magistrates, as well as two municipal courts. We also regularly participate in Supreme Court proceedings.

Our office and the Mercer County court system have strived to adapt to the needs of indigent defendants as they have arisen. Due to the increased drug challenges in our society, our corporation became involved in serving on Adult and Juvenile Drug Courts. We work with our clients in the Adult Drug Court to achieve a reduction in recidivism and substance abuse among offenders, and to increase the likelihood of successful rehabilitation through early, continuous, and intense treatment; mandatory periodic drug testing; community supervision; appropriate sanctions and incentives; and other rehabilitation services, all of which are supervised by a judicial officer.

We work with our juvenile offenders in Juvenile Drug Court to redirect juvenile offenders with alcohol or substance abuse behavior from the traditional juvenile court process, to an intensive, individualized treatment process. The mutual goal of our office and Juvenile Drug Court is to reduce future court involvement for these youth.

Mercer County has historically had one of the highest numbers of open child abuse and neglect caseloads in the state. During these proceedings, we help insure that parents' constitutional rights to parent their children are protected. We also interact with the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources (DHHR) to assure parents obtain services through the DHHR providers to learn proper parenting techniques.

We also participate on the Southern Regional Community Criminal Justice Board with representatives from the Court system, and the community. The purpose of the board is to oversee the day to day operations of the Day Report Center. During the past year, our corporation was involved with court personnel and community leaders in obtaining a Justice Reinvestment Grant, to establish a new 60-100 bed residential treatment facility in Mercer County. This facility will house criminal defendants, in lieu of going to prison. The facility will hire counselors and specialists to provide various services for persons in recovery: strength-based support for positive change; aid in finding and keeping safe and sober living environments; and help with education and other needs as they transition back into society.

Our attorneys and support staff are involved in arranging for substance abuse rehabilitation services for clients who do not qualify for Drug Court services. We make referrals, prepare orders to transport and evaluate clients to assist them in overcoming addiction.

Our involvement in Truancy Court has enabled us to reveal the unmet needs of children in our county. While working with the Truancy Court system, we have assisted children in receiving necessary educational, psychological, and medical services.

Public Defender Corporation for the Tenth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Tenth Judicial Circuit has been located at 228 N. Fayette Street in Beckley, WV for more than 10 years. It currently employs a chief public defender, seven staff attorneys, five support staff, and a bookkeeper/office manager. The Office opened in 1989, making it one of the oldest Public Defender Corporations in the State.

The lawyers currently employed have been working at the office an average of just over 8 years and have on average 13.5 years of legal experience each. During the 2013 fiscal year the office closed a total of 3,119 cases which included 847 felonies and 1520 misdemeanors. This amounted to an average cost per case of approximately $282, compared to the average cost for appointed counsel in the same circuit of $711. This is the lowest cost per case in the entire state. The Office also represents approximately 75% of all cases in the circuit for which counsel is appointed, this is the third highest rate in the state. Much of the lower cost per case can be attributed to the experienced legal and support staff, the high ratio of cases per attorney, (389.8 cases per counsel - 2nd highest in state), as well as a continuing effort to reduce costs incidental to operating the office.

Jury trials are infrequent in this circuit but the most recent jury trial handled in Circuit Court by this office resulted in an outright acquittal, as have the last three jury trials in magistrate court. The common denominator in all those cases was the input by several attorneys in the consultation of defense preparation. Cases are assigned evenly on a rotation basis so that each attorney handles matters in magistrate court, circuit court and before other miscellaneous tribunals, (parole hearings, mental hygiene, etc.).

Lawyer schedules are kept electronically on Time Matters as well as on desk calendars. All lawyers have access to Time Matters to keep their time and to check their calendar. Attorneys can access their files through the E-File Program as well as through the hard copy maintained in their office. Closed files can also be accessed through the E-File program. Cases over the past 12 years have been scanned, reducing the need for storage of those documents. Backups of all records are maintained on and off premises insuring their survival.

The legal staff meets frequently to review and discuss cases giving a committee approach to most cases. Standard pretrial motions are filed in all cases and attorneys individually review their cases to see what particular motions should be filed to properly advocate for their clients. The office is capable of running paperless since all documents received or produced are scanned digitally. The office maintains a form bank for motions and research on most legal issues and is supplemented with the current use of West Law.

