The Executive Director's Page

Public Defender Services hereby submits its annual report for the State of West Virginia's fiscal year 2015-2016.

In this third year of my tenure as the Executive Director, the agency's focus has been on directly providing support to the attorneys involved in indigent defense. Formal training on the agency's on-line voucher processing system was provided, in person, to new attorneys. Assistance on legal issues was provided to practitioners by the agency's appellate advocates, including research, moot courts, and articles. An annual conference was held which featured nationally renowned authors and speakers. The agency continues to work on updating the agency's practice manuals, with a revised compilation of jury instructions soon to be published. The Indigent Defense Commission has been drafting and reviewing standards for indigent defense which should serve as a guide for those who take on this noble cause.

The effort to address the incidents of overbilling continued. The common thread among the targeted counsel's practices is the complete absence of any formal timekeeping system. Accordingly, the agency has requested programming changes to its online voucher system so that it can be, in fact, used as a timekeeping system. The software is currently being tested and debugged and may be ready for use before the agency's annual conference in 2017.

Notably, of course, this fiscal year was the twilight of the administration of the Honorable Earl Ray Tomblin. Governor Tomblin is to be commended for the commitment to fulfilling the State of West Virginia's constitutional obligation to provide counsel to those who could not otherwise afford representation. Over 47 million dollars was provided for this purpose in the fiscal year, which, on a per capita basis, ranks among the highest funding in the nation. However, the continued search for the source of funds is a daunting task and a challenge that has to be met and resolved for subsequent fiscal years.

I want to close with one point. Notwithstanding any debate over the structure of indigent defense, the focus must always remain on the primary purpose of the agency's efforts – ensuring the zealous and effective representation of the affected clientele. Whatever action is taken, it cannot be taken for purely economic reasons or for efficiency or for ease of effort; instead, it must be taken because it ensures that the interests of the indigent citizens of this state will be better served in the defense of charges that the State brings against them.

The words of Justice Black in Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335 (1963), eloquently emphasizes the point:

> [R]eason and reflection require us to recognize that in our adversary system of criminal justice, any person haled into court, who is too poor to hire a lawyer, cannot be assured a fair trial unless counsel is provided for him. This seems to us to be an obvious truth. Governments, both state and federal, quite properly spend vast sums of money to establish machinery to try defendants accused of crime. Lawyers to prosecute are everywhere deemed essential to protect the public's interest in an orderly society. Similarly, there are few defendants charged with crime, few indeed, who fail to hire the best lawyers they can get to prepare and present their defenses. That government hires lawyers to prosecute and defendants who have the money hire lawyers to defend are the strongest indications of the wide-spread belief that lawyers in criminal courts are necessities, not luxuries. The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours. From the very beginning, our state and national constitutions and laws have laid great emphasis on procedural and substantive safeguards designed to assure fair trials before impartial tribunals in which every defendant stands equal before the law. This noble ideal cannot be realized if the poor man charged with crime has to face his accusers without a lawyer to assist him.

And I further reiterate the quote from Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12 (1956), that I include in the agency's correspondence or communications: "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has."

So, as the new fiscal year unfolds and a new administration begins, the agency's mission will continue to be the improvement of the system by which the State of West Virginia delivers its legal services in fulfillment of its constitutional obligation, but the effort will always be done with the intent to make sure that it is the interests of the citizens who are directly impacted that are best served.

Respectfully,

Dana F. Eddy
Executive Director

Team Engagement & Agency Activities

Agencies, businesses, other organizations, and employees benefit from a workplace culture that encourages appreciation, recognition, and thinking outside the box. In addition to monthly brown-bag luncheons, we hold various events through the year to celebrate achievements and build a more cohesive and engaged team. Two of our favorite events this year were our Halloween party and a staff retreat at Coonskin Park (as part of Employee Recognition Week).

Community Service

We also value service to our community. This year we held two community service drives. First, we selected the YWCA Sojourner's Shelter for Homeless Women & Families[1] as our holiday charity. For approximately two weeks, members of the office gathered basic and essential items such as underwear, laundry detergent, and toothbrushes, as well coffee and healthy snacks for the residents.

[1] The Shelter serves homeless single women, women with children, men with custody of their children, and intact families. Upon entering the shelter, residents must shower and often only have the clothes on his or her back, thus the need for underwear and laundry detergent. While the items gathered may seem mundane, for a person leaving a crisis situation, the ability to have a clean body and clean clothes is needed and appreciated. This experience reminded us that sometimes, the simple gifts are the one most cherished. For more information visit their website at https://www.ywcacharleston.org/homeless-services.

Our second community service drive was in response to the traumatic and devastating floods that affected so many. We collected many of the same items from our Sojourner drive and donated them to those in need.

We also participated in two charity initiatives as part of Public Service Recognition Week (PSRW). The first initiative collected 86 books for area daycare centers, preschools, and public schools. For our second initiative, we created a "Doggie Bag" containing pet supplies and treats to be raffled off during Public Service Recognition Week. Our gift basket (along with themed baskets from six other agencies) helped raise $1,205 for the Mountain Mission and WVU Children's Hospital.

A Special Farewell

This year we also said "best wishes" to Kitty Wilson, our Chief Financial Officer, who retired after thirty years of service. Kitty's passion and dedication to state government and to our agency was undeniable. Kitty remains in contact, and has even joined us for some of our brown-bag luncheons.

PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES
Historical Overview

1. The State of West Virginia's Constitutional Obligation.

Over fifty years ago, the Supreme Court of the United States recognized that:

> [R]eason and reflection require us to recognize that in our adversary system of criminal justice, any person haled into court, who is too poor to hire a lawyer, cannot be assured a fair trial unless counsel is provided for him. This seems to us to be an obvious truth. Governments, both state and federal, quite properly spend vast sums of money to establish machinery to try defendants accused of crime. Lawyers to prosecute are everywhere deemed essential to protect the public's interest in an orderly society. … The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours. From the very beginning, our state and national constitutions and laws have laid great emphasis on procedural and substantive safeguards designed to assure fair trials before impartial tribunals in which every defendant stands equal before the law. This noble idea cannot be realized if the poor man charged with crime has to face his accusers without a lawyer to assist him.

Gideon v. Wainwright, 372 U.S. 335, 344, 83 S.Ct. 792 (1963). With this decision, the Supreme Court of the United States extended the Sixth Amendment guarantee of the assistance of counsel in criminal prosecutions to the states through the Fourteenth Amendment. Essentially, states had to provide counsel for persons who were too poor to pay for legal services when these persons were confronted with criminal charges or the loss of other important rights by reason of state action.

The Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia reaffirmed this constitutional mandate as follows:

> "There can be no equal justice where the kind of trial a man gets depends on the amount of money he has. ..." Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12, 76 S.Ct. 585, 100 L.Ed. 891 (1956). … The state must, as a matter of equal protection, provide indigents with the basic tools for an adequate defense or appeal, when those tools are available for a price to others.

State v. England, 363 S.E.2d 725, 727 (W. Va. 1987). Accordingly, a defense must be provided to indigent defendants and the defense must include not only the services of the attorney, but the provision of other services and material, including the transcripts of proceedings. Id.

2. The Legislative Findings.

In 1981, the following was codified at W. Va. Code §29-21-1:

> The Legislature finds and declares that in certain proceedings the state is required to provide high quality legal assistance to indigent persons who would be otherwise unable to afford adequate legal counsel; that providing legal representation to those who face an economic barrier to adequate legal counsel will serve the ends of justice in accordance with rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the Constitution of the United States of America and the constitution of the state of West Virginia; that the availability of quality legal assistance reaffirms the faith of our citizens in our government of laws; that the present system which utilizes appointed counsel is not operating satisfactorily in some areas of this state and the Legislature is presently unable to determine what system or systems will provide the most efficient means for providing legal representation; that there is a need to explore alternative methods of delivering legal assistance, including the use of salaried public defenders complemented by private panel attorneys; that innovative programs and pilot projects as well as a continuation of the present appointed counsel system are necessary in separate areas of the state to provide information and experience upon which to base future legislative action.

The West Virginia Public Legal Services Council was then created "for the purpose of facilitating required legal representation of indigent persons". W. Va. Code §29-21-3 (1981; superseded in 1989).

In 1989, the agency was renamed as Public Defender Services and was charged as follows:

> The agency shall have as its principal purpose the development and improvement of programs by which the state provides legal representation to indigent persons.

W. Va. Code §29-21-4. This remains the agency's charge.

Finally, the agency's third division, the Appellate Advocacy Division is established as follows:

> The agency shall establish and the executive director or his or her designee shall operate an appellate advocacy division for the purpose of prosecuting litigation on behalf of eligible clients in the Supreme Court of Appeals. The executive director or his or her designee shall be the director of the appellate advocacy division.