The basic principle of the office is to provide the best possible legal defense to each client. Review of cases is done during brainstorming sessions which are held frequently.

Over the past year, weekly meetings are held with the prosecuting attorney and local day report representative to review defendants that are incarcerated in jail to see if their release might be obtained through recognizance or other means of conditional bond. On average, 3 individuals per week are released after these meetings, saving counties approximately $1,000 per week as with all offices, the recent initiation of Truancy Court has strained staff and the beginning of Drug Court will further burden the office which will continue to persevere and uphold our statutory obligation to the state and professional obligation to our clients.

Public Defender Corporation for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit was formed in 1999 to provide competent and cost-effective legal representation to indigent individuals facing eligible criminal and quasi-criminal charges in Greenbrier and Pocahontas counties. The Corporation is guided by a board of directors chaired by David Smith, the Mayor of Ronceverte, WV, with the Chief Defender, Joshua Edwards, serving as the day to day administrator.

The Corporation and its staff also serve an important role in the community. The Eleventh Judicial Circuit has been a leader in West Virginia's entry into alternative programs such as community corrections, drug court programs, truancy diversion and pretrial supervision. The attorneys of the Corporation have been an important part of these efforts. Chief Defender Joshua Edwards and Deputy Chief Defender Dewitt Daniell both serve on the advisory committee for Greenbrier County's Day Report Program which received the Honorable Martin J. Gaughan Award for Excellence in Community Corrections. In addition to their formal role on the advisory committee, both serve as informal advisors on policy matters and legal questions as they arise. They are also members of the advisory committee in Pocahontas County serving in a similar capacity. The Corporation provides attorneys for the weekly drug court treatment teams in both counties. Mr. Edwards serves on the Planning Committee for the Juvenile Drug Court and previously served on the Juvenile Drug Court weekly treatment team. Both counties also have Truancy Diversion Programs and the Public Defenders are responsible for representing the vast majority of the juveniles in those programs.

Outside of the Court system, Public Defender attorneys have volunteered to assist with the Supreme Court of Appeals LAWS (Legal Advancement for West Virginia Students) Program, lectured middle school students on the consequences of bullying, attended career day programs to discuss a legal career with students, and gave additional presentations in schools on the criminal justice system.

Historically, our office has been a cost effective provider of legal services. Our cost per closed case in FY 2013 was $647.30 compared to private appointed counsel in the Judicial Circuit at $1403.15.

Public Defender Corporation for the Twelfth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Twelfth Judicial Circuit was formed in 1990 to provide legal services to indigent individuals facing criminal charges. Our office is located in Fayetteville, and, in 2015, we will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary.

Our office handles misdemeanor charges, felony charges from arrest through appeal, City Court charges throughout the County, extraditions, mental hygiene petitions, abuse and neglect, juvenile status offenses, and juvenile delinquency cases. We are on call at all times if needed by the Court system for mental hygiene petitions or juvenile detention hearings.

As of August 2014, our office has approved eighty-one (81%) percent of the financial affidavits requesting representation we've received. An additional fifteen (15%) percent were approved but due to a conflict were appointed to a panel attorney, and four (4%) percent were determined to be over income. In Fiscal Year 2013 we had several jury trials with positive outcomes and numerous indictments which were dismissed based upon motions we filed. We have also had several clients who, although indicted, resolved their charges with pleas to minor charges in Magistrate Court.

Although each day at the Fayette County Public Defender's Office we are helping others, some after work hours are also dedicated to worthwhile endeavors. Some examples are: mentoring high school students; coaching new panel attorneys; speaking at County Government Day; acting as a board member for our Day Report Center; member of the Nicholas County Sheriff's Department Civil Service Commission; soccer coach; and adult mentor for the Woodrow Wilson High School Honor Society.

Public Defender Corporation for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit

In 1994 the Harrison County Bar Association authorized the opening of a public defender corporation with the goal of providing indigent defendants with access to counsel specializing in criminal matters. With three attorneys, the Corporation took on approximately 99 cases in its first year of operation.

Twenty years later, the Public Defender Corporation for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit is recognized as the standard for criminal defense in Harrison County. Defendants and respondents are protected by a corps of experienced, dedicated attorneys who handle approximately 1,400 cases a year, ranging from simple misdemeanor offenses to high profile felony cases. In addition to the misdemeanor and felony matters the Corporation's Attorneys handle Abuse and Neglect, Family Court contempt, Mental Hygiene, Extradition, Probation Revocation, and Juvenile Status and Delinquency proceedings. Several Attorneys are also currently certified to accept Guardian Ad Litem appointments to represent children in Abuse and Neglect cases.

A majority of offenses committed within the County are substance abuse related. For this reason the Corporation has forged relationships with area substance abuse treatment professionals and facilities in an effort to reduce recidivism and secure better outcomes for clients. A number of these clients are also returning combat veterans. With that in mind the Corporation has partnered with the VA Hospital located in the County in an effort to provide additional treatment and alternative sentencing options for those clients.

The Corporation participated in the development of the Harrison County Juvenile Drug Court and is currently aiding the Circuit Court in the development and implementation of an Adult Drug Court in the County. The Corporation actively participates with, and serves on the Boards of, both the Juvenile and Adult Drug Court.

Additionally, the Corporation is an active member of the Circuit's Court Advisory Board and the Community Corrections Board. At the State level, one Assistant Defender has recently been named to the Intergovernmental Task Force on Juvenile Justice.

The Corporation's size and proximity to the WVU College of Law allow us the unique opportunity to partner with the Law School to host Summer Interns and Fall and Spring Externs. This opportunity provides valuable hands-on experience to those aspiring to become criminal defense attorneys.

It is the goal of the Corporation, not only to provide expert legal representation within the community, but to provide to the community as well. Whether it be by procuring needed services for clients, or by participating in programs within the community, it is the Corporation's hope that it can make a positive impact in the lives of their clients, as well as in the community it serves.

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-Third Judicial Circuit

The Mission of the Eastern Panhandle Public Defender Office (EPPDO) is to provide competent, thoroughly professional legal representation to the indigent criminally accused in all Courts in the Twenty-third (23rd) Judicial Circuit of West Virginia in an efficient, cost-effective manner when appointed to do so by competent judicial authority.

Our clientele primarily consists of defendants in criminal matters at the felony and misdemeanor levels in Circuit and Magistrate Court, but the obligation to provide professional, competent legal representation extends to and includes appointments to represent offending respondents in parental rights termination matters ("abuse and neglect" cases), Family Law Court contempt proceedings, juvenile offender matters and mental hygiene involuntary commitment proceedings, as well as appellate matters at various levels when assigned to do so by a Court, to include prosecuting appeals in the WV Supreme Court of Appeals.

The EPPDO office responsibilities include all the courts in all three county jurisdictions in the Eastern Panhandle (Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan), as well as seven individual municipal courts in various towns throughout the Panhandle, particularly Martinsburg's Municipal Court. Our two separate offices are located in Martinsburg, which covers all matters in Berkeley and Morgan counties, and a satellite office in Charles Town, which handles all matters in Jefferson County. In calendar year 2013, the office handled over 4330 individual, discrete cases and we are currently on pace to exceed that total by several hundred additional cases in 2014, due to a combination of population growth, as well as the easing of financial eligibility guidelines that dictate and control the availability of court-appointed counsel.

Established nearly thirty years ago and operating continuously since, we are the second largest Public Defender Corporation in West Virginia, with a staff of 33 individuals: 20 licensed attorneys and 13 clerical support staff members and investigators. The team at the EPPDO is a committed, dedicated crew, truly devoted to ensuring that our clients of all types are treated justly: we fiercely protect the rights of poor, often powerless and uneducated people accused of being criminals, or are somehow enmeshed in other legal difficulties touching upon fundamental rights, thus ensuring that the criminal justice system is administered fairly, remains open, accessible and even-handed -- and is perceived as such by the general public and citizenry that we serve. We ensure that the common man accused of wrongdoing by a powerful government and police apparatus is not overwhelmed and unduly intimidated and that his voice and "side of the story" is told by a tenacious, professional advocate committed to his cause. As Chief Public Defender, and a veteran of nearly twenty years in the trenches at the EPPDO, I am supremely confident that we are well-regarded and respected by all the judges and opposing counsel in our bailiwick. We are the proverbial "overworked and underpaid" public servants: despite staggering caseloads — well above and greatly surpassing ABA guideline levels - and extremely low compensation relative to our peers in the local prosecutors' offices, we enjoy very low turnover among the staff and have accrued a level of experience and expertise unrivaled in the State: a devoted team of career Public Defenders serving the State and her people and Courts.