> The appellate advocacy division shall represent eligible clients upon appointment by the circuit courts or by the Supreme Court of Appeals. The division may, however, refuse the appointments due to a conflict of interest or if the executive director has determined the existing caseload cannot be increased without jeopardizing the appellate division's ability to provide effective representation. In order to effectively and efficiently use the resources of the appellate division, the executive director may restrict the provision of appellate representation to certain types of cases. The executive director may select and employ staff attorneys to perform the duties prescribed by this subsection. The appellate division shall maintain records of representation of eligible clients for record purposes only.

W. Va. Code §29-21-6(e).

In addition to the agency's divisions, the statutory framework for the agency includes two additional entities.

Indigent Defense Commission.

The first is the Indigent Defense Commission. Specifically,

> (a) There is hereby established the Indigent Defense Commission to provide assistance to Public Defender Services with regard to the general policies and procedures of the agency, including, but not limited to, the opening, closing or merging of public defender offices throughout the state and the establishment of performance measures for the qualitative review of indigent defense.
> (b) In order to demonstrate a collaborative approach to solving criminal justice problems, the commission shall consist of the Executive Director of Public Defender Services, who shall serve as chair, and the following members appointed by the Governor:
> (1) One former or retired circuit judge;
> (2) Three lawyers, one from each congressional district, who have significant experience in the defense of criminal cases or have demonstrated a strong commitment to quality representation of indigent defendants;

(c) The commission shall meet at the times and places specified by the call of the chair: Provided, That the commission shall meet no less than four times each year. (3) To evaluate, on an annual basis, the compensation and caseloads of public defenders and appointed panel attorneys;

(5) To study, monitor and evaluate existing standards for determining eligibility for legal representation under section sixteen of this article;

(7) To study the potential for the dissolution of public defender corporations;

(8) To study, monitor, evaluate and make recommendations regarding the training, experience and background necessary for a public defender or panel attorney to competently represent indigent defendants in capital cases; and

(9) To monitor and make recommendations regarding the following activities of the board of directors of each public defender corporation receiving funding pursuant to this article:

(A) The appointment of the public defender and any assistant public defenders pursuant to subdivision (1), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article;

(C) The removal of any public defender, assistant public defender or other employee for misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance pursuant to subdivision (3), subsection (c), section fifteen of this article.

W. Va. Code §29-21-3b.

Public Defender Corporations.

The second entity is the public defender corporation, which, if active within a judicial circuit, is "to provide legal representation … in accordance with the provisions" of the governing statute. W. Va. Code §29-21-8(a)(2).

For each public defender corporation, a board of directors is appointed. The chairperson of the board is appointed by the governor. One to two members for each county in the judicial circuit are appointed by the county commission. One to two additional members are appointed by each county bar association within the judicial circuit. The board selects a "chief" public defender who is then responsible for the delivery of legal services by the corporation. Unless inconsistent with the governing statute, the provisions of the state's nonprofit corporate laws govern the public defender corporations.

AUDITING AND ACCOUNTING DIVISION: PUBLIC DEFENDER CORPORATIONS

For FY2016, there were eighteen public defender corporations serving nineteen judicial circuits (see subsequent table below). Although Public Defender Services establishes strategic objectives for the delivery of legal services to indigents in eligible proceedings, public defender corporations are not subordinate divisions of this agency. In essence, employees of the public defender corporations are neither employees of Public Defender Services nor employees of the State of West Virginia, but are employees of a specific non-profit organization governed by a board of directors appointed by the Governor, local bar associations, and county commissions.

Summary of Activated Public Defender Corporations
See W.Va. Code § 29-21-8

For FY2016, Public Defender Services made grants in the amount of $19,017,163.41[1] to and on behalf of the Public Defender Corporations. In return for these grants, the Public Defender Corporations reported 253,705.5 attorney hours and 33,799 closed cases. This represents approximately $74.96 per hour and $562.65 per closed case. However, reducing the attorney time by the 62,686.7 hours reported as administrative time (191,018.8), the cost per hour increases to $99.57[2] with no effect to the overall cost per case.

[1] Includes $400,000 grant to 4th Circuit for startup expenses disbursed at the end of FY 2015. The 4th PDC began taking cases in January, 2016 and became fully staffed and operational after the end of FY 2016.
[2] This includes hours reported as drug court time (1,287.90)

APPELLATE ADVOCACY DIVISION

"The right of an accused in a criminal trial to due process is in essence, the right to a fair opportunity to defend against the State's accusations." Chambers v. Mississippi, 410 U.S. 284, 294, 93 S. Ct. 1038, 1045 (1973). The Appellate Advocacy Division strives to protect this right and to ensure that West Virginia conducts its criminal trials in accordance with the rule of law rather than compromising justice in light of the citizen-defendants' perceived opprobrium.

The Appellate Advocacy Division's primary task is to pursue appeals on behalf of indigent criminal defendants throughout the state who stand convicted of serious crimes resulting in lengthy prison sentences. The Appellate Division prefers complex cases or cases presenting issues of first impression so that in addition to protecting each individual client's rights, the law in general can advance in a positive direction.

The Appellate Division enjoyed a successful year in FY2016! The Division welcomed Scott Johnson to the team. Scott brings with him a wealth of experience in criminal law and appellate advocacy. Welcome Scott!

Additionally, Jason Parmer obtained a reversal and acquittal in the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia. The Louk decision involved an issue of first impression regarding behavior the Legislature intended to punish under W.Va. Code § 61-8D-4a, the statute which criminalizes child neglect causing death. State v. Louk, 237, W.Va. 200, 786 S.E.2d 219 (2016). The Louk court issued an opinion that is in align with the majority view across the country, holding that prenatal conduct is not covered under child neglect statutes unless specified by the Legislature. The Louk court explained the Legislature can easily include the unborn child in W.Va. Code § 61-8D-4a with clarity as it has done in several other statutes.

Crystal Walden, Director of the Appellate Advocacy Division, with Richard Jaffe at the 2016 Indigent Defense Conference

The Appellate Advocacy Division believes that trial and appellate lawyers can develop a united front in the defense of the indigent citizens of our state. In an effort to implement this team approach, the division assists attorneys throughout the State by answering attorney assistance calls and participating in continuing legal education programs offered by the Criminal Law Research Center. The Appellate lawyers participated in every CLE program the Criminal Law Research Center held this year, including the Annual Conference.

The number of attorney assistance calls the Appellate Division handled during fiscal year 2015 increased. The Appellate Division welcomes any practicing criminal defense lawyer within the state to call with legal questions they may have, regarding a court appointed case. The assigned appellate attorney will research any issue and provide prompt feedback. The Appellate Division offers other services, as well. The attorneys will brainstorm issues in a case, review discovery and offer suggestions or host a moot court in person or via phone conference.

The Appellate Advocacy Division is dedicated to vigorous representation of every client during both the trial and appellate phase. The division's ultimate goal is to help to ensure that every indigent citizen charged with a crime enjoys all the constitutional rights and protections guaranteed under the constitutions of both the United States and West Virginia.

INDIGENT DEFENSE COMMISSION

The members are the Honorable John L. Cummings, Senior Status Judge from Milton; Valena E. Beety, WVU College of Law Professor and Chair of the WV Innocence Project, from Morgantown; Lonnie C. Simmons, a criminal defense attorney and the Chair of the Public Defender Corporation for the 13th Judicial Circuit, from Charleston; George Castelle, former Chief Public Defender for the 13th Judicial Circuit, from Charleston; Lawrence P. Shao, Ph.D., former Professor of Finance at Marshall University, from Huntington; Karen B. McCune, Chief Public Defender for the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit, from Williamson; and John H. Lehman, an attorney with significant experience in the defense of Juvenile delinquency and abuse and neglect cases, from Martinsburg. The Executive Director of Public Defender Services serves as Chair of the Commission.

Beginning with calendar year 2016, the Indigent Defense Commission created working groups to focus on the following issues: (i) standards for the indigent defense function; (ii) training and certification of counsel who take court appointments; (iii) performance guidelines and measures for public defenders; and (iv) economic analysis of data relating to indigent defense in the State of West Virginia.

At the last meeting, the Indigent Defense Commission received reports from two workgroups, which included the recommendation of standards to be adopted with respect to indigent defense and performance guidelines and measures to be utilized by public defender corporations. In the forthcoming months, the membership of the Indigent Defense Commission will review the material and will then have the material published for public comment.

With respect to the training and certification of counsel, the members of the working group have consulted with members of the State Bar's criminal law subcommittee. Continued discussion will take place before a final report is issued.

The working group on the economic analysis of data is awaiting action on the performance guidelines and measures.

The Indigent Defense Commission anticipates its next meeting will be held in March of 2017.

Meshea Poore, President-Elect of the Board of Governors for the WV State Bar (and former Public Defender with the 13th PDC), discusses the relationship between the State Bar and the indigent defense attorneys at the 2016 Indigent Defense Conference.

Public Defender Corporation for the First Judicial Circuit

Under the direction of our nine-member Board of Directors, the First Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation is a client focused non-profit organization operating in the Northern Panhandle of West Virginia. To meet the demands of the four judges and ten magistrates located in our tri-county circuit, we employ a diverse collection of nine full time attorneys representing approximately 186 years of combined legal experience. Our attorneys are supported through five non-lawyer staff associates. Our attorneys and staff are split among two offices located in Wheeling and Weirton.

Our primary mission is the direct representation of indigent citizens accused by the government of crimes against the state. We do this well—Everyone knows what we bring! Our secondary mission focuses on preserving the Rule of Law. Gideon correctly states that attorneys are not luxuries but necessities. Our profession of law dictates that we are the social trustees for the rule of law. To that end, we aim to use our collective expertise only in the best interests of our clients and society.

In FY 15, our Corporation handled approximately 55% of felonies involving indigent persons. Additionally, we represented almost 83% of misdemeanors and 62% of juveniles. Our cost per case remains $424.29 lower than panel attorneys. These raw numbers provide the best evidence of our cost effectiveness.[1]

To be clear, cost-saving measures are not the true measure of our effectiveness. That honor belongs to the performance of our employees. Our Corporation takes pride in the competent delivery of legal services to our clients. Collectively, our board, attorneys and support staff are the Corporation. We are a learning organization—combining experience, talent, and advocacy—collectively aimed towards assisting the indigent accused through the legal and regulatory minefield.

Equally important, we are vested in the community. Our employees are military veterans, members of local boards, former elected officials, and community volunteers. Our exclusive focus on criminal defense contributes to the efficient delivery of legal services. Efficiency yields time for our employees to: serve on local boards such as Youth Services Systems (YSS), Wheeling Regatta, and Legal Aid; coach youth soccer; organize water drives for Flint, MI; volunteer for WV flood recovery; organize charity 5K run/walks; accommodate continued service in the West Virginia Army National Guard; and foster parenting.

Our dedication to the rule of law shapes our end state—that being our well-earned reputation as an obstacle on the road to tyranny. We remain your quiet guardians of liberty.

Shayne M. Welling
Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Second Judicial Circuit

Last year our narrative quoted the proverb that "change is neither good nor bad, it is simply constant". The Second Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation has continued to experience change in Fiscal Year 2016 that has been both planned and stable.

On December 14, 2015, Brett M. Ferro became the Chief Public Defender following the retirement of long-time Chief David L. Zehnder, who remained an official consultant to the Corporation until June 30, 2016. We remain grateful to Dave for his stewardship, advice, and mentorship to all in our office. In addition to Dave's retirement, June 30th also marked Martha McFadyen's retirement after nearly fifteen years of service. We are fortunate that Martha has agreed to return as needed to help with various projects, cover leave, and keep our workload from falling behind. We are thankful for Martha's years of service and support, as well as her continued dedication to our team.

We also welcomed Vicki Lough, a former intern and temporary employee, to our team in late May 2016. Our final vacancy will be filled in late September when Jennifer Cook, who has a master's degree in counseling, joins our team.

The Board of Directors has expanded by 2 lay members, as the Wetzel and Tyler County Commissions approved filling those vacancies in September 2015. The Board has helped advise and guide the decisions of the Chief Public Defender. Board Chair Vicki Voorhis has also assisted the new Chief by attending the February 2016 Chiefs and Chairs meeting and consulting on personnel.

Our team zealously represent indigent defendants and ensure that they are treated fairly by the system that seems to be stacked against them. The caseload remains high and we have several cases pending before the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia. It seems that the first question lawyers ask one another is about upcoming trials, and there has been successes at trial. John Anderson had multiple acquittals in Wetzel County Magistrate Court, and Brett Ferro achieved an acquittal in a felony case in Wetzel County Circuit Court in August 2015 in which the Defendant faced 50-200 years in prison if convicted.

Finally, the attorneys and staff here are proud of their involvement in and ties to the community. We all help our families, friends, churches, and communities, and enjoy giving back.

As I close out this narrative, I want to share some photos taken by our Office Manager, Jennifer Galloway, depicting two of the three county courthouses in our judicial circuit.

Brett M. Ferro, Esq.
Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Fourth Judicial Circuit

The Fourth Circuit Public Defender's Office is now open for business. Serving Wood and Wirt Counties, PDC4 accepted its first criminal appointments on January 11, 2016. Since that day, our caseload has continued to steadily grow as we ready ourselves for a full docket of felony, misdemeanor, juvenile and other criminal cases.

Preparations are now behind us. We are equipped, and soon to be fully staffed with nine attorneys, six full-time legal assistants, and two part-time employees. We were also lucky to be able to host legal interns from WVU College of Law this summer. Their youth and enthusiasm always reminds the more seasoned attorneys of why we choose to do the work we do. All of us found ourselves learning along with them.

During our first six months of operations, we readied ourselves to tackle our case load. We were introduced to Time Matters and inputted mountains of data after Time Matters became fully operational in March; we became better acquainted with our magistrates, our judges and court personnel, and with each other. We have tried three felony cases to a verdict so far, with two not guilty verdicts to show for our efforts.

One of our favorite rooms in our new office is the Gideon Conference Room which includes pictures of Mr. Gideon and his attorney Abe Fortas as well as a copy of the handwritten Petition Mr. Gideon filed in the United States Supreme Court of Appeals. Many clients ask about the pictures and we explain that Mr. Gideon is the reason that we are here to represent them. Most clients find it hard to believe that the reason they have an attorney is because Clarence Gideon decided to file a case on his own in the United States Supreme Court to seek this important right.

In addition to our legal work, our staff has gladly volunteered to take part in community events as well. Chief Deputy Joseph McFarland, Jr. serves as the President of the Wood County Bar Association this year. In June, we hosted a group of seven young adults in transitional living situations during the United Way's Day of Action. We sponsored a luncheon and discussed the issues and obstacles facing these young adults, offering legal and life advice. We also participate in Juvenile Drug Court as time permits. Michele Rusen serves on a board of directors for a local homeless day shelter.

Like most, if not all, of the other public defender offices, we are astonished at the number of cases we have resulting from opioid and other drug addictions. Those in the legal system as well as the county commissions paying jail bills have become increasingly alarmed about this continually growing problem and with good cause. Our office has joined our community's discussion about how this problem can be addressed and resolved. The number of clients incarcerated for drug related offenses continues to increase without abatement as our community and our state searches for a way to meaningfully combat drug use and addiction.

I feel I would be remiss if I did not introduce our team.

Public Defender Corporation for the Fifth Judicial Circuit

Organization's History:

The Public Defender Corporation held its first board meeting on the 31st day of July 1996 and includes the 5th Judicial Circuit of Calhoun, Roane, Jackson, and Mason counties in West Virginia. However, during the process the Mason County Bar brought a lawsuit against the corporation and was granted an injunction for operation in Mason County. At the time, the injunction was not challenged and the corporation along with Public Defender Services made the mutual decision not to litigate the injunction as Public Defender Services and the corporation being in their infancies and it was agreed it was more important to firmly establish the corporation and Public Defender Services generally. To this day, the injunction has not been challenged. The corporation has revisited the topic in meetings and with communication with the local Mason County Bar and Judge Nibert of Mason County, West Virginia through its Chief Public Defender and has decided not to challenge the injunction as of this date.

Organizational Goals and Objectives:

Our goal is to provide high quality legal assistance to indigent persons who would be otherwise unable to afford adequate legal counsel; to provide legal representation to those who face an economic barrier to adequate legal counsel that will serve the ends of justice in accordance with rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the constitution of the United States of America and the constitution of the state of West Virginia; to make available quality legal assistance that reaffirms the faith of our citizens in our government of laws.

The objective is to protect the ordinary citizen from wrongful conviction and to protect the basic and fundamental rights of all citizens by navigating those individuals charged with crimes through an evolving and complex legal system. A conviction based on sound law and tested facts with competent counsel is rarely overturned by the courts whereby society as a whole is protected by protecting individual rights.

Programs and Services:

Pursuant to W. Va. Code §29-21-8(a)(2) the purpose of a public defender corporation is to provide legal representation in the respective circuits in accordance with the provisions of that article. To that end, we provide appointed counsel in felony, misdemeanor, abuse & neglect, juvenile delinquency, juvenile status offenses, family court contempt when jail is contemplated, and mental hygiene proceedings.

Community Involvement:

Currently, the Chief Public Defender is an adjunct criminal law instructor at West Virginia University at Parkersburg, Jackson County campus on one night per week. The chief is also on the Community Corrections Board for Wood County and Jackson counties.

One of the assistant public defenders is a board member of DayMark, Inc., a non-profit youth service agency.

An administrative assistant is active in the 4H program in Roane County, WV and is also a member of the Spencer Volunteer Fire Department. Another administrative assistant is actively involved in coordinating beauty pageants and other activities of that nature to help young women receive college tuition assistance including grants and scholarships.