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-Fifth Judicial Circuit

The Office of the Public Defender for the Twenty-Fifth Judicial Circuit was created on the Fourteenth day of June, 2000. The 25th Judicial Circuit encompasses Boone and Lincoln Counties. We have two physical offices. One located at 320 Main Street, Madison WV, and the other located at 406 Walnut Street, Hamlin WV. The staff currently consists of six attorneys and 4 support staff, with four attorneys and three support staff in the Madison office and two attorneys and one support staff in the Hamlin office.

Our Chief Public Defender is Robert White. Bob has in excess of thirty-two (32) years of experience in the practice of criminal law, which includes over eight years as a prosecutor. He has jury acquittals in Murder and Sexual Assault cases and the only jury acquittal in a Delivery of a Controlled Substance case in the history of Boone County. Additionally, four of our attorneys bring over twelve years of experience each, including one with twenty-five years.

Our service also includes activities outside the office. Bob serves as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of a 501(c)3 Corporation that operates a Community Center in his neighborhood. David Lockwood, another attorney in our office, serves alongside Bob on the Drug Court Treatment Teams in Boone and Lincoln Counties.

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-Eighth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-Eighth Judicial Circuit is located in Summersville and was established in 1983, making it one of the first public defender corporations in the state.

D. Mark Snyder was the sole practitioner and public defender until Cynthia Stanton was hired in October 1987. For the first seven years, Ms. Stanton was the sole public defender. In 1994 a decision in Charleston was made to hire an assistant public defender and in the last twenty years, six attorneys have held the positions. Ms. Sarah Campbell was hired and began working in October 2013. The 28th Judicial Circuit Public Defender has two attorneys and two support staff. Robin Wellman has worked for the corporation twenty-one years and Kathy O'Dell has worked for seventeen years. Ms. Stanton is the oldest serving public defender in the state.

The 28th Public Defender Corporation has maintained an annual caseload of approximately 500-600 cases per year since Ms. Stanton has taken over. This office has been responsible for indigent representation in all areas of criminal defense eligible proceedings. As reflected in the statistics on page 69 of the WVPDS Annual Report 2013, it appears that our office consistently maintains a higher percentage proportionately of all criminal proceedings than offices having many more attorneys. Our two attorneys handle 64% of all criminal applicants in the county. Our abuse & neglect load is fourth of all corporations and we are the only two person office. We handle all Mental Hygiene hearings during work hours and at night unless we have a conflict. We handle all court appointments unless there in a codefendant or similar conflict. Ms. Stanton handles family court. Drug Court has not been established yet but is mandated to be set up.

We have always had each attorney prepared and ready to conduct any kind of criminal proceeding. Since there is still a satellite magistrate office in Richwood (26 miles away) we are also required to attend court there an average of one day a week or three times a month or more. Every attorney that has left the office is typically prepared to handle all types of criminal proceedings. The ability to accomplish this is based upon necessity as our one Judge Circuit expects our office to be available for all proceedings during the weekdays, weeknights, and weekends.

At this point we believe that we have a sound system in place to address indigent clients in our circuit. Ms. Stanton is also the President of the Community Corrections Board that oversees the Day Report Center. She traveled to Charleston in June to obtain grant monies for the continuance of the successful program which established itself as a separate entity this year.

It is our belief that in 2016 there may be an additional judge added to our single circuit which would dramatically change the operation of our corporation.

Public Defender Corporation for the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit

LEADERSHIP UNDER FIRE

The Public Defender Corporation for the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit is the largest, busiest, and most experienced law firm in Mingo County. We are proud to be leaders in our legal community.

During the past year, 2013-14, that leadership was put to the test. In an almost unimaginable scandal, our former Circuit Judge, County Prosecutor, and Chief Magistrate would all be convicted of federal crimes for abusing their offices. Months before the federal investigation was made public, our office stood alone, filing motion after motion challenging the officials' corrupt practices. Challenging the only judge in a one-judge circuit was not popular, but it was right.

Following the officials' convictions, others looked to our office to help stabilize and rebuild. In fact, two of our attorneys were recommended by the Governor's Judicial Vacancy Advisory Commission to replace the deposed Judge. Although it has been a tough year, fraught with the difficulties inherent in practicing in front of a rotating cast of retired judges, we are happy to see much improvement in Mingo County, and very proud of the role we played.