New & Noteworthy for 2016

Our office has experienced some staff transitions this year. Among the four attorneys who left our team, two remained in the PDC network. Shane McCullough is now in the 4th PDC (Parkersburg/Wood & Wirt Counties), and Susan Settle is now in the 13th PDC (Charleston/Kanawha County). We recently filled a vacant position that was added in the last budget cycle, and we are now a fully staffed team dedicated to the needs of indigent defendants in our judicial circuit.

We had a felony trial in Roane County which resulted in an acquittal and another trial resulting in a guilty verdict of a lesser misdemeanor when the client was first charged with attempted murder and wanton endangerment. We have had multiple cases where through plea bargaining or further investigation charges have been reduced or dismissed. We have worked diligently to protect each client's rights as they navigate the criminal justice system, often steering them toward sobriety.

Chief Defender, Kevin Postalwait, reviews material during the Chief Defender Meeting at the 2016 Indigent Defense Conference

We are scheduled to appear before the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals in September for an argument relating to an abuse and neglect case.

Staff attorney Andy Ryan attends the 2016 Indigent Defense Conference

We have had several clients participate in the Drug Court Program. These folks have made and continue to make remarkable strides from addiction to sobriety. We have had graduates who have seemed to truly change from a life of addiction to a life of sobriety and now hold full time jobs and maintain close family relationships that had been previously abandoned.

Public Defender Corporation for the Sixth & Twenty-fourth Judicial Circuits

The Public Defender Corporation for the 6th and 24th Judicial Circuits was founded on June 1, 1994 and serves Cabell and Wayne Counties. The one thing that stands out in our case load is the large number of felonies which is driven by a growing number of drug cases. Cabell County has had over 500 Circuit Court Felony cases annually in the last three calendar years and Wayne County has around 200 Circuit Court felonies. In Fiscal Year 2016 the Huntington office closed 4,179 cases and the Wayne office closed 896 cases which comes to 5,075 cases. Our Huntington office is staffed by eleven attorneys and three support staff, and our Wayne county office is staffed by five attorneys and one support staff. Our office has been active in helping establish and maintain in both counties: Adult Drug Courts in both counties, Truancy Courts, and Day Report Centers, as well as a Veterans Treatment Court in Wayne County, a Juvenile Drug Court in Wayne County, and a Pre-Trial Board in Cabell County.

The Public Defender Services Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2015 provides the following information on the condition of indigent defense costs for our region.

Court Appointed Counsel Cases in Cabell and Wayne Counties continue to be cost effective, when compared with other court appointed counsel around the state, even with increasing numbers in one of the most expensive categories covered, namely abuse and neglect cases.

Cabell County (6th Circuit) court appointed counsel had the third lowest cost per case for court appointed counsel in the state at $533.03. Wayne County (24th Circuit) court appointed counsel had the seventh lowest cost per case for court appointed counsel in the state at $638.69.

Court appointed counsel in Cabell and Wayne Counties represented 2,198 cases in FY 2015 including 490 felony cases, 622 abuse and neglect cases and 661 mental hygiene cases. They had an average cost per case of $593.86. This is up around $50 per case from Fiscal Year 2014. The increase is tied to an increase of 52 abuse and neglect cases. The Supreme Court's 2015 Statewide Data for Circuit Courts shows that there were a record 346 abuse and neglect cases in Cabell County and 102 cases in Wayne County. This is driven by the heroin drug epidemic in our region.

The Public Defender Corporation for the 6th and 24th Circuits continues to strive to provide quality representation for our clients in a region with a large number of cases. Historically, our office has been one of the leading Public Defender offices in cost effective representation. Fiscal Year 2015 continued that tradition as we:

- Had the second lowest cost per case among Public Defender Corporations at $394.94. The other two large offices with a large case load had higher cost per case rates. Kanawha (13th PDC) had a cost per case of $452.91 and the Eastern Panhandle (23rd PDC) offices had a cost per case of $660.22.
- Had the highest number of felonies among Public Defender Corporations (1,740) and the second highest share of representing felonies (78.03%) in the state
- Had the second highest number of misdemeanors (2,265) and the highest share of representation (95.25%) in the state

- Had the second highest number of cases among Public Defender offices (4,598 while Kanawha 7,238 and Eastern Panhandle had 4,909)
- Had the third highest grant ($1,815,921), behind Kanawha Co. at $3,278,180 and Eastern Panhandle at $2,700,307.

Several members of our staff also serve our community beyond our office. Mike Clark, our investigator, serves on the Board of Directors of the Hite Saunders Little League and the Board of Directors for the West Virginia Deputy Sheriff's Association. Nigel Jeffries serves on the local Board of Directors for Legal Aid and TEAM for W.Va. Children. Bob Wible is an assistant football coach with George Washington High School. Brent Walters serves on the Board of Directors for the Western Regional Day Report Center. Bob Wilkinson serves as the Vice Chair of the state Community Corrections Subcommittee of the Governor's Committee on Crime, Delinquency and Correction, which oversees the 27 Day report centers around the state. He is also an active member of the Supreme Court's Court Improvement Program Board where he works with the training committee and several policy committees. Bob is also on the Supreme Court's Fatality Review Board.

Public Defender Corporation for the Seventh Judicial Circuit

The last fiscal year has been focused on protecting the constitutional rights of our clients, and on getting as many people into alternative programs and out of jail and prison as possible. The overall picture is reflected in Logan County's own reported statistics. County administrators reported to our local newspaper back in January that the Regional Jail Bill has consistently gone down over the last nine years with savings in four million dollars in jail bills. Savings for Logan county equals freedom for the clients of the seventh judicial circuit. Our lawyers and our staff have over time come to play a very aggressive and central role in getting services for our clients including getting them local and regional substance abuse and mental health treatment. Working with programs like Day Report, Drug Court, Regional Mental Health, and many inpatient treatment facilities across the State has become a part of everyday operations for our office and that part of day to day operations has grown greatly in the last fiscal year. The goal of getting case-saving and sometimes lifesaving services quickly into play for our suffering clients is second only to protecting their constitutional rights and oftentimes there is little separation (if any) of those two important goals.

Our office has been serving Logan County since November, 1989. We believe we have a very clear reputation of working aggressively for our clients and protecting our clients' rights. This is a reputation we work hard to maintain every day. We diligently file aggressive pretrial motions dealing with constitutional issues so that on some occasions our clients don't have to risk the unpredictable nature of a jury trial. We also aggressively acquire quality plea agreements laced with reduced charges and treatment possibilities if our clients chose the route of seeking out a plea agreement with the State.

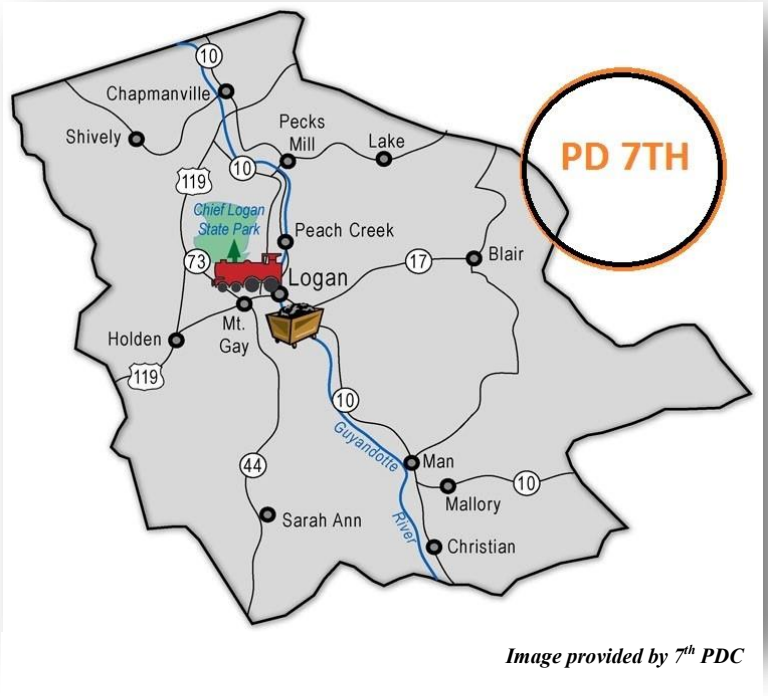

Image provided by 7th PDC

Due to the vast numbers of addicted clients, we have aggressively built essential connections in and outside our county with drug addiction service providers like Union Mission and others to help our clients maintain their freedom and to have a good quality of life when they are free. We continue to nourish the relationships with service providers as there can be no doubt that the services are in the best interests of our clients while simultaneously being in the best interest of our community. It is amazing how quickly people will help clients when they realize that ultimately we (Public Defenders) are like-minded in trying to save people from an unnecessary life of incarceration or worse—a greatly shortened life span.

We pride ourselves on having one of the most experienced Criminal Defense Teams in the State of West Virginia. That experience plays a crucial role in getting many bad cases dismissed or reduced to misdemeanors and it plays a role in helping the clients who look to us to get essential help from the destructive demon of addiction. A quick summary of our experienced criminal defense team is as follows:

Dwayne Adkins has been the Chief Public Defender for over a decade now and has practiced law for over twenty years. He is experienced as a Criminal Trial Lawyer and Civil Trial Lawyer having had jury trials in both Civil and Criminal Cases ranging from First Degree Murder to Medical Malpractice. He has been both a plaintiff's lawyer and an insurance defense lawyer. He has also been an assistant prosecuting attorney in the past hopefully giving him an understanding of prosecutorial perception that is beneficial to his clients. He has presented multiple arguments in both criminal and civil cases before the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals. Dwayne is active member of Southern Regional Day Report Board and Drug Court Teams for Logan County. Dwayne is a graduate of both Marshall and WVU.

Gerald Merceruio has over twenty five years' experience as a criminal trial lawyer. He has tried many cases in his time and has great skill as trial lawyer. His long standing loyalty to the Public Defender System places him among a now very short list of Public Defenders who have been aggressive advocates committed to helping the poor since the early 90's. Gerald received his undergraduate degree and law degree from WVU.

Don McDaniel is an extremely experienced criminal and civil lawyer, having practiced in both Texas and West Virginia. Don received his undergraduate degree from Yale and his law degree from Vanderbilt. He is known for his caring optimism, commitment to clients, and Christian charity, as well as his unique office decorations including a large Yale banner and the signature of a United States Supreme Court Justice whom Don admired as a young scholar. Outside the office, Don is very active in his local church and choir.

Ashley Cochran, the youngest but very experienced lawyer in the office, is focused primarily on Juvenile and Abuse and Neglect cases. She is often requested as co-counsel in sex crime cases and cases involving serious allegations involving children. Ashley interned for Public Defender several years ago and we were very happy to have her return to us as successful intern recruit of the Public Defender Intern Program that has had more than twenty years of success now. Importantly, she returned to us with valuable experience, having clerked for Judge O'Briant for a substantial period of time, as well as having received some of her training from well-known Abuse and Neglect guru Jane Moran. She also practiced as a Guardian Ad Litem in Family Court acquiring many relevant skills. Ashley is a graduate of Appalachian School of Law in Grundy, Virginia. Ashley has skills related to the modern age of "terroristic threats in Schools" as over the last fiscal year she has proven very effective at protecting the constitutional rights of young people charged with this often misleading and disturbing new-era crime. She reaches out beyond the court system and helps kids with the local Board of Education.

Our support staff utilize their experience to quickly and effectively help clients who are often having the worst experience of their life.

Long standing Office Manager Carol Booth remains the administrative right hand of our office. She keeps the lights on and makes up the gap we have for not having an in-house social worker. She is focused on the financial aspects of the office and working to get clients into drug rehabilitation programs. She uses skills normally carried by social workers and accountants. Carol has worked hard to build connections that assist the clients with getting the services that they need and is an essential part of the connection between treatment facilities and the clients. In truth she does the job of a social worker almost every day.

Pamela Esposito came to us as an experienced administrative assistant having a lot of experience working in a plaintiff's type law firm but a firm that also did a lot of criminal defense. She has continued to work hard and increase her commitment and skills since coming to work for us and has used her skills previously gained while working at a well-known town firm to help our clients. She is now very well known in the community for her commitment to Paw Squad and has gotten many State leaders involved in saving the poor dogs and cats of Logan County.

Brandi Clark administrative assistant also came with pre-existing skills having worked for Robert Noone and other lawyers before coming to work for us. She has great zeal to help others and has brought new administrative skills to our Public Defender Office she gained when with Bob and Phil. She is an active member of her Church and their good programs for helping the poor.

We have an open door policy here where we will see clients and their family members as long as we are not in Court even if they do not have an appointment. In has become clear that being here and being able to effectively answer questions for clients and their family members is an essential function of a Public Defender's Office. We pride ourselves on open, easy and quick access to quality criminal defense services.

We continue to pride ourselves on working hand-in-hand with other criminal defense lawyers who practice in our jurisdiction. In recent years we began a program of local relevant continuing legal education in combination with the Logan County Bar Association and although time caught us this fiscal year, we have renewed efforts to get the training back on track with the Local Bar and will invite our Board of Governor's Representative to be part of that as he is working on similar programs. We are working on a schedule of co-sponsoring training sessions that will be within the 2017 fiscal year. Importantly, we also continue to provide a very active service for local attorneys and their criminal clients that are not public defender clients by covering emergency hearings in certain necessary circumstances like detention hearings and in situations of scheduling conflicts as a panel attorney may have to be in another jurisdiction if a hearing is set on short notice. Simply being available to attend a Home Confinement or Probation Rule Reading can mean the difference of a night or weekend in jail, which doesn't sound like a lot unless you are the person who has to stay in jail, their mother, or the County who has to pay the bill for unnecessary incarceration. Being here and ready to react quickly matters to poor clients and their families' day in and day out to the County. While I was drafting this very document I was able to get two people released from jail who would otherwise have had to be incarcerated until normal scheduling procedures took place which could easily be weeks. In part I could do that simply because we are here and ready to go all the time, remaining on call after hours, on the weekends, and on holidays. The other reason I was able to get that done is that our office has the professional respect of the Judges, Prosecutors, and many agencies referenced above and trust that we are not bringing frivolous matters forward for unscheduled hearings or proposed expedited resolution. Crying moms, dads, wives, husbands, and children look to us for help and although we are far from perfect we are very focused on giving them a quick and quality assistance in way that no other lawyers or entity is designed to do. Of note, we are even on call here at the Logan Public Defender 24/7 including weekends and holidays.

Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Eighth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Eighth Judicial Circuit is in its 26th year of operation, being established since 1990 with three attorneys and two office staff. Due to the devastated economy, McDowell County has a great need for legal representation for those who are indigent.

Our office handles the following types of cases: felony, misdemeanor, abuse and neglect, juvenile delinquency, truancy, appeals of felonies and misdemeanors, mental hygiene, guardian ad litem, extraditions, drug court and community corrections board (day report).

Our Chief Defender, Floyd A. Anderson is a native of McDowell County. He earned his degree in Psychology from West Virginia University in 1988, and his law degree from Southern University Law Center in 1992 and became a member of the WV State Bar in 1994. Floyd joined the office in 1995 and because Chief Defender in 1998.

Robert E. Blair, Assistant Public Defender joined our office in 2003. He had a private practice for a number of years, and served as the Family Law Master. He has been a member of the WV bar for 60 years! Robert handles nine days of magistrate court each month in addition to preparation to handle these cases.

Our newest attorney, Brittany R. Puckett is a native of McDowell County. She earned her law degree from Appalachian Law School and was admitted to the WV bar in October 2013. Prior to joining our office, Brittany was employed by the McDowell County Board of Education for three years as a teacher for the third and fifth grades and a volleyball coach. Public Defender Corporation for the Ninth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Ninth Judicial Circuit recently celebrated its 25th year of operation, and has proudly handled nearly fifty thousand cases for indigent clients. Our office consists of seven attorneys and six support staff who manage court proceedings before three circuit court judges, five magistrates, and two municipal courts. We also had numerous Supreme Court appeals during the 2016 fiscal year.

We also serve on the Adult Drug Court and Juvenile Drug Court. Adult Drug Court increases the likelihood of successful rehabilitation through early continuous and intense treatment. Clients in Adult Drug Court must comply with mandatory periodic drug testing; community supervision; appropriate sanctions and incentives; and other rehabilitation services, all of which a judicial officer supervises. Jaime Arnold has recently joined our staff full time and has been instrumental in coordinating placement in Drug Treatment facilities.

We work with our juvenile offenders in Juvenile Drug Court to redirect them with alcohol or substance abuse behavior from the traditional juvenile court process, to an intensive, individualized treatment process. The mutual goal of our office and Juvenile Drug Court is to reduce future court involvement for youth.

Our attorneys obtained hundreds of dismissals in the past year. They have successfully utilized alternative sentencing options for clients, such as inpatient drug treatment, deferred adjudications, and Adult Drug Court.

Mercer County continues to have one of the highest number of open child abuse and neglect caseloads in the state. Substance abuse also plays a large role in the number of child abuse and neglect cases. During court proceedings, we help to protect parents' constitutional rights to parent their children.

We also participate on the Southern Regional Community Criminal Justice Board with representatives from the Court system and the community. The purpose of the board is to oversee

Public Defender Corporation for the Tenth Judicial Circuit

The 10th Circuit Public Defender Corporation is currently located at 220 N. Kanawha Street, Suite 2 in Beckley, WV. It currently employs a chief public defender, eight staff attorneys, and a full time support staff of six individuals plus a bookkeeper/office manager. The Office opened in 1989, making it one of the oldest Public Defender Corporations in the State.