Our Office

Our office opened for business on January 15, 1990. Since that time we've grown from a one attorney, one secretary office to a 4 attorney office with a clerical staff of three. Our office handles approximately 500 cases a year, including felony, misdemeanor, juvenile and mental hygiene matters. Over the years our attorney staff has supervised 30+ law student interns from 10 different law schools, many of whom have chosen to practice law in West Virginia. Former members of our staff can be found in various positions across our state, including Mark Snyder, Kanawha County Family Court Judge, Nancy Fraley, Chief Public Defender in Fayette County, Richard Holicker, Kanawha County Public Defender and former Kanawha County Magistrate, and our most recent loss, Jonathan Friley, now at PDS as Public Defender Corporation Administrator.

Our chief defender, Teresa McCune, attended Marshall University and Antioch School of Law. She handles most of our juvenile matters and murder cases. Teresa is active in state and local bar and community service. She chairs the State Bar Commission on Children and the Law, serves on the WV Supreme Court of Appeals Region Three Fatality Review Task force, and is a member of the WV State Bar CLE and Criminal Law Committees. She has been named a WV Bar Foundation Fellow, and has received the Governor's Service Award. Teresa founded and directs "On Track for College," an award-winning college bound coaching program that helps students preparing for higher education. She is also a member of Williamson Woman's Club and the Mingo/Pike branch of AAUW. Locally, Teresa is also the Chair of Christian Help of Mingo County, a charitable organization which provides direct aid to the needy.

Dave Foley, a former WV Public Defender of the Year, is a graduate of the WVU College of Law, and attended James Madison University where he was on the varsity debate team. Dave handles misdemeanors and felonies, and is our "go to guy" for extradition cases. Dave is a an Executive Board Member for the Coalfield Association of Southern Baptists, sings in his church choir, teaches Sunday school and bowls competitively. He is happily married to Debbie.

Duke Jewell is a graduate of Ohio Northern Law School. A member of the Williamson High School Athletic Hall of Fame, he played college basketball at Brandeis University. Duke handles misdemeanor and felony cases. He is married to Christina, and is the father of two toddlers, Jackson Cade and Samuel Jase. Duke is a member of the Tug Valley Road Runners Club, and volunteers with a number of community programs, including WV READ ALOUD and KIDS RUN THE NATION. He is a Williamson PK - 8 YEP Advisory Board member, an avid music collector and is the son of Mid Jewell, of Jewell v. Maynard, the granddaddy of all WV public defenders.

Paul Montgomery, a U.S. Navy veteran, attended the University of Oklahoma and Appalachian School of Law. He handles misdemeanor and felony cases, is our point man for mental hygiene cases, and also contributes in juvenile matters. Paul is married to Megan, and is the father of two toddlers, Syrus Jonah and Royce Asher (aka Bobby Cars). Paul is a member of Delta Theta Phi Law fraternity. His hobby is stargazing.

Crystal Brewer, our secretary, is a graduate of Williamson High School. She conducts the youth choir at her church. Crystal helps care for 80 year old father, who is a liver transplant survivor. She is married to Rick. Crystal and Rick help provide Christmas for needy children through an AEP employees program.

Tiera Asbury, our office manager, is a graduate of Mingo County Vocational School. Tiera volunteers as a member of the Policy Council Board for Coalfield Cap, an agency which oversees Head Start programs in Mingo and McDowell counties. She also works with the Ben Creek volunteer Fire Department delivering meals to the elderly. She is married to Chad and is the mother of 7 year old Callie.

Jane Moran, the Chair of our Board of Directors is an iconic figure amongst lawyers delivering services to the poor and disenfranchised in our state. Jane is often appointed by our Supreme Court to complicated cases involving children's rights and to prestigious committee positions and chairmanships. Jane has received numerous awards for her work and is often called upon as a trainer in juvenile and child abuse law.

APPOINTED COUNSEL CLAIMS PAID WITHOUT SUPPLEMENTAL* OR DIRECT EXPENSES

* Supplemental means that more than one claim for payment was submitted in a case. For statistical purposes, therefore, the number of claims is reduced by these additional claims so that the resulting number fairly represents the number of actual cases.