Jane Calvert currently acts a Chairperson for the 10th Circuit Public Defender Corporation Board of Directors. In addition to Ms. Calvert, board members include John Wooton, Leigh Lefler, Harriet Jones and Pam Bates. Each Board member has served in their capacity for a minimum of four years.

The lawyers currently employed have been working at the office an average of about 9.5 years and have on average more than 21 years of legal experience each. During the 2016 fiscal year the office closed a total of 2,315 cases which included 513 felonies and 1,208 misdemeanors. This amounted to an average cost per case of approximately $456, compared to the average cost for appointed counsel in the same circuit of approximately $1,083. Our cost per case is one of the lowest in the state. We also represent approximately 75% of all cases in the circuit for which counsel is appointed, which is the third highest rate in the state. Much of the lower cost per case can be attributed to the experienced legal and support staff, the high ratio of cases per attorney (290 cases per counsel – one of the highest in the state), as well as a continuing effort to reduce cost incidental to operating the office.

Jury trials remain infrequent in this circuit but the most recent jury trial handled in Circuit Court by this office resulted in an outright acquittal as have the last three jury trials in magistrate court. The common denominator in all cases that go to trial is the input by several attorneys in the consultation of defense preparation. Cases are assigned evenly on a rotation basis so that each attorney handles matters in magistrate court, circuit court and before other miscellaneous tribunals, (parole hearings, mental hygiene, etc...).

Lawyer schedules are kept electronically on Time Matters as well as on desk calendars. All lawyers have access to Time Matters to keep their time and to check their calendar. Attorneys can access their files through the E-File Program as well as through the hard copy maintained in their office. Closed files can also be accessed through the E-File program. Cases over the past fourteen years have been scanned, reducing the need for storage of those documents. Backups of all records are maintained on and off premises ensuring their survival.

The legal staff meets frequently to review and discuss cases giving a committee approach to most cases. Standard pretrial motions are filed in all cases and attorneys individually review their cases to see what particular motions should be filed to properly advocate for their clients. The office is capable of running paperless since all documents received or produced are scanned digitally. The office maintains a form bank for motions and research on most legal issues and is supplemented with the current use of West Law.

The basic principle of the office is to provide the best possible legal defense to each client. Review of cases is done during brainstorming sessions which are held frequently.

Weekly meetings are held with the prosecuting attorney and local day report representative to review defendants that are incarcerated in jail to see if their release might be obtained through recognizance or other means of conditional bond. On average, three individuals per week are released after these meetings, saving the county approximately $1,000 per week. As with all offices, the initiation of Truancy Court and Drug Court has strained staff and resulted in the office creating an additional position for a staff attorney. The office will continue to persevere and uphold our statutory obligation to the state and professional obligation to our clients.

This office would seek to share any resources and information with other public defenders and lawyers representing criminal defendants to improve representation of those charged with crimes and those represented on matters where there is a legal mandate requiring representation by appointed counsel.

Public Defender Corporation for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit

Our office opened in 1999 with the goal of providing high quality and cost effective criminal defense to the citizens of Greenbrier and Pocahontas Counties.

West Virginia's place at the center of the opioid crisis has left everyone in the criminal justice system struggling for solutions and the 11th Judicial Circuit has been a leader in innovating and adopting new solutions. Chief Defender Joshua Edwards and Deputy Chief Defender Dewitt Daniell both serve on the advisory committee for Greenbrier County's Day Report Program. Laura Spadaro serves as a member of the drug court team in Pocahontas County. In addition to their formal role on the advisory committees, Public Defenders serve as informal advisors on policy matters and legal questions as they arise.

The attorneys and staff are:

Joshua L. Edwards, Chief Defender

In addition to his duties as Chief Public Defender, Mr. Edwards serves on the Community Corrections Advisory Board in both Greenbrier and Pocahontas Counties. He also serves on the Greenbrier County Drug Court treatment team and is a frequent contributor to both formal and informal efforts to improve the criminal justice system. Joshua enjoys the challenges of the courtroom and getting to know his clients as human beings so that he can tell their story and help them reach a better conclusion. Outside of work, Joshua has two sons who keep him running non-stop. He serves as a coach and board member for the Northern Greenbrier Youth Soccer League, previously served as Assistant Commissioner and coach for the Greenbrier Valley Athletic Association first and second grade basketball league and is active in the Lewisburg United Methodist Church, having served as a Youth Group leader and on various committees from the Communications Team to the Trustees for the past twelve years.

Dewitt W. Daniell, Deputy Chief Defender

Mr. Daniell also participates as a member of the Community Corrections Advisory Board that oversees the Day Report and Drug Court programs in Greenbrier County. As a former school teacher, he remains interested in education and has visited Greenbrier East High School on a number of occasions to present programs related to his experience as a public defender to students. Beyond his work-related activities, Dewitt is a musician; he plays the banjo in a traditional bluegrass band and often lends his talent to charitable causes in his community. He has played at the Lewisburg United Methodist Church on numerous occasions, Pocahontas County Community Centers, WellSpring of Greenbrier County, and a number of fundraising events throughout southeastern West Virginia. Dewitt is the recipient of the 2012 Dambro Award as the Outstanding West Virginia Public Defender.

Steve K. Paragamian, Assistant Defender

Steve serves as the Assistant Public Defender in Greenbrier County's Magistrate Court. He reminds us that "when people come in my door, they are often terrified, beaten down, at the end of their rope. The high point of being a West Virginia Public Defender is when I get to help a person get her life back on track, when I not only do the legal work, but can operate in our complex, interrelated government system, to help that person perhaps get the job, get the appropriate counseling, maybe hear the right word that convinces her to get clean and sober." He indicates that, "When I look back on all this, I won't remember winning a suppression hearing on a couple ounces of pot; I'll remember those times I helped put a family back together, helped someone get a job and get clean and get his self-respect back, helped somebody go back to school and even try out college". Outside of the office Steve volunteers at the Greenbrier County Animal Shelter and interviews students for his alma mater, Haverford College.

Keshia Tenorio, Assistant Public Defender

Ms. Tenorio is the youngest of the office's lawyers having graduated from the West Virginia University School of Law in 2014. Her primary duties consist of representing parents in abuse and neglect cases and representing juveniles. Keshia demonstrates a remarkable ability to connect with her juvenile clients, understand their needs and to help them get their individual needs addressed by a system that tends to have a one size fits all approach. While in law school, Keshia was active in the Black Law Student's Association, Moot Court and the Lugar Trial Association. She is currently a member of Generation Greenbrier Valley which is an organization that aims to attract, retain, and advance emerging leaders in the Greenbrier Valley.

Laura Spadaro, Assistant Public Defender

Ms. Spadaro joined our team in November of 2015. She had previously been in private practice in Raleigh County. Laura has been busy since her arrival, trying and winning her first case (with our office) in March 2016. She also serves on the Pocahontas County Drug Court Treatment Team. She remarks that, "Alternatives to incarceration are being embraced in Pocahontas County" and that "the Day Report Center [is] having a meaningful impact on the community and on the lives of many of our clients".

Yevette Shafer, Office Manager

Yevette started with the Public Defender Corporation as a secretary in 2009 and assumed her duties as Office Manager in 2011. Prior to working for the Public Defender Corporation she had a varied career, working as everything from a quality control manager to serving as the risk management administrator for the West Virginia Soccer Association. Outside of the office she is active in her church and community. Yevette has served as a Church representative on Association, State and National levels. She started a project making chocolate easter egg candies that raises $3,000 to $5,000 dollars annually for college scholarships. She has taken mission trips to Prague and Peru and is planning one to Amsterdam in April. She also helps hold monthly worship services at a local low income apartment complex. In October, 2017, she will graduate from the West Virginia Baptist Convention School of Christian Studies with a degree in Pastoral Ministry. Further, she is active in Habitat for Humanity Women Build, The Red Cross and the CROP Walk (an annual event that raises money to fight hunger).

Madora Smith, Secretary

Madora joined the Public Defender Corporation in 2014 but became familiar with the Court system prior to that as a CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) volunteer. CASA volunteers serve as a voice to children in the abuse and neglect system. As such, they investigate cases and attend court hearings. Madora's experience as a CASA volunteer has given her a unique insight into our practice as Public Defenders. She relates that "During my off time I am a wife, mother and grandma. My family actively participates in the First Baptist Church of Huntersville, WV. I am blessed to be in a family that has a diverse range of interests from classical piano to hunting and fishing."

Lois Airgood, Secretary

Lois just completed her first year in the Public Defender Corporation having previously worked as a legal assistant for a private practitioner working with social security and black lung cases. She indicates that, "The criminal arena is a whole new experience and can be a challenge considering the sheer volume and variety of cases". Lois also had a variety of careers prior to joining the Public Defender Corporation. She worked as a computer consultant for MCI telecommunications, the United States Supreme Court and the Georgia Supreme Court. Lois also ran a small computer support firm, Evergreen Apps, and was the owner/operator of Yew Mountain Lodge in Hillsboro, West Virginia. She has also served as a volunteer music instructor for the Hillsboro Elementary School.

Public Defender Corporation for the Twelfth Judicial Circuit

Nancy S. Fraley joined the office in April, 2005 as an Assistant and in September 2006 was named Chief. Previously Nancy worked in the Mingo and then Cabell County Public Defender's Offices. Her goal was always to work in Fayette County where she is close to her Mother in Charleston and her Mother-in-Law in Richwood.

As Chief Public Defender Nancy works closely with her "new best friend" and accountant Louis Briguglio. She prepares time/leave reports, drafts board agendas and minutes, reviews the financial affidavits, and carries a full case load. Nancy enjoys questioning witnesses and making arguments. The Office tends to rely on Nancy's people skills and common sense.

Nancy is happily married to James Fraley. The couple has a Grandson, Luke. Nancy enjoys cooking at the Richwood Ramp Dinner, and volunteering at the Cherry River Festival 5K runs. In her spare time Nancy enjoys gardening (weather permitting) and knitting (always).

James Adkins has been working in the Office since February, 2006. He previously worked as a Public Defender in Kentucky and then a private attorney. Jim is the best researcher within the office and is relied upon to read indictments for errors and to assist in developing a Motions plan for each case.

Jim enjoys trial work, like Scott he is a bit of a trial junkie. He is the attorney within the office who most often represents defendants incarcerated at Mount Olive Correctional Center.

Jim is very active in his community. He is a mentor to High School students, makes his famous chicken salad for various school fund raisers and coaches soccer. Jim is a faithful blood donor. He is a gifted musician and keeps the office mood cheerful not only with his songs but with his dancing and jokes.

E. Scott Stanton is the most senior of the office attorneys; although he is quick to point out that he is more than a year younger than Nancy S. Fraley. Prior to joining our office in February, 2003, Scott maintained a private practice for a number of years and worked as a panel attorney in several counties. As a young lawyer he was an Assistant Prosecutor for Fayette County and also served as President of the Young Lawyers Committee.

As Deputy Chief of the Office, Scott is involved in personnel decisions, attends board meetings, offers input in the management of the office and is the primary liaison between the office and our board members. The Office relies on him for his knowledge of our clients' family connections with each other. Scott is a bit of a trial junkie and enjoys handling complex cases that are likely to go to trial.

Scott serves as a member of the Nicholas County Sheriff's Department Civil Service Board. He also is a competition chef and a member of a championship trivia team. Scott is an avid music lover and attends as many concerts as possible. His son recently moved to Colorado and this has provided Scott with a much needed excuse to travel and get away from the office. Scott is looking forward to becoming a first time Grandfather to a little girl after the first of the year.

Jennifer Alvarez is the Office's most recent hire. She began working with us in August of 2015. Jennifer has also worked in the McDowell and Mercer County Public Defender Offices as well as for Child Law. She was raised in Fayette County and this job brought her back home. She handles juvenile delinquency and abuse and neglect cases, and is also the Office's Drug Court Representative.

Jennifer is married and the mother of three handsome sons. She is a regular cast member in productions by the Fayette Theater. Those interested can see her perform, together with her son Zander in 'It's a Wonderful Life' in December. Although no longer working for them Jennifer works on fund raising projects for Child Law, and is the Athens City Court Judge. She is also active in Greyhound rescue work. Jennifer enjoys running (though no one understands why).

Public Defender Corporation for the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit (Kanawha County Public Defender Office) prides itself in providing client-centered representation to indigent individuals. Opened as a full-scale office in 1989 with the mission to provide legal services to individuals facing criminal charges in Kanawha County, the Office has thrived and affected positive change in our court system by employing a staff that vigorously represents our clients and strives to protect their rights.

This year, many of our employees reached out and offered aid of every kind after historic flooding devastated our community. Sadly, some of our employees were severely affected. Yet, just like family, our office banded together to provide aid to co-workers and the community stricken by this tragedy.

Public Defender Corporation for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit

Our office opened in 1994 with the goal of providing indigent defendants with access to counsel specializing in criminal matters. With three attorneys, the Corporation took on approximately 99 cases in its first year of operation.

Over twenty years later, the Public Defender Corporation for the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit has eight attorneys and is recognized as the standard for criminal defense in Harrison County. Defendants and respondents are protected by a corps of experienced, dedicated attorneys who handle approximately 1,400 cases a year, ranging from simple misdemeanor offenses to high profile felony cases. In addition to the misdemeanor and felony matters the Corporation's Attorneys handle Abuse and Neglect, Family Court contempt, Mental Hygiene, Extradition, Probation Revocation, and Juvenile Status and Delinquency proceedings. Several Attorneys are also currently certified to accept Guardian Ad Litem appointments to represent children in Abuse and Neglect cases.

A majority of offenses committed within the County are substance abuse related. For this reason the Corporation has forged relationships with area substance abuse treatment professionals and facilities in an effort to reduce recidivism and secure better outcomes for clients. A number of these clients are also returning combat veterans. With that in mind the Corporation has partnered with the VA Hospital located in the County in an effort to provide additional treatment and alternative sentencing options for those clients.

The Corporation participated in the development of both the Harrison County Juvenile and Adult Drug Courts in the County and actively participates with, and serves on the Boards of, both Courts.

Additionally, the Corporation is an active member of the Circuit's Court Advisory Board and the Community Corrections Board.

The Corporation's size and proximity to the WVU College of Law allow us the unique opportunity to partner with the Law School to host Summer Interns and Fall and Spring Externs. This opportunity provides valuable hands-on experience to those aspiring to become criminal defense attorneys.

Our goal is to not only provide expert legal representation within the community, but also provide to the community. We encourage our employees to participate in, and give back to, their community. For example, last Easter we partnered with local merchants to provide food to the local Mission.

Whether by procuring needed services for clients or by participating in programs within the community, we hope that we can make a positive impact in the lives of our clients and in the communities we serve.

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-third Judicial Circuit

The Mission of the Eastern Panhandle Public Defender Office (EPPDO) is to provide competent, thoroughly professional legal representation to the indigent criminally accused in all Courts in the Twenty-third (23rd) Judicial Circuit of West Virginia in an efficient, cost-effective manner when appointed to do so by competent judicial authority.

Our clientele primarily consists of defendants in criminal matters at the felony and misdemeanor levels in Circuit and Magistrate Court, but the obligation to provide professional, competent legal representation extends to and includes appointments to represent offending respondents in parental rights termination matters ("abuse and neglect" cases), Family Law Court contempt proceedings, juvenile offender matters and mental hygiene involuntary commitment proceedings, as well as appellate matters at various levels when assigned to do so by a Court, to include prosecuting appeals in the WV Supreme Court of Appeals.

The EPPDO office responsibilities include all the courts in all three county jurisdictions in the Eastern Panhandle (Berkeley, Jefferson and Morgan), as well as seven individual municipal courts in various towns throughout the Panhandle, particularly Martinsburg's Municipal Court. Our two separate offices are located in Martinsburg, which covers all matters in Berkeley and Morgan counties, and a satellite office in Charles Town, which handles all matters in Jefferson County. In Fiscal Year 2016, the office handled 4,448 individual, discrete cases and we are currently on pace to exceed that total in 2017, due to a combination of population growth, as well as the easing of financial eligibility guidelines that dictate and control the availability of court-appointed counsel.

Established nearly thirty years ago and operating continuously since, we are the second largest Public Defender Corporation in West Virginia, with a staff of 33 individuals: 20 licensed attorneys and 13 clerical support staff members and investigators. The team at the EPPDO is a committed, dedicated crew, truly devoted to ensuring that our clients of all types are treated justly: we fiercely protect the rights of poor, often powerless and uneducated people accused of being criminals, or are somehow enmeshed in other legal difficulties touching upon fundamental rights, thus ensuring that the criminal justice system is administered fairly, remains open, accessible and even-handed -- and is perceived as such by the general public and citizenry that we serve. We ensure that the everyday-person accused of wrongdoing by a powerful government and police apparatus is not overwhelmed and unduly intimidated and that his or her voice and "side of the story" is told by a tenacious, professional advocate committed to his or her cause. As Chief Public Defender, and a veteran of nearly twenty years in the trenches at the EPPDO, I am supremely confident that we are well-regarded and respected by all the judges and opposing counsel in our bailiwick. We are the proverbial "overworked and underpaid" public servants: despite staggering caseloads —well above and greatly surpassing ABA guideline levels - and extremely low compensation relative to our peers in the local prosecutors' offices, we enjoy very low turnover among the staff and have accrued a level of experience and expertise unrivaled in the State: a devoted team of career Public Defenders serving the State and her people and Courts.

Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-fifth Judicial Circuit

The only constant is change and 2016 brings change to the Twenty-fifth. Having established our office in June of 2000, this year Chief Robert "Bob" White begins his next act. Bob's retirement creates new opportunity, both in his future and in that of an office he formed sixteen years ago. We wish Bob the best of luck and happiness in retirement!

At present, our corporation operates offices in both Boone and Lincoln counties. The Lincoln County office, sited in Hamlin, is staffed by two attorneys and one secretary. Our senior attorney in Hamlin, H.C. Woods, has been an employee of the corporation since its inception. Presently, he counsels all misdemeanor clients and safeguards defendants' rights as a member of the Lincoln County Drug Court treatment panel. David Lockwood, a fourteen year member of our team, brings considerable trial experience to the court room. At this time, David manages all felony cases appointed to the Lincoln Office. Finishing out the Lincoln County group is Delena Toler. Delena demonstrates dedication commuting from Madison to Hamlin daily to support the needs of our Hamlin based office and its attorneys.

The Boone County Office, situated on Main Street in Madison, staffs four attorneys, one secretary, and our new office manager. The senior attorney in our Madison office is Howard Nolen. Howard's tenure in Boone County began in July of 2005. He manages all misdemeanor cases appointed to our Boone office. With years of experience, Howard is astute in negotiating favorable pleas and fostering alternative resolutions in magistrate court. David Ford hit the ground running in our Boone office three years ago, immediately taking on felony cases. David's knowledge and determination are assets to the office and to those he defends. Tim Gibson joined our Boone office two years ago. Tim's primary focus comprises abuse and neglect and juvenile matters, but eagerly takes on additional felony cases. In fact, Tim successfully defended a 2nd degree sexual assault charge in 2016, obtaining a jury acquittal at trial. Kathy Lane is a six-year member of the Madison staff. Her office know-how and winning attitude are both readily apparent. When questions and obstacles arise, Kathy brings answers and solutions. For these reasons, Kathy was selected as our new Office Manager. I am certain our office will benefit greatly as a result. Jeanna Butcher entered the Boone office in 2012. Alongside Kathy, she takes on behind the scenes tasks to equip our attorneys for court. Jeanna is presently focused on obtaining an Associate Degree in Legal Office Assisting to further her contributions.

Our Board of Directors includes Tony Hensley, Jim Gore, Kerry Matthews, and Wendle Cook. Beyond his commitment to the Corporation, our Chairman, Tony Hensley, operates a family-owned hardware store in Danville, is Vice-President of the Boone Memorial Hospital Board of Directors, and is a member of the Danville Town Council. Jim Gore, with over thirty years of managerial experience in the private sector and county administration, brings practical knowledge to the corporation. Jim is also appointed to the Boone Memorial Hospital Board of Directors. Kerry Matthews is a Lincoln County Commissioner, but the greater part of his day is spent teaching science to Scott High School students. Wendle Cook manages the Cook and Cook Law Firm in Madison where he has practiced law for thirty years. Wendle is also President of the Boone County Community Organization.

And that brings me to the newest member of our office: Me. My name is Troy D. Adams. I just recently assumed the Chief Public Defender role following Bob's retirement. I come to the Corporation by way of the Boone County Prosecuting Attorney's Office. Previous to that, I had the good fortune of clerking for Judge William Thompson in the 25th Judicial Circuit. Preceding law school, I flew as a commercial airline pilot for ten years. As a decade long airline union member, labor law seemed a logical choice early on in school, but issues in criminal law and procedure soon captured my interest. And so here I am. Outside of court, much of my free time revolves around my children's extracurricular interests. In spring, that entails coaching two Boone County Soccer Club teams and acting as the league's treasurer. Presently, I volunteer as a Tiger Cub Den Leader in Boy Scout Troop 289 in Madison.

As a prosecutor, I personally witnessed the skillfulness of most of the attorneys I now ally with. I am thrilled at the opportunity to work alongside them. It is my goal as Chief to lead by example and to empower our staff, ensuring effective, efficient, and high quality representation for indigent defendants in Boone and Lincoln County. As their advocate, that duty befits my core focus.

Troy Adams,
Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Twenty-eighth Judicial Circuit

The 28th Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation in Summersville was first established in 1983, making it the first public defender corporation in the state.

D. Mark Snyder was the sole practitioner and public defender until Cynthia Stanton was hired in October 1987. For the first seven years, Ms. Stanton was the only public defender in Nicholas County. In 1994 a decision in Charleston was made to hire an assistant public defender to work with Ms. Stanton and in the last twenty-two years, six attorneys have held this position. Sarah Campbell was hired and began working in October 2013 and specializes in abuse and neglect proceedings, along with her other caseload. The 28th Judicial Circuit Public Defender has two attorneys and two administrative assistants. Kathy O'Dell has worked in the office for nineteen years and now serves as the office manager. Theresa Cartwright began working for our corporation in 2015, after working many years in other law offices. Ms. Stanton is the longest serving public defender in the state.

The 28th Judicial Circuit Public Defender Corporation has maintained an annual caseload of approximately 500-600 cases per year since Ms. Stanton has taken over. This office has been responsible for indigent representation in all areas of criminal defense eligible proceedings. Our two attorneys handle 73% of all criminal applicants that are appointed in the county. We handle all mental hygiene hearings during work hours and at night unless we have a conflict. The attorneys handle all court appointments unless there is a co-defendant or similar conflict. Ms. Stanton appears in family court when appointed by the Family Court Judge. Drug Court has just been established and Ms. Stanton serves on the Board. Ms. Stanton is also the President of the Community Corrections Board that oversees the Day Report Center. She traveled to Charleston in June to obtain grant monies for the continuance of this successful program established in Nicholas County.

We have always had each attorney prepared and ready to conduct any kind of criminal proceeding. Since there is still a satellite magistrate office in Richwood (26 miles away), we are also required to attend court there on average of one day a week or three times a month or more. Every attorney that has left the office is typically prepared to handle all types of criminal proceedings. The ability to accomplish this is based upon necessity as our Circuit only elects one judge and our attorneys have to be available for all proceedings during the weekdays, weeknights, and weekends. In fact, several of our attorneys have served as assistant prosecutors, and of the five former assistant public defenders, two currently serve as the Chief Prosecuting Attorney in their circuit, ours included.

Cynthia Stanton,
Chief Public Defender

Public Defender Corporation for the Thirtieth Judicial Circuit

The Public Defender Corporation for the 30th Judicial Circuit is the largest, busiest, and most experienced law firm in Mingo County. We are proud to be leaders in our legal community.

Recently, that leadership has been put to the test. In an almost unimaginable scandal, our former Circuit Judge, County Prosecutor, Chief Magistrate and Williamson's mayor would all be convicted of federal crimes for abusing their offices. Months before the federal investigation was made public, our office stood alone, filing motion after motion challenging the officials' corrupt practices. Challenging the only judge in a one-judge circuit was not popular, but it was right.

Following the officials' convictions, others looked to our office to help stabilize and rebuild. In fact, two of our attorneys were recommended by the Governor's Judicial Vacancy Advisory Commission to replace the deposed Judge. Although these have been tough years, fraught with the difficulties inherent in practicing first in front of a rotating cast of retired judges and then a new judge two of us had run against, we are happy to see much improvement in Mingo County, and very proud of the role we played.

Our Office

Our office opened for business on January 15, 1990. Since that time we've grown from a one attorney, one secretary office to a 4 attorney office with a clerical staff of three. Our office handles approximately 500 cases a year, including felony, misdemeanor, juvenile and mental hygiene matters. Over the years our attorney staff has supervised 30+ law student interns from 10 different law schools, many of whom have chosen to practice law in West Virginia.

Our chief defender, Teresa McCune, attended Marshall University and Antioch School of Law. She handles most of our juvenile matters and murder cases. Teresa is active in state and local bar and community service. Teresa was appointed by governor Tomblin to serve on the state Indigent Defense Commission, as well as being chosen as a Rural Juvenile Ambassador by the mid-Atlantic Juvenile Defender Center. She chairs the State Bar Commission on Children and the Law, serves on the WV Supreme Court of Appeals Region Three Fatality Review Task force and is a former MCLE Commissioner. Teresa is a member of the WV State Bar CLE and Criminal Law Committees. She has been named a WV Bar Foundation Fellow, and has received the Governor's Service Award. Teresa founded and directs "On Track for College," an award-winning college bound coaching program that helps students preparing for higher education. She is also a member of Williamson Woman's Club (chosen Clubwoman of the Year 2015) and the Mingo/Pike branch of AAUW. Locally, Teresa is also the Chair of Christian Help of Mingo County, a charitable organization which provides direct aid to the needy. At the 2015 King Coal Festival Teresa was awarded the Humanitarian Award for her community service.
